

Alicia Moy
Workforce Development Council

Alicia E. Moy
President & Chief Executive Officer
Hawaii Gas

Alicia Moy became president and chief executive officer of Hawaii Gas in [REDACTED]. Previously, Alicia was senior vice president of Macquarie Infrastructure Company (MIC), which owns, operates and invests in a diversified group of infrastructure businesses in the United States. At Macquarie, Alicia oversaw management of several utility companies, corporate strategy, and funding.

She also serves on the board of directors for Macquarie Renewable Energy Holdings, a portfolio of eight wind and solar generation facilities producing over 260 megawatts of renewable energy in the United States. Alicia is a member of several professional, community and leadership organizations. She serves on the boards of the Chamber of Commerce of Hawaii, Aloha United Way, the March of Dimes and the Western Energy Institute. She sits on advisory boards for the Hawaii Clean Energy Initiative and Women in Renewable Energy. Her professional affiliations include Women Corporate Directors, Military Affairs Council, Hawaii Business Roundtable and the Young President's Organization.

Alicia holds a bachelor's degree in finance and marketing from the University of Miami and a master's degree in finance from INSEAD.