

Resume

Margaret Williams

Objective:

To provide knowledgeable representation for Barbers in Hawaii by obtaining a position on the Hawaii Board of Barbering and Cosmetology, actively participating in board meetings, assisting with decisions that will affect the barber and cosmetology community in Hawaii.

Education: Graduate of the Barber Styling Program at Honolulu Barber School
Attended and continues to attend many workshops, webinars, read manuals to keep current with trends, rules and regulations and grow thru self-direction, motivation and discipline.

University of Hawaii [redacted]
Sacred Hearts Academy [redacted]
Honolulu Barber School [redacted]

Licenses: Barber BAR 1472 and Barber Instructor T899

Experience: Worked with Leo G Williams in Shops he controlled/
Assisted with the Coast Guard Barber shop concession approx. [redacted]
Le Paul Barber Shop, Royal Hawaiian Hotel approx. [redacted]
Hair Phernalia, Amfact Building approx. [redacted]
Honolulu Barber School, [redacted] current.

Current: President, Hawaii Institute of Hair Design.
Employed with the Honolulu Barber School [redacted]

Assisted with expanding school offerings into cosmetology, building a model school [redacted] and applying for the school's and all of the following accreditations.
Added Cosmetology to the course offerings

Assumed presidency [redacted]. Over [redacted] years of experience in cutting and styling hair. Operate Hawaii Institute of Hair Design in which salon services are performed for the public by students under supervision of instructors. The School has been offering the Barber Styling Program for over 60 years, managed by a family dedicated to the propagation of new barber stylists for shops and salons in Hawaii, Administrative functions and staff are managed and overseen by Margaret Williams.

Experienced in all areas of barber school administration and operation of a salon/barber shop.

Participation: Member of RICCO legislative Committee
Actively participated in legislation (sunset, crossover, testimony, etc.) as the Legislative Connection for the Honolulu Barber Association, Regularly attends barber board meetings.