Aloha. I am honored to be nominated to serve as Hawaii Island Commissioner to the King Kamehameha Celebration Committee. As Hawaii is the island of Kamehameha Nui, we still hold him proudly in the highest regard and cherish our familial connections.

For many years I've participated in the Hilo lei draping in various capacities; representing the Mayors Office, as a board member of the Volcano Art Center, on behalf of Kanaiolowalu, a member of Halau Na Kipu`upu`u, a member of the Hawaiian Civic Club of Hilo, a grateful parent of two Kamehameha Schools Hawaii graduates and finally as a keiki o ka `aina.

Kamehameha cultivated personal and military strength, respect for family and tradition, diplomacy, technology and more to reach his goals. These values and practices remain relevant today. In addition, I love the protocol and pageantry of the celebration and the opportunity to share the continuing legacy of our king with visitors and locals alike.

If confirmed, I look forward to working with the KKCC to continue this important work.

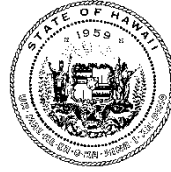

Mahalo nui,

Desiree Moana Cruz
