

Will Caron SB10 Testimony

Will Caron for the Young Progressives Demanding Action. My testimony on this measure is essentially the same as it was for SB11. What kind of society are we when our only solution to houselessness is to push people off one block and onto another? As long as “compassionate disruption”—illegal search and seizure sweeps—continue, we believe there must be a governmental entity dedicated to mitigating the damaging effects of these sweeps, in particular with regard to the loss of identification, which makes the already brutally challenging lives of our houseless brothers and sisters even more difficult. If the sweeps were to end, we might not need to fund or create such an entity, but as there is no bill currently making its way through this body that would terminate, by law, these unconstitutional sweeps, we
