Comments: I am writing in strong support of SB21, which would increase civil penalties and establish felony charges for State licensed day care providers who violate day care laws and endanger, injure or cause the death children. This law is necessary to protect the lives and well-being of our keiki in the care of others.

Please note that testimony submitted less than 24 hours prior to the hearing, improperly identified, or directed to the incorrect office, may not be posted online or distributed to the committee prior to the convening of the public hearing.
