

As the Treasurer and chief investment officer for the County of Hawaii, I fully support SB407. This bill will increase flexibility for the counties by allowing the same investment options afforded to the State. While broadening the investment options for the counties, the bill also contains restrictive language for specific investments that provide further safeguards and clarification.