A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO AFFORDABLE HOUSING.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

SECTION 1. Chapter 171, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended by adding a new section to subpart D of part II to be appropriately designated and to read as follows:

"§171- Affordable housing; county-designated transit-oriented development zone. (a) For a leasehold residential development project subject to section 171-60(a), the board shall require in its development contract with the developer or developers that, if the development project is located on public land that is wholly or partially situated within a county-designated transit-oriented development zone, then no less than _____ per cent of the residential units in the development project shall be sold or rented only to low-income residents for the entire term of the developer's or developers' leasehold interest in the land.

(b) For the purposes of this section, a "low-income resident" means an individual who is a resident of the State and:

(1) Is the only member of a family of one and has an income of not more than            per cent of the area median income for a family of one; or

(2) Is part of a family with an income of not more than
                                         per cent of the area median income for a family
of the same size."

SECTION 2. Chapter 201H, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended by adding a new section to part II to be appropriately designated and to read as follows:

"§201H-            Affordable housing; county-designated transit-oriented development zone. (a) In addition to the restrictions under section 201H-47, if the real property to be developed and sold is located wholly or partially within a county-designated transit-oriented development zone, the corporation shall:

(1) Sell only a leasehold interest in the real property;
and

(2) Require in the lease that no less than            per cent of the dwelling units in the development project shall be sold or rented only to low-income residents for the 1           entire term of the purchaser's leasehold interest in 2           the real property.

3           (b) For the purposes of this section, a "low-income 4 resident" means an individual who is a resident of the State 5 and:

6           (1) Is the only member of a family of one and has an 7           income of not more than           per cent of the area
8           median income for a family of one; or

10                     per cent of the area median income for a family 11           of the same size."

12           SECTION 3. Chapter 206E, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 13 amended by adding a new section to part I to be appropriately 14 designated and to read as follows:

15           "§206E-       Affordable housing; county-designated 16 transit-oriented development zone. (a) In addition to the 17 authority granted under section 206E-15, if the authority deems 18 it desirable to develop and transfer to qualified persons a 19 residential project that is:

20           (1) Located on public land that is under the control and 21           management of the authority; and

1        (2) Wholly or partially situated within a county-2                designated transit-oriented development zone, 3 then the project shall be subject to the requirements of 4 subsection (b).

5        (b) The authority shall:

6        (1) Transfer to qualified persons only a leasehold 7                interest in the land; and 8        (2) Require in the leasehold agreement with the qualified 9                persons that no less than        per cent of the 10               residential units in the project shall be sold or 11               rented only to low-income residents for the entire 12               term of the leasehold interest in the public land.

13        (c) For the purposes of this section, a "low-income 14 resident" means an individual who is a resident of the State 15 and:

16        (1) Is the only member of a family of one and has an 17               income of not more than        per cent of the area
18               median income for a family of one; or

19        (2) Is part of a family with an income of not more than 20                     per cent of the area median income for a family 21               of the same size."
