

Susan Andol Lee

PROFESSIONAL:

April 2003 – November 30, 2107

Leahi Hospital, Honolulu, HI

Registered nurse. Director of the Oahu Region Employee Health Office comprised of two long-term care facilities with 325+ employees. Duties include:

- Implement annual tuberculosis screening for all employees. Tuberculin Skin Test Certification April 2004 required by State Department of Health-Lanakila Health Center.
- Provide treatment, follow-up, and emergency care for job-related injuries and illnesses
- Health promotion- annual flu immunization to employees
- Counseling and crisis management
- Legal and regulatory compliance- Hepatitis B vaccination
- Worker and workplace hazard detection
- Member of Infectious Disease, Safety Committee and Chair of Leahi Emergency Management Committee- 2015-2017

October 2004 - Present

Wound Care Certification by the National Alliance of Wound Care.

Developed wound care polices, educational program for staff, provide assessments and training on pressure ulcers and skin care, and perform weekly wound care rounds on residents with skin breakdown. Research and evaluate new wound care products and procedures. Provide clinical assessments of resident's skin concerns to Leahi Hospital and Maluhia long term care facilities as needed.

April 2003 – November 2004

Hawaii Health Systems Corporation, Honolulu HI

Oahu Region Coordinator of the Rural Development Fund Grant. Managed a $100,000 grant for

- Recruitment and retention of nursing staff
- Provide opportunities to further their education
- Specialty training for the nursing staff
- Sponsored seminars to update nursing staffs' skills
- Purchase of equipment to be used in training staff.

July 1989 – April 2003

St. Francis Home Care Services, Honolulu, HI

Registered Nurse as a member of a multidisciplinary professional healthcare team of physicians, hospital management, staff, and community agencies performing nursing services in the home.

This position included direct patient care and instruction requiring considerable independence and professional judgment in broad nursing areas of: pediatrics, obstetrics, surgery, IV therapy, geriatrics, restorative and terminal care, wound assessment and care, patient education and nutrition. Participated as a preceptor to Baccalaureate level nursing students from University of Hawaii and Hawaii Pacific University.

July 1998 – June 2014

St. Francis Home Care Services, Honolulu, HI

After hour call nurse 60 hours a week, island-wide for over 140 patients with urgent medical questions and concerns. Home visits are made as deemed necessary for foley or feeding tube re-insertion and for caregiver/patient education on intravenous medication, pain or total parental nutrition administration.

February 1988 – July 1989

Kapiolani Medical Center for Women and Children, Honolulu, HI

Provided immediate post-operative care to post-partum gynecological and pediatric surgical patients in the recovery room.

September 1977 – February 1988

Kapiolani Medical Center for Women and Children, Honolulu, HI

Registered Nurse. This position provided care to medical and surgical adolescent patients aged nine to twenty-two. Responsible for chemotherapy, orthopedic care, assisted in growth hormone studies, and cared for chronic and acute diseases

EDUCATION

████████████████████
State University of New York at Buffalo, Buffalo, NY
Affiliated with Meyer Memorial Hospital School of Nursing

████████████████████
D'Youville College, Buffalo, NY
Bachelor of Science in Nursing
Licensed Registered Professional Nurse No. 21537

██████████ - Home Care Certified, ANCC (American Nurses Credentialing Center)

██████████ - Wound Care Certified, WCC by the National Alliance of Wound Care (NAWC). Recertified October 2009, 2014

OTHER EXPERIENCE

November 2015 to present- Member of Speaker's Bureau for Kokua Mau, a non-profit palliative and hospice organization presenting The Conversation Project to community groups facilitating in completing advance directives and addressing end of life issues.

November 2014- Completed Respecting Choices as an Advance Care Planning (ACP) Facilitator, 9.4 contact hours. The online program and one eight hour classroom day consists of a series of six critical thinking modules designed for healthcare professionals who want to enhance their ACP facilitation skills.

September –December 2013- Completed Statewide Palliative and Hospice Training Program presented by the Hawaii Medical Services Association, Hawaii Health Systems Corporation, University of Hawaii at Manoa School of Nursing and Dental Hygiene and Kokua Mau. This program was developed to help initiate conversation on goals of care for our patients.

May 2006- November 2009

Participated with the Community Service Committee with the Wound Ostomy Continence Nurses (WOCN) Hawaii Affiliate and The Hawaii State Department of Health and the Office of Healthcare Assurance (OHCA) providing annual free training on Maui, Kauai and the Big Island on skin and continence care for health care providers of the elderly and vulnerable residents in the community.

August 2005- Ham radio License # NH7ZA, renewed 2015

September 5-October 16, 2005- Kapiolani Community College- Instructor for Long Term Care Nurse Aide Course # 34342, 6 credits with 150 hours of classroom with clinical days at Leahi Hospital.

January 2001 – April 2001

Kapiolani Community College, Honolulu HI
Certificate of Completion on Medically Fragile Child Nursing.

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS/ BOARDS

Wound Ostomy Continence Nurses Hawaii Affiliate (WOCN) Hawaii active member since 2004, Secretary 2007-2010

Hawaii Association of Wound Ostomy and Continence Care (HAWOCC)
President 2015-2017(formerly the WOCN Hawaii Affiliate)

Hawaii State Center for Nursing Advisory Board- January 2012- June 2014, reappointed April 2015- June 30, 2018

POSTER PRESENTATIONS/ PUBLISHED ARTICLES

Atypical Presentation of Peristomal Pyoderma Gangrenosum, Grand Prize Winner of the 2015 Poster Presentation Session at the Wild on Wounds (WOW) Conference Las Vegas, Nevada (Poster)

Case Study: Peristomal Pyoderma Gangrenosum.

<https://woundcareadvisor.com/case-study-peristomal-pyoderma-gangrenosum/>

www.woundcareadvisor.com. January/February 2016,

Vol 5,

No. 1, 22-24.

Protecting Skin While Saving Backs, Butts and Buck$, NPUAP 2017 Biennial Conference Pressure Injury: Advancing the Vision, New Orleans, Louisiana (Poster)

VOLUNTEER ORGANIZATIONS

Kidney Foundation of Hawaii
Kokua Mau- Speakers Bureau
State of Hawaii Medical Reserve Corp

REFERENCES UPON REQUEST