

Rosanna Daniel-Kanetake

---

Professional Experience

---

Victim/Witness Counselor II – Honolulu Prosecutors Safe House – Under Prosecuting Attorney's office, Keith Kaneshiro
Honolulu, Hawaii (October 2017 – Current)

- Counseling victims of domestic violence, sex assault and sex trafficking
- Assist in setting women up in residential living in safe house till court case was settled, and for up to two years.
- Assist Residents in identifying and accessing education and career goals
- Develop programs that would foster independent living and life skills
- Created recreational programs
- Initiated donor services that community members were able to assist with funding and resources for women in program.
- Field instructor for Social Work Student Interns doing Practicum with this agency for Hawaii Pacific University.

Independent Living Service Coordinator – Access to Independence
Honolulu, Hawaii (April 2015 – August 2017)

- Assist consumers with disabilities to become and/or remain independent in the community
- Assist consumers with identifying personal goals, and guiding them on how to achieve goals
- Acquire assistive technology devices for consumers and train in the use of these specialized devices
- Advocate for consumers and instruct them on how to advocate for themselves
- Ensure and advise other agencies on accessibility and ADA law compliance

- Network and build agency's contacts and partnerships in the community
- Field instructor for Social Work Student Interns doing practicum with this agency for Hawaii Pacific University
- Conduct in service to train other staff in methods of social services
- Develop curriculum for consumers for independent living

Safety Consultant/Trainer – Island Training and Consulting
Kaneohe, Hawaii (September 1999 – Present)

- Business Founder and Owner
- Instructor of personal self-defense in violent situations
- Instructor of deescalating verbal confrontations
- Instructor of how to document incidents of violent encounters within the agency and for legal proceedings and testimony
- Consult and advise of environmental safety in a work setting
- Strengthen employee confidence in handling violent outbursts from clients and consumers

Program Director – Holo Loa'a Inc.
Honolulu, Hawaii (August 1997 - April 2003)

- Developed skillful goals, objectives, standards of performance, policies and procedures
- Established and maintained systems that safely met residents' needs.
- Developed, implemented and successfully achieved programs that assisted clients in obtaining employment, receiving substance abuse treatment, mental health care, learning parenting skills to become productive members of a community
- Grant and Proposal writing
- Established at each homeless shelter a field site for Social Work Interns from Hawaii Pacific University and from Volda College in Norway
- Student Field Instructor

Case Manager – Institute for Human Services Inc.
Honolulu, Hawaii (October 1995- August 1997)

- Case manager for homeless consumers
- Ensured consumers received medical, mental health and substance abuse treatment if needed
- Conducted intakes, assessments and evaluations of all consumers for financial, housing, and psycho-social needs
- Individual and group counseling for substance abuse, domestic violence, parenting and job search possibilities
- Developed job training programs (The Ke Ala Kapono Program) to train job skills for clients
- Developed outside business partnerships for job mentoring program

Education

---

American School of Professional Psychology

Honolulu, Hawaii

M.A. - Psychology

Lewis Clark State College

Lewiston, Idaho

B.A. – Social Work

Skills

---

- Able to work under pressure and operate flexibly to meet deadlines
- Excellent oral and written communication skills
- Able to problem solve and work effectively with individuals
- Able to multi-task and work as a team member
- Demonstrated organizational and leadership skills

Affiliations

---

- State Disability and Communications Access Board Council Member, 2017 – current
- Zonta International, women's organization that promotes the excellence and
- Continued Achievements of Professional Women worldwide, 1999 - 2009
- Certified Instructor with Crisis Prevention and Intervention (CPI), trained over 200 individuals within various agencies all over the State of Hawaii (Catholic Charities, Helping Hands Hawaii, Honolulu Community Action Program, John Burns School of Medicine), 1996 - 2009