

Personal Resume

Aaron David Mahi

Employment:

Mālama 'Āina Foundation

Cultural Specialist 2011- present

Provide information and guidance to staff relative to Hawaiian cultural values and practices as necessary for the development of materials and activities relative to the objectives and goals of Mālama 'Āina Foundation.

Partners in Development Foundation

Assistant Cultural Specialist 2009 – present

To assist the head cultural specialist in assignments relative to the application of the folk practices and value system of the Hawaiian Culture in accordance to the mission of Partners and Development.

Abigail K. Kawananakoa Foundation

Division Director 2005 – 2009

Managed music collection, research, preservation, and oral history for a Hawaiian music repository.

City and County of Honolulu

City Department Head – Royal Hawaiian Band “Bandmaster”

Managed all aspects including: managing a $2.5 million budget, securing grants, coordinating and conducting an average of 300 performances and appearances worldwide, and managing a staff of 60.

Education:

Kamehameha Schools	High School Diploma
University of Hartford	BA in music education
University of Loma Linda	Orchestral Conducting

Community Boards, commissions, and other affiliations:

State of Hawaii: Land Use Commission – Commissioner, appointed 2014

Ko'olau Foundation – President

Ko'olau Poko Hawaiian Civic Club – 2nd Vice President

Community of Christ Makiki – Senior Pastor

Personal references are available upon request.