THE DEPARTMENT OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL
TWENTY-NINTH LEGISLATURE, 2018

ON THE FOLLOWING MEASURE:

S.B. NO. 270, S.D. 1, H.D. 1, RELATING TO MINORS.

BEFORE THE:

HOUSE COMMITTEE ON JUDICIARY

DATE: Wednesday, April 4, 2018

TIME: 2:00 p.m.

LOCATION: State Capitol, Room 325

TESTIFIER(S): Russell A. Suzuki, Attorney General, or Deirdre Marie-Iha, Deputy Attorney General

Chair Nishimoto and Members of the Committee:

The Department of the Attorney General offers comments on this bill. This bill would ban "sexual orientation change efforts" by counselors for patients under the age of eighteen. "Sexual orientation change efforts" is defined to include the practice of attempting to change a person's sexual orientation or gender identity or gender expression and is sometimes known as "conversion therapy." The bill applies only to licensed professionals, like psychiatrists, social workers, and marriage and family therapists. The bill was amended in the Senate and by the House Committee on Consumer Protection and Commerce. In our opinion, the current version of the bill is strongly positioned in the event of a constitutional challenge, should this measure become law.

The Department advises this Committee that similar laws have attracted constitutional challenges in other states. Thus far those challenges have been unsuccessful, including in decisions regarding California's law. See Welch v. Brown, 834 F.3d 1041 (9th Cir. 2016), cert. denied, 137 S. Ct. 2093 (2017); Pickup v. Brown, 740 F.3d 1208 (9th Cir. 2014), cert. denied, 134 S. Ct. 2871 (2014). Finally, the Department alerts the Committee that a case currently pending at the United States Supreme Court, National Institute of Family and Life Advocates v. Becerra, No. 16-1140 (NIFLA), may have important implications for this measure. NIFLA raises a question regarding the extent to which the government may constitutionally regulate professional speech, that is, speech that takes place in the context of a professional relationship and where the professional is subject to state regulation. NIFLA concerns compelled speech, which is not at issue here, and this difference may prove consequential. Regardless, since the bill applies only to certain licensed professionals, page 4, lines 3 to 11, it is very likely that the NIFLA ruling will inform any future discussion of the regulation of professional speech. Until that decision is issued, we will be unable to determine the true extent to which it will impact our analysis of this bill. NIFLA was argued on March 20, 2018, and a decision is expected by late June.

Thank you for the opportunity to testify on this measure.

Testimony in SUPPORT of SB270 SD1 HD1
RELATING TO MINORS

REPRESENTATIVE SCOTT Y. NISHIMOTO, CHAIR
HOUSE COMMITTEE ON JUDICIARY

Hearing Date: Wednesday, April 4, 2018

Room Number: 325

1 Fiscal Implications: None

2 Department Testimony: The Department of Health, Child and Adolescent Mental Health
3 Division (CAMHD) supports SB270 SD1 HD1 to protect the physical and psychological well-
4 being of minors against exposure to harm caused by “Conversion Therapy,” including efforts to 5 change an individuals’ sexual orientation or gender identity. According to the American 6 Psychological Association (APA), there is insufficient research evidence to demonstrate the 7 efficacy of these change efforts. There is also no evidence that providing these interventions to 8 children or adolescents has an impact on adult sexual orientation or adult gender identity.

9 A systematic review by the APA found that these Conversion therapies tend to do harm to the 10 participants. Not only do children and adolescents get misinformation, they also are at risk of 11 increased self-stigma and psychological distress. Children and adolescents who participate in 12 these types of therapies are given inaccurate scientific information regarding sexual orientation
13 and gender identity. These types of therapies also often use fear based techniques and have the 14 potential to increase stigma. Participants also often report an increase in distress and depression
15 especially when such “therapies” do not work. As such, these types of coercive therapies are 16 contrary to current clinical and professional standards. These types of therapies violate current 17 clinical practice by not protecting the client’s autonomy and by ignoring scientific information
18 on sexual orientation and gender identity.

1 In addition, the CAMHD supports the recommendation that this bill should define “conversion
2 therapy” as including “sexual orientation change efforts” and “gender identity change efforts.”
3 This would make it clear that these are two distinct kinds of conversion efforts that are prohibited
4 by this bill. The CAMHD supports the idea that this bill needs to present gender identity change
5 efforts correctly to equally highlight the importance of protecting youth from undue adult
6 pressure related to their gender identity as well as to their sexual orientations.

7 Although some opponents of this bill have tried to suggest that there is disagreement among 8 researchers about the evidence in this area, they have referenced publications by anti-gay
9 organizations only. All the major organizations of professionals involved in treating children
10 have issued statements opposing Sexual Orientation Change Efforts (SOCE), including the 11 American Psychological Association, the American Medical Association, the American 12 Academy of Pediatrics, the American Psychiatric Association, and the National Association of 13 Social Workers.

14 The bill does not hinder mental health providers, clergy or parents from counseling youth or 15 offering a range of other, more standard clinical psychological services to lesbian, gay, bisexual,
16 and transgender (LGBT) children and adolescents. The bill regulates the services being provided
17 to LGBT children and adolescents to provide them protections against being exposed to harm
18 through SOCE that might be chosen for them by adults. The bill is in line with APA practice
19 standards and the Department of Health standard of providing evidence based services.

20 Offered Amendments: We recommend the following changes in language. This bill should 21 define “conversion therapy” as including “sexual orientation change efforts” and “gender 22 identity change efforts.”

23 Thank you for the opportunity to testify.

SENATE BILL NO. SB 270, S.D. 1, H.D. 1
Relating to the Minors

Aloha Chair Nishimoto and Vice Chair San Buenaventura,

I support the intent of Senate Bill 270, House Draft 1, and respectfully offer these comments.

Hawai'i can join a growing coalition of states and municipalities – including California, Nevada, Oregon, New Mexico, Rhode Island, and Vermont – and ban licensed mental health professionals from subjecting individuals to “conversion therapy” with this bill’s passage.

I note that on March 3, 2018, the Washington State Legislature passed Senate Bill 5722, a bill that also bans licensed therapists from practicing conversion therapy on minors. I would encourage the committee to review the Washington legislation and consider following its approach and use the term “conversion therapy” in lieu of the term “sexual orientation change efforts” so that the law properly encompasses gender identity and gender expression in addition to sexual orientation. Therapy seeking to change sexual orientation is not inclusive of an effort to change gender identity or expression in medical or psychological circles. The Washington legislation recognized this. We should do the same.

Thank you for the opportunity to provide testimony in support of Senate Bill 270, H.D. 1. I ask the Committee to favorably consider this measure to protect our keiki.

Re: SUPPORT for SB 270, Testimony from the Human Rights Campaign in support of the bill to protect minors in Hawaii from the abusive practice of conversion therapy

Dear Chairperson Nishimoto and Members of the Committee:

The Human Rights Campaign (HRC), on behalf of its members and supporters in Hawaii, thanks you for the opportunity to submit testimony on Senate Bill (SB) 270, a vital measure that will protect young people in Hawaii from dangerous and discredited practices that falsely claim to change one's sexual orientation or gender identity or expression. We urge you to swiftly pass this important legislation.

The Human Rights Campaign is America's largest civil rights organization working to achieve lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and queer (LGBTQ) equality. By inspiring and engaging all Americans, HRC strives to end discrimination against LGBTQ citizens and realize a nation that achieves fundamental fairness and equality for all. As an advocate for LGBTQ young people, HRC believes that no young person should be coerced or subjected to dangerous practices that lack legitimate medical purpose, such as conversion therapy.

Conversion therapy, sometimes called "sexual orientation change efforts" or "reparative therapy," refers to practices that seek to change an individual's sexual orientation or gender identity or expression. These practices are based on the false idea that being LGBTQ is a mental illness that needs to be cured, an idea which has been rejected by every major mental health group. Conversion therapy does not include therapies that provide acceptance, support, or understanding of LGBTQ identities; that facilitate coping, social support, or identity exploration; or that address unlawful conduct or unsafe sexual practices. This legislation enacts professional standards for state-licensed mental health providers to clarify that conversion therapy is not an acceptable or responsible professional practice when applied to young people under the age of eighteen.

There is no credible evidence that conversion therapy can change a person's sexual orientation or gender identity or expression, and it is abundantly clear that conversion therapy poses devastating health risks for LGBTQ youth. These practices can lead to depression, decreased self-esteem, substance abuse, homelessness, and even suicidal behavior, and for this reason the nation's leading mental health organizations have roundly decried them.<sup>1</sup> Unfortunately, due to discrimination against LGBTQ people and the fact that professional rules have not kept up with this widespread understanding, some licensed mental health professionals continue to engage in conversion therapy. A recent Williams Institute at UCLA School of Law report revealed that an estimated 20,000 LGBT minors in states without protections will be subjected to conversion therapy by a licensed healthcare professional if state officials fail to act.<sup>2</sup> These protections simply cannot wait.

Research shows that young people experience conversion therapy as a form of family rejection, and LGBTQ youth who experience family rejection face increased health risks. In one study, such youth were 8.4 times more likely to report having attempted suicide, 5.9 times more likely to report high levels of depression, and 3.4 times more likely to use illegal drugs compared with peers who had not experienced such rejection.<sup>3</sup> On the other hand, family acceptance has been shown to be an important protective factor that can help to prevent suicide behavior and mental health issues. Providers who engage in conversion therapy under state license can mislead families about the risks involved, leading to negative psychological outcomes and irreparable damage to family cohesiveness. This legislation is needed to protect families from these damaging practices.

Thank you for the opportunity to submit testimony in favor of this critical bill to protect LGBTQ youth.

Sincerely,

Sarah Warbelow
Legal Director
Human Rights Campaign

TESTIMONY IN SUPPORT OF SB 270 SD 1 HD 1 RELATING TO MINORS

Hawaii Youth Services Network (HYSN), a statewide coalition of youth-serving organizations, supports SB 270 SD 1 HD 1 Relating to Minors.

There is no scientific evidence to show that sexual orientation conversion therapy is effective, and much evidence to demonstrate that it can have harmful effects. Sexual conversion therapy can result in depression, social withdrawal, and even suicide. No major mental health professional association sanctions efforts to change sexual orientation and virtually all of them have adopted policy statements cautioning the profession and the public about treatments that purport to change sexual orientation.

Youth who identify as gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgender or questions (LGBTQ) should have access to counseling that provides acceptance, support and understanding. They should not be subjected to ineffective practices that are rooted in intolerance of diversity.

Thank you for this opportunity to testify.

RE: SB270, SD1, HD1, Relating to Minors

I strongly support passage of SB270. I have met Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transsexual adults, who as children, were subjected to a variety of physical and mental abuses "to make them straight." One man told me that he went through though two years of conversion therapy. It didn't work and did more harm than good when he was a teenager. Another individual stated that as a teen he was forced into ice baths as part of his "therapy."

This is criminal and children should not be subjected to such violence. Please pass SB270.

Thank you for the opportunity to provide my comments in strong support.

Respectfully I ask this bill be rejected primarily for the law of unintended consequences. By criminalizing parents (or even minors themselves) from being to seek this treatment, regardless of the effectiveness (or lack of) of it, via licensed professionals you are simply forcing them to resort to unlicensed unqualified individuals for this same treatment. Nothing criminalizes, nor should it, a parent from attempting to change their child's gender identity nor, for that matter, a minor themselves. Would you rather treatment be given by licensed regulated professionals or unlicensed unregulated quacks because it will happen regardless and the law be proposed here will simply cause more harm than good. Whether the treatment is sound or not is irrelevant to more important goal, minimizing harm to the minor; something it seems most other people submitting testimony on this measure appear to ignore.

As an aside it would be beneficial if, in the future, any bill which referenced some sort of report, finding, etc. contained a link to that report, finding, etc or included on capitol.hawaii.gov as it's difficult to evaluate a bill, as the public, without knowing the very facts the bill is referencing. For example this bill states "The legislature finds that the American Psychological Association convened a task force on appropriate therapeutic responses to sexual orientation. The task force conducted a systematic review of peer-reviewed journal literature on sexual orientation change efforts. The task force concluded that sexual orientation change efforts are unlikely to be successful and involve risk of harm to lesbian, gay, and bisexual individuals, including depression, suicidality, loss of sexual feeling, anxiety, shame, negative self-image, and other negative feelings and behaviors." yet where is that APA task force finding?

Re: Testimony in strong support of S.B. 270, SD1, HD1, relating to Minors

Dear Chair Nishimoto and Members of the Committee,

Planned Parenthood Votes Northwest and Hawaii (“PPVNH”) writes in strong support of S.B. 270, SD1, HD1, which seeks to prohibit persons licensed to provide professional counseling from engaging in, attempting to engage in, or advertising sexual orientation change efforts (commonly known as “conversion therapy”) on persons under 18 years of age.

LGBTQ rights and reproductive rights are deeply connected to justice for all. We have long stood with lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender people in the struggle for full equality — many of whom turn to Planned Parenthood for health care, information, and education. We are committed to building a world where no one experiences discrimination or violence because of their gender identity, gender expression, or sexual orientation.

We support S.B. 270 because it seeks to protect LGBT youth from “conversion therapy,” which has been found to be dangerous, inhumane and long discredited by respected medical and mental health institutions, including the American Psychological Association. It has subsequently been outlawed for licensed mental health providers in nine states and the District of Columbia. We can do better for Hawaii’s youth.

Thank you for this opportunity to testify in support of this important measure.

Sincerely,

Laurie Field

Re: SB 270:

Sexual Orientation Change Efforts; Conversion Therapy; Prohibition; Minors; Licensed Professionals

Please note that I stand in very strong opposition to this bill. It is a bill that over past years keeps coming back to haunt us.

I keep asking the question that no one wants to answer ... how does anyone justify the proposed “one size fits all diagnoses?” Our children are not cattle!

Where in our constitution does it allow our government to interfere with the parent’s rights and the ability to find qualified professional help of their choice for their child? It appears this could also prohibit even a pastor from getting involved.

What type of government then threatens the professional licensed provider the parent chooses? Allowing only a licensed counselor who will affirm the minor child’s homosexuality or transgenderism”

It that not considered somewhat biased?

You have each, I hoped, study this bill closely and should be aware that as many as 98% of gender confused boys and 88% of gender confused girls eventually accept their biological sex after naturally passing through puberty.

In spite of knowing this, if you decide to vote in support of this bill becoming law, let me ask you a question ... what if it turns out that you are wrong? Are you willing to take the responsibility for the harm done? for the lives of these children that will be ruined, there is no turning back?

In closing I ask that you look within yourselves for the truth and vote no on this bill.

With deep concern,

I am in strong support of SB270 SD1 HD1 as a good start in tackling the problem of the reprehensible practice of "conversion therapy." However, I don't believe that SB270 goes far enough.

Young adults ages 18-21 are some of the most vulnerable persons to fall victim to this abhorrent practice. We prohibit the sale of cigarettes, alcohol and guns to persons under 21 because they're some of the most at-risk persons to fall victim to the harmful effects of these products. I believe SB270 should be amended to include persons under the age of 21.

SB270 SD1 HD1 only restricts LICENSED counselors from advertising or engaging in this practice. I believe the bill should be amended to prohibit ALL persons, including public or parochial school teachers and counselors, religion-based practitioners, and everyone else.

Think of it this way: what if someone was offering STRAIGHT to GAY conversion therapy. Would you find that to be reprehensible? If you do, then the opposite should apply as well.

I strongly support SB270 SD1 HD1. This bill would prevent destructive and ineffective conversion therapy techniques from being used on minors for the purpose of "curing" them of being gay. Homosexuality is not a disease that needs to be cured. It is a natural, alternative sexual orientation with which a person is born. Conversion therapy causes confusion and low self esteem and has even led to the suicides of minors subjected to it. Tolerance and appreciation of differences are effective and appropriate ways to deal with gay kids.

I am submitting testimony in strong support of SB270.

So-called “conversion therapy,” sometimes known as “reparative therapy,” is a range of dangerous and discredited practices that falsely claim to change a person’s sexual orientation or gender identity or expression. Such practices have been rejected by every mainstream medical and mental health organization for decades, but due to continuing discrimination and societal bias against LGBTQ people, some practitioners continue to conduct conversion therapy. Minors are especially vulnerable, and conversion therapy can lead to depression, anxiety, drug use, homelessness, and suicide.

California, Connecticut, Illinois, Nevada, New Jersey, New Mexico, New York, Oregon, Rhode Island, Vermont, and the District of Columbia have enacted laws or regulations to protect minors from being subjected to conversion therapy by state-licensed mental health providers. Additionally, a growing number of municipalities have enacted similar protections, including cities and counties in Ohio, Pennsylvania, Washington, Florida, New York and Arizona.

In August of 2013, the 9th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals upheld California’s law, which was signed by Democratic Governor Jerry Brown in 2012. In May of 2015 and again in February of 2016, the United States Supreme Court let stand decisions of the 3rd U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals upholding New Jersey’s law, which was signed by Republican Governor Chris Christie in August of 2013. In February of 2015, a NJ Superior Court judge ruled that misrepresenting homosexuality as a disorder violates the state’s consumer protection laws. Additionally, in June of 2015, the jury in that case found a conversion therapy provider liable for consumer fraud and ordered the provider to pay the plaintiffs for refunds and damages.

In February 2016, the Human Rights Campaign, National Center for Lesbian Rights, and Southern Poverty Law Center filed a consumer fraud complaint with the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) against People Can Change, a major provider of conversion therapy. The complaint alleges that People Can Change’s advertisements and business practices which claim they can change a person’s sexual orientation or gender identity constitute deceptive, false, and misleading practices and can cause serious harm to consumers, all in direct violation of Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act. The complaint urges the FTC to take enforcement action to stop these deceptive practices and investigate all practitioners making similar claims.

Some right-wing religious groups promote the concept that an individual can change their sexual orientation or gender identity, either through prayer or other religious efforts, or through so-called "reparative" or "conversion" therapy. The research on such efforts has disproven their efficacy, and also has indicated that they can be affirmatively harmful. Beyond studies focused solely on reparative therapy, broader research clearly demonstrates the significant harm that societal prejudice and family rejection has on lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and queer (LGBTQ) people, particularly youth. Furthermore, there is significant anecdotal evidence of harm to LGBTQ people resulting from attempts to change their sexual orientation and gender identity. Based on this body of evidence, every major medical and mental health organization in the United States has issued a statement condemning the use of conversion therapy.

Psychiatrist Dr. L. Spitzer, who once offered a study on reparative therapy, has since denounced the practice and has apologized for endorsing the practice. Read more here.

Research on the Impacts of Reparative Therapy, Harms Caused by Societal Prejudice

In 2007, a task force of the American Psychological Association undertook a thorough review of the existing research on the efficacy of conversion therapy. Their report noted that there was very little methodologically sound research on sexual orientation change efforts (SOCEs) and that the "results of scientifically valid research indicate that it is unlikely that individuals will be able to reduce same-sex attractions or increase other-sex sexual attractions through SOCE." In addition, the task force found that "there are no methodologically sound studies of recent SOCE that would enable the task force to make a definitive statement about whether or not recent SOCE is safe or harmful and for whom."

In short, there is clear evidence that conversion therapy does not work, and some significant evidence that it is also harmful to LGBTQ people.

In contrast, there is ample evidence that societal prejudice causes significant medical, psychological and other harms to LGBTQ people. For example, research on the issue of family acceptance of LGBTQ youth conducted at San Francisco State University found that "compared with LGBTQ young people who were not rejected or were only a little rejected by their parents and caregivers because of their gay or transgender identity, highly rejected LGBTQ young people were:

I strongly support banning conversion therapy. It is proven not to work and have dangerous consequences.

It frightens me that conversion therapy even exists. I believe that it is moral wrong to negatively judge those who are homosexual, bi sexual, transgender or etc.

These individuals (especially the youth) are not hurting anyone by being who they truly are on the inside. In fact, those who are part of this minority need even more courage to face the unwarranted discrimination of closed minded people.

We need laws to protect this small minority of our community. Their rights and quality of life are threatened by conversion therapy.

Mahalo,

As a pediatrician of 40 years' clinical experience, as well as having specific interest in and service to LGBT youth in Oregon and Washington, I simply want to add my name to those professionals who support the banning of so-called "conversion therapy" in Hawaii.

"Conversion therapy" is demonstrably futile, is based upon a misunderstanding of the biology of sexual orientation, is the expression of animus towards anything not heterosexual and is, in the final analysis, a form of child abuse (both psychological and spiritual). Legal protection from "conversion therapy" is necessary because religious con-artists continue to prey upon worried parents and vulnerable youth.

Thank you,

Douglas Hamill, MD (Portland, OR)

Conversion therapy is hugely unethical. Not only has the American Psychological Association determined that “results of scientifically valid research indicate that it is unlikely that individuals will be able to reduce same-sex attractions or increase other-sex sexual attractions through [conversion therapy]” but it has also shown that children experiencing the parental rejection associated with such therapy are more than eight times as likely to commit suicide, nearly six times more likely to report high levels of depression, more than three times as likely to use drugs and more than three times as likely to be at high risk for HIV and other STDs. We MUST outlaw it in Hawai’i.

RE: STRONG SUPPORT for Senate Bill 270 – RELATING TO MINORS

Aloha Chair Nishimoto, Vice Chair San Buenaventura and fellow committee members,

I am writing in STRONG SUPPORT for Senate Bill 270 on behalf of the LGBT Caucus of the Democratic Party of Hawai'i. SB 270 prohibits specific state-licensed persons who are licensed to provide professional counseling from engaging in, attempting to engage in, or advertising sexual orientation change efforts on persons under eighteen years of age.

This so-called conversion therapy or as it is also known as in the counseling field "sexual orientation change effort", is the false idea that one can change their sexual orientation through therapy/counseling. The facts are quite clear that your sexual orientation, gender identity and/or gender expression is part of your genetic make-up and no amount of coercive therapy/counseling can change them.

Here are the side effects from conversion therapy:

Depression, guilt, helplessness, hopelessness, shame, social withdrawal, suicidality, substance abuse, stress, disappointment, self-blame, decreased self-esteem and authenticity to others, hostility and blame toward parents, increased self-hatred, feelings of anger and betrayal, loss of friends and potential romantic partners, problems in sexual and emotional intimacy, sexual dysfunction, high-risk sexual behaviors, a feeling of being dehumanized and untrue to self, a loss of faith, and a sense of having wasted time and resources.

President Barack Obama and the Democratic Party of Hawai'i via our 2016 DPH Platform pg. 7-8 lines 389-392 <https://hawaiidemocrats.org/wp-content/uploads/2015/06/2016-democratic-party-of-hawaii-platform.pdf>) and Resolution HHS 2016-06 Supporting a Ban of Conversion Therapy (see below) along with the American Psychological Association, American Counseling Association, American Academy of Pediatrics, American School Counselor Association, and the National Association of Social Workers have all come out against conversion therapy. California, Connecticut, Illinois, New Jersey, New Mexico, Nevada, Oregon, Rhode Island, Vermont, Washington State and the District of Columbia as well as dozens of municipalities all over this country have all passed laws banning this barbaric practice.

A New Jersey jury, under their state's law, went so far as finding the Jewish conversion therapy organization, JONAH, guilty of consumer fraud for promising to be able to change its client's sexual urges and determined its commercial practices to be unconscionable. The Supreme Court agreed with the jury's determination and upheld New Jersey's law.

LGBT Caucus Testimony is Strong support of
Senate Bill 270 – Relating to Minors

The LGBT Caucus would also like to clear up some misconceptions that have come to light from the opposition to banning conversion therapy proposed by Senate Bill 270.

The inference that this bill interferes with parents' rights to raise their kids:

The State of Hawai'i has a lot of laws on the books that "interfere" with the way parents raise their kids from mandating seatbelts for all and booster seats for minors under 70 lbs; requiring lifesaving vaccinations; getting an education; requiring members of Christian Scientists to get their children lifesaving medical treatment; and outlawing child abuse. Every leading professional medical and mental health associations have rejected conversion therapy as unnecessary, ineffective, and dangerous. So to inflict conversion therapy on minors is child abuse.

That somehow this bill stop therapist from helping minors that are struggling with their sexual orientation; gender identity; and/or gender expression:

This bill does not bar anyone from seeking therapy with regards to their sexual orientation; gender identity; and/or gender expression, plain and simple. It does bar therapists from putting their patients in danger by exposing them the disavowed conversion therapy.

Conversion therapy is nothing but coercion, forcing the will of the parents for the minor to reject who they are and how they were born. That is not the role of a therapist, especially when dealing with minors. The false idea behind conversion therapy is that there can be a guaranteed set predetermined outcome from the therapy sessions – changing a person's sexual orientation, gender identity and/or gender expression.

That this bill is unconstitutional on religious grounds and will have "unintended consequences":

The legal language found in this bill mirrors to what appears in the laws of California, Illinois, New Jersey, Oregon and District of Columbia. Which has been challenged in court, all the way up to the Supreme Court in fact and the Supreme Court has rejected all challenges. It should be noted that NONE of those laws have religious exemptions and they have passed constitutional muster. This is because priests, pastors and other persons of the cloth, as long as they are doing their ministerial duties, have constitutional protection.

It is when those few priests, pastors and other persons of the cloth, that are licensed therapists, decide to hang a shingle and offer therapy that they would fall under the jurisdiction of this law. Much like those pastors that advocate for the death of President Obama from the pulpit, not one has been arrested. Even though it is against federal law to threaten the life of the President of the United States, they have constitutional protection.

As we pointed out earlier, New Jersey was able to sue JONAH a therapy group with religious ties because it was outside of their ministerial duties. The group with religious ties hung up a therapy shingle and said they could convert gays to straight, which they could not do. JONAH lost all the way to the Supreme Court.

<http://www.metroweekly.com/2015/05/supreme-court-allows-n-j-gay-conversion-therapy-ban-to-stand/>

As for "unintended consequences", this seems to be to go to phrase by the opposition to anything that would bring justice and equality to the LGBT community. They used that phrase constantly during the battle for marriage equality and to this day there has not been one “unintended consequence” by bringing marriage equality to the Aloha State.

LGBT Caucus Testimony is Strong support of
Senate Bill 270 – Relating to Minors

That somehow this bill will bring out unlicensed therapists:

We already have laws on the books to handle unlicensed therapists. If the opposition is really concerned about unlicensed therapists then they should advocate for a stronger punishment be placed on the books.

There is a direct correlation between being a member of the LGBT community and drug abuse:

This is false, there is no study that shows a correlation between being a member of the LGBT community and drug abuse. There is however a direct link between a member of the LGBT community going through conversion therapy and drug abuse, suicide and the complete list of other adverse side effects that we listed in our main testimony.

The LGBT Caucus of the DPH asks that you support this very important bill as it will save lives as well as send a message loud and clear that child abuse encased in junk science has no place in the Aloha State.

Michael Golojuch, Jr.
Chair

What Are Some Examples of Conversion Therapy?

In the past, some mental health professionals resorted to extreme measures such as institutionalization, castration, and electroconvulsive shock therapy to try to stop people from being lesbian, gay, bisexual, or transgender (LGBT). Today, while some counselors still use physical treatments like aversive conditioning, the techniques most commonly used include a variety of behavioral, cognitive, psychoanalytic, and other practices that try to change or reduce same-sex attraction or alter a person's gender identity. While these contemporary versions of conversion therapy are less shocking and extreme than some of those more frequently used in the past, they are equally devoid of scientific validity and pose serious dangers to patients—especially to minors, who are often forced to undergo them by their parents or legal guardians, and who are at especially high risk of being harmed.

According to a 2009 report of the American Psychological Association, the techniques therapists have used to try to change sexual orientation and gender identity include inducing nausea, vomiting, or paralysis while showing the patient homoerotic images; providing electric shocks; having the individual snap an elastic band around the wrist when aroused by same-sex erotic images or thoughts; using shame to create aversion to same-sex attractions; orgasmic reconditioning; and satiation therapy. Other techniques include trying to make patients' behavior more stereotypically feminine or masculine, teaching heterosexual dating skills, using hypnosis to try to redirect desires and arousal, and other techniques—all based on the scientifically discredited premise that being LGBT is a defect or disorder.

The current practice guidelines for the National Association for Research & Therapy of Homosexuality (NARTH), which is a group of therapists who endorse and practice conversion therapy in the United States, encourage its members to consider techniques that include hypnosis, behavior and cognitive therapies, sex therapies, and psychotropic medication, among others.

HHS 2016-06 Supporting a Ban of Conversion Therapy

Whereas, The Democratic Party of Hawai'i supports banning conversion therapy for minors and adults as stated in the Health Care plank of our Party's Platform passed by unanimous vote at the Democratic Party of Hawai'i 2014 State Convention and conversion therapy is currently being practiced in Hawai'i,; and

Whereas, the American Counseling Association's Standard A.1.a. ("Primary Responsibility"), states that "the primary responsibility of counselors is to respect the dignity and to promote the welfare of clients." Referring a client to a counselor who engages in a treatment modality not endorsed by the profession and that may, in fact, cause harm does not promote the welfare of clients as supported by Standard A.4.a ("Avoiding Harm"); and

Whereas, President Barack Obama, along with every recognized medical professional organization from the World Psychiatric Association American Psychological Association, American Counseling Association, American Academy of Pediatrics, American School Counselor Association, to the National Association of Social Workers have all come out against conversion therapy as a form of torture; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Democratic Party of Hawai'i support the banning of conversion therapy based on the overwhelming scientific evidence there is no way to change a person's sexual orientation, gender identity or gender expression, regardless of the type of adverse therapy a person is put through including but not limited to: inducing nausea, vomiting, or paralysis while showing the patient homoerotic images; providing electric shocks; having the individual snap an elastic band around the wrist when aroused by same-sex erotic images or thoughts; using shame to create aversion to same-sex attractions; orgasmic reconditioning; hypnosis; behavior and cognitive therapies; sex therapies; psychotropic medication; and satiation therapy; and be it further

Resolved, That the Democratic Party of Hawai'i support the banning of conversion therapy also based on the fact that this barbaric practice is detrimental to society as a whole since as it is totally futile and the side effects on the survivors are depression, guilt, helplessness, hopelessness, shame, social withdrawal, suicidality, substance abuse, stress, disappointment, self-blame, decreased self-esteem and authenticity to others, hostility and blame toward parents, increased self-hatred, feelings of anger and betrayal, loss of friends and potential romantic partners, problems in sexual and emotional intimacy, sexual dysfunction, high-risk sexual behaviors, a feeling of being dehumanized and untrue to self, a loss of faith, and a sense of having wasted time and resources; and be it further

Resolved, That the Democratic Party of Hawai'i calls upon all members of the Hawai'i State Legislature who are members of the Democratic Party of Hawai'i to support the introduction and passage of a bill in the 2017 Legislative Session that will ban conversion therapy outright; and be it further

Resolved, That the Democratic Party of Hawai'i call upon the Governor of the State of Hawai'i to support the legislation and once it is passed by the legislature to sign the bill that will ban conversion therapy outright into law; and be it further

Resolved, That the Democratic Party of Hawai'i call upon all members of Hawaii's Congressional Delegation to introduce and support the passage of bill that would ban conversion therapy at the national level; and be it

Ordered, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to all members of Hawaii's Congressional Delegation, the Governor of the State of Hawai'i, the Lieutenant Governor of the State of Hawai'i, and all members of the Hawai'i State Legislature who are members of the Democratic Party of Hawai'i

Letter: Greetings,

Ban Conversion Therapy for Minors.

Conversion therapy is the barbaric "therapy" treatment aimed at converting lesbians and gays to heterosexuality as well as transgender individuals to the gender they were miss-assigned at birth. Such treatments are and have been criticized as a form of pseudoscience and torture.

By banning conversion therapy for minors will help ensure that LGBT youth know that their sexual orientation and/or gender identity are fine just the way they are and there is nothing to "fix".

Here are the side effects from conversion therapy:

Depression, guilt, helplessness, hopelessness, shame, social withdrawal, suicidality, substance abuse, stress, disappointment, self-blame, decreased self-esteem and authenticity to others, hostility and blame toward parents, increased self-hatred, feelings of anger and betrayal, loss of friends and potential romantic partners, problems in sexual and emotional intimacy, sexual dysfunction, high-risk sexual behaviors, a feeling of being dehumanized and untrue to self, a loss of faith, and a sense of having wasted time and resources.

We need Hawai'i to join the other states that have banned conversion therapy. Those laws are court tested and U.S. Supreme Court approved!

The American Psychological Association, American Counseling Association, American Academy of Pediatrics, American School Counselor Association, and the National Association of Social Workers have all come out against conversion therapy.

My name is Nandita Sharma and I am a Professor of Sociology at UH Manoa. I am testifying in strong support of SB270 to ban conversion therapy. Conversion therapy is a psuedo-scientific and dangerous practice based on the faulty assumption that there is a "normal," heterosexual way of having sexual pleasure or engaging in sexual practice. Numerous studies have demonstrated that this is false. The idea that one form of sexual pleasure or practice is normal and superior to all others is based on faulty science and on the desire of some to impose their ideas and beliefs on others. This is not something that ought to be allowed.

Dear Chair Nishimoto,

Vice Chair Buenaventura, and

Committee Members,

I am opposed to the passage of SB270. For the following reasons:

1. This bill simultaneously credits minors with the ability to make a right decision to be homosexual, transgender, etc. AND not having the ability to make a decision to get help to turn from those desires/feelings or to recognize them as unwanted.
2. In effect, this bill selects and prioritizes “alternative lifestyles” as a positive good and labels minors who may want to turn from those “lifestyles” as wrong—discounting their underlying desires as invalid.
3. In other words, the bill itself is both biased and bigoted against a subset of minors. It absurdly treats all minors as uniform cogs whose feelings of the moment, whether wanted or unwanted should invariably be only directed towards homosexuality, transgenderism, etc.
4. The bill strips away parental rights. Without any documented abuse, neglect, or harm the State would hereby deny a parent the right to seek what they deem the best mental health care for their child—where is the due process?
5. This bill opens the door for the legislature to dismantle the doctor-patient relationship. How else would the State know what counselors discuss with their patients? Or, should someone desire to dismantle a counselors business what is to prevent a “Masterpiece Cakeshop”-style episode?
6. There is a severe lack of evidence supporting this position. Nearly all the support for this is anecdotal, hearsay, or surmise. If specific doctors are engaging in diabolical practices they ought to be brought before the courts and given due process as their rights demand.
7. This bill sets an atypically dangerous precedent. Dictating, by fiat, the language and treatments a mental health professional may use changes the interactions from solution seeking to patient propagandizing.

8. It takes courage for a person to decide to go to counseling AT ALL. Imagine they are now told they may be putting their counselor's practice at risk by discussing these mental health issues.
9. In the end this bill violates the First Amendment of the Constitution in at least two ways, and, in certain instances, three:
  1. It violates free association.
  2. It violates free speech.
  3. Should the patient see attempting to turn away from said "alternative lifestyles" as a part of their religion, it violates free exercise.

I urge you to vote "NO" on SB270 for all the reasons listed above, as well as many others. If you believe everyone deserves to have their life choices validated, how can you pass this bill?

Comments:

Conversion therapy is a step away from the old practice of confining people to mental institutions on account of their sexual orientation. Both practices are premised on the belief that a homosexual sexual orientation is abnormal and should be corrected. This discredited and wrongheaded view should not be imposed on impressionable youths by adults in positions of authority such as therapists. This shaming can cause young people to lose self esteem and become depressed to the point of suicide. I support SB270 and I hope you will pass this bill. Protect our LGBT children.

The Honorable Scott Nishimoto, Chair with Joy San Buenaventura Vice-Chair and Members on the House Judiciary Committee

RE: SB 270 – STRONG SUPPORT OF BAN ON CONVERSION THERAPY

Rainbow Family 808, 1,000 voices strong, are strongly supporting SB 270 for a Ban on Conversion Therapy and have for some years. Our Rainbow Family 808 stands up for support of the many families in Hawaii and their rights to live lives free of assaults, persecution, fear and intimidation.

These years of listening to the horror of the non-medical, non-scientific pseudo ‘Therapy’ began for me in 1996. First, there were the Former Mormon men suffering from the long term effects of Ice Baths required by their families and churches when they were minors. It was the most horrific, painful experiences to listen to. All I could do was listen and validate their pain. I never understood how families would allow their children to under go such painful, persecution and intimidation. These Ice Baths were not successful.

Then came the son of a local roman catholic deacon whose therapist required the minor to masturbate for a solid hour in a room by himself. All the time, this church called masturbation a sin. The mixed messages this action left the minors feeling depressed, confused and intimidated. Minors in the roman catholic church cements this sin with the validation of parents. Minors are stuck between a rock and a hard spot to do what the ‘therapist’ required all the time under the pain of sin identified by a church and their families that paid for and made sure the minor complied by taking them to the ‘therapist appointment. How duplicitous is this!! What this produced was pain for decades, nightmares of the horrific ‘therapy’ required by some families and churches. These examples are straight out of a Horror story!

Now my new friends, Max and Karl of my hometown, El Cajon, CA gave me permission to tell Max’s Three month Church promoted Sanitarium Conversion Therapy. His parents were persuaded to commit Max by their church. All this because this sexually inexperienced 16 year-old shared with his ‘church family’ that he was ‘attracted’ to other young boys his age. Max hadn’t acted on his ‘attraction.’

Max’s three month experience:

1. Daily strapped to a gurney
2. Daily ‘therapy on a grid’ with caustic chemical injections of “Indoklon” (amphor-induced and pentylenetetrazol-induce brain seizures were first used to relieve psychiatric illness in 1934. Note 1). Due to the fact that the APA diagnosed homosexuality as a psychological illness until the APA changed this diagnosis in their Hawaii landmark decision in 1973. Homosexual identity is no longer in the DSM: Depathologizing Homosexuality. Note 2
3. Daily electroconvulsive treatments.

During this three month Conversion Therapy, Max’s screams disrupted other medical staff in the Sanitarium that Max was injected with a paralyzing agent to his vocal cords to ensure he would remain unheard during and after the procedure. To this very day, now at age 63, Max still has night terrors about being fully conscious but unable to scream while his brain felt like it was disintegrating into ash.

Max’s present condition after the three month Conversion Therapy: ongoing physical and medical problems

92-954 Makakilo Dr. #71, Kapolei, HI 96707 Email: RainbowFamily808@gmail.com Ph: (808) 779-9078 Fax: (808) 672-6347

1. Depression;
2. Rare intractable ulcer syndrome (near fatal ulcer bleed);
3. Two major surgeries including the removal of 2/3 of his stomach leaving him with malnutrition & malabsorption medical conditions;
4. Damage to his pancreas
5. Clinical trauma therapy for his panic attacks, PTSD;
6. Sleep Deprivation (Sleep walking, etc.)
7. Aggressive Type-2 Diabetes

After the three month Conversion Therapy when Max was 16, he broke ties with his family and lived in his car. Today in Hawaii, this is one of the reasons that some of Hawaii Homeless Youth live on the streets. The connections are in line with the fact that each church in this testimony on Conversion Therapy has one common denominator: Church is the main promoter and instigator. Conversion Therapy is not a religious issue but a Justice and Safety Issue for our children under the age of 18.

Our Aloha state repeatedly says that our keiki are precious and respected. Yet many issues continue to allow situations that cause our children pain and suffering. Conversion It is reprehensible that our children have been used as pawns by those with less than respectable goals. Now is the time for our children and their families to live free to be who they are. Hawaii needs to provide an atmosphere of aloha, support and love of justice for all families WITHOUT Conversion Therapy.

Rainbow Family 808 respectfully requests that SB 270 be passed to establish protection from this fake scheme that destroys self identification, human worth and sometimes their lives. This is not a church issue but a Social Justice Issue. Please vote in favor of our minors. Please vote to prevent another issue within the Suicide trends for LGBTIA persons. Please vote for humane treatment of our youth.

Thank you for the opportunity to provide our support for our families with SB 207 because we need to Ban Conversion Therapy for the protectgion of our minors. Someone has to protect them when their churches and families fail them. Please pass SB 270 as soon as possible for the sake of all our minors.

Sincerely,

Carolyn Martinez Golojuch
President and Co-Founder
Rainbow Family 808

As a Nationally Certified Counselor (NCC) and a Licensed Professional Counselor (LPC), I STRONGLY SUPPORT THIS BILL BANNING CONVERSION THERAPY!!! Conversion therapy is 100 % completely counter therapeutic. The empirical evidence is overwhelming that it causes severe trauma and long term psychological destruction. During my career of over 25 years as a mental health professional counselor I have seen first hand the destructive force that conversion therapy perpetrates on the client. Suicide and many other self injurious behaviors are directly attributed to conversion therapy. This horrible method of forcibly coercing clients must be brought to and end now and forever. It is imperative that we stop this type of destructive therapy!!!

RELATING TO MINORS

House Committee on Judiciary
Hon. Scott Y. Nishimoto, Chair
Hon. Joy A. San Buenaventura, Vice Chair

Wednesday, April 4, 2018, 2:00 PM
State Capitol, Conference Room 325

Honorable Chair Nishimoto and committee members:

I am Kris Coffield, representing IMUAlliance, a nonpartisan political advocacy organization that currently boasts over 400 members. On behalf of our members, we offer this testimony in strong support of Senate Bill 270, SD 1, HD 1, relating to minors.

Conversion therapy, often called “ex-gay” therapy, is child abuse and, as such, has no place in our society. Just a few years ago, our state recognized same-sex marriage. Yet, the consecration of this most basic of freedoms is a small step toward eradicating institutionalized bias toward LGBT citizens, whose sexuality is often seen as a discretionary act, rather than an essential aspect of their identities. Today, more than ever, the science is clear: sexual orientation is not a choice, but a biological fact, only the expression of which is socially determined.

Conversion therapy involves a rejection of a child's sexual or gender identity. Minors who experience rejection based on their sexual orientation face especially serious health risks. In one study, lesbian, gay, and bisexual young adults who reported higher levels of rejection during adolescence were 8.4 times more likely to report having attempted suicide, 5.9 times more likely to report high levels of depression, 3.4 times more likely to use illegal drugs, and 3.4 times more likely to report having engaged in unprotected sexual intercourse compared with their peers. This is documented by Caitlin Ryan et al. in their article entitled “Family Rejection as a Predictor of Negative Health Outcomes in White and Latino Lesbian, Gay, and Bisexual Young Adults,” (2009) 123 Pediatrics 346.

Numerous medical, psychological, and mental health organizations have condemned conversion therapy as problematic, unscientific, and developmentally dangerous. The American Psychological Association convened a Task Force on Appropriate Therapeutic Responses to Sexual Orientation. The task force conducted a systematic review of peer-reviewed journal literature on sexual orientation change efforts and issued a report in 2009. The task force concluded that sexual orientation change efforts can pose critical health risks to lesbian, gay, and bisexual people, including confusion, depression, guilt, helplessness, hopelessness, shame, social withdrawal, suicidality, substance abuse, stress, disappointment, self-blame, decreased self-esteem and authenticity to others, increased self-hatred, hostility and blame toward parents, feelings of anger and betrayal, loss of friends and potential romantic partners, problems in sexual and emotional intimacy, sexual dysfunction, high-risk sexual behaviors, a feeling of being dehumanized and untrue to self, a loss of faith, and a sense of having wasted time and resources.

The American Psychological Association issued a resolution on Appropriate Affirmative Responses to Sexual Orientation Distress and Change Efforts in 2009, which states: "[T]he [American Psychological Association] advises parents, guardians, young people, and their families to avoid sexual orientation change efforts that portray homosexuality as a mental illness or developmental disorder and to seek psychotherapy, social support, and educational services that provide accurate information on sexual orientation and sexuality, increase family and school support, and reduce rejection of sexual minority youth."

The American Psychiatric Association published a position statement in March of 2000 in which it stated: "Psychotherapeutic modalities to convert or 'repair' homosexuality are based on developmental theories whose scientific validity is questionable. Furthermore, anecdotal reports of 'cures' are counterbalanced by anecdotal claims of psychological harm. In the last four decades, 'reparative' therapists have not produced any rigorous scientific research to substantiate their claims of cure. Until there is such research available, [the American Psychiatric Association] recommends that ethical practitioners refrain from attempts to change individuals' sexual orientation, keeping in mind the medical dictum to first, do no harm. The potential risks of reparative therapy are great, including depression, anxiety and self-destructive behavior, since therapist alignment with societal prejudices against homosexuality may reinforce self-hatred already experienced by the patient. Many patients who have undergone reparative therapy relate that they were inaccurately told that homosexuals are lonely, unhappy individuals who never achieve acceptance or satisfaction. The possibility that the person might achieve happiness and satisfying interpersonal relationships as a gay man or lesbian is not presented, nor are alternative approaches to dealing with the effects of societal stigmatization discussed. Therefore, the American Psychiatric Association opposes any psychiatric treatment such as reparative or conversion therapy which is based upon the assumption that homosexuality per se is a mental disorder or based upon the a priori assumption that a patient should change his or her sexual homosexual orientation."

The American School Counselor Association's position statement on professional school counselors and lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and questioning (LGBTQ) youth states: "It is not the role of the professional school counselor to attempt to change a student's sexual orientation/gender identity but instead to provide support to LGBTQ students to promote student achievement and personal well-being. Recognizing that sexual orientation is not an illness and does not require treatment, professional school counselors may provide individual student planning or responsive services to LGBTQ students to promote self-acceptance, deal with social acceptance, understand issues related to coming out, including issues that families may face when a student goes through this process and identify appropriate community resources."

The American Academy of Pediatrics in 1993 published an article in its journal, Pediatrics, stating: "Therapy directed at specifically changing sexual orientation is contraindicated, since it can provoke guilt and anxiety while having little or no potential for achieving changes in orientation."

The American Medical Association Council on Scientific Affairs prepared a report in 1994 in which it stated: "Aversion therapy (a behavioral or medical intervention which pairs unwanted behavior, in this case, homosexual behavior, with unpleasant sensations or aversive consequences) is no longer recommended for gay men and lesbians. Through psychotherapy, gay men and lesbians can become comfortable with their sexual orientation and understand the societal response to it."

The National Association of Social Workers prepared a 1997 policy statement in which it stated: "Social stigmatization of lesbian, gay, and bisexual people is widespread and is a primary motivating factor in leading some people to seek sexual orientation changes. Sexual orientation conversion therapies assume that homosexual orientation is both pathological and freely chosen. No data demonstrates that reparative or conversion therapies are effective, and, in fact, they may be harmful."

The American Counseling Association Governing Council issued a position statement in April of 1999, and in it the council states: "We oppose 'the promotion of "reparative therapy" as a "cure" for individuals who are homosexual'."

The American Psychoanalytic Association issued a position statement in June 2012 on attempts to change sexual orientation, gender, identity, or gender expression, and in it the association states: "As with any societal prejudice, bias against individuals based on actual or perceived sexual orientation, gender identity or gender expression negatively affects mental health, contributing to an enduring sense of stigma and pervasive self-criticism through the internalization of such prejudice; and psychoanalytic technique does not encompass purposeful attempts to 'convert,' 'repair,' change or shift an individual's sexual orientation, gender identity or gender expression. Such directed efforts are against fundamental principles of psychoanalytic treatment and often result in substantial psychological pain by reinforcing damaging internalized attitudes."

The American Academy of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry in 2012 published an article in its journal, Journal of the American Academy of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry, stating: "Clinicians should be aware that there is no evidence that sexual orientation can be altered through therapy, and that attempts to do so may be harmful. There is no empirical evidence adult homosexuality can be prevented if gender nonconforming children are influenced to be more gender conforming. Indeed, there is no medically valid basis for attempting to prevent homosexuality, which is not an illness. On the contrary, such efforts may encourage family rejection and undermine self-esteem, connectedness and caring, important protective factors against suicidal ideation and attempts. Given that there is no evidence that efforts to alter sexual orientation are effective, beneficial or necessary, and the possibility that they carry the risk of significant harm, such interventions are contraindicated."

The Pan American Health Organization, a regional office of the World Health Organization, issued a statement in May of 2012 and in it the organization states: "These supposed conversion therapies constitute a violation of the ethical principles of health care and violate human rights that are protected by international and regional agreements." The organization also noted that reparative therapies "lack medical justification and represent a serious threat to the health and well-being of affected people."

Finally, it is imperative to note that this measure in no way impacts the right of religious organizations to offer conversion counseling or "ex-gay" programs on their own grounds or under the supervision of churches. Rather, this bill merely prevents certified professional counselors from doing so, protecting the public from those who would misuse their professional status to perpetrate medically inaccurate and psychologically hazardous practices—bullying and discrimination—on our keiki.

Mahalo for the opportunity to testify in strong support of this bill.

Sincerely,

SB 270 SD1 HD1
RELATING TO MINORS
House Committee on Judiciary
Hearing - Wednesday, April 4, 2018
2:00 PM, State Capitol, Conference Room 325

Chair Nishimoto and Committee Members:

I am in strong opposition to the passing of SB 270 SD1 HD1 for the following reasons:

1. This bill bans one specific line of counseling without sufficient evidence to prove harm and ineffectiveness according to the APA's own 2009 report concerning SOCE. While the APA may discourage counselors from engaging in reparative therapy, they affirm the right to autonomy and self-determination of the client and that practitioners should respect the religious and spiritual values their clients hold.
2. This bill removes the ability of a patient to direct their own treatment, thus, denying the patient from being able to set their own goals in counseling (which opposes the APAs 1997 resolution); in essence, the state would be mandating "goals" in the mental health profession.
3. This ban discriminates against a specific subset of parents by preventing them from seeking medical, psychological, and psychiatric help for their children that aligns with their values concerning sexuality.
4. This ban discriminates against a specific subset of minors by preventing them from seeking medical, psychological, and psychiatric help that aligns with their values, worldview, and desired goals concerning their concept of self and sexuality.
5. This ban discriminates against licensed counselors who hold specific views on sexuality and infringes on their rights to express those views.
6. This bill engages in viewpoint discrimination: it only allows for the affirmation of a specific viewpoint and oppresses the expression of others in a professional environment (it invalidates opposing viewpoints concerning sexuality and legally mandates one line of thought).
7. This legislature has not explored whether removing sexual orientation change efforts (SOCE) counseling in other states has decreased the suicide rate in the LGBT community, thus it has no genuine evidence that the ban is necessary and will have the anticipated results.
8. Parents, who know their own children far better than the state, should decide what is the best treatment for their children concerning medical, psychological, and psychiatric interventions.
9. Claims that the anecdotal statements of good produced by reparative therapy are counterbalanced by anecdotal statements of harm may also be stated in relation to affirmation therapy. Countless individuals have claimed that "affirmation therapy" was extremely harmful to them and increased their depression as it prevented them from resolving their inner conflict concerning sexuality. The legislature should not legitimate the claims of one group over another by allowing some to seek the therapy they desire and denying others that same ability. The state should remain neutral and allow individuals to set their own goals.

10. The state mandating speech in the counseling room compromises the integrity of the doctor-patient relationship. The reasonable exceptions to the confidential protections afforded this relationship should not be broadened to allow the state to begin mandating speech in accordance with ideology. Doing so gives the public the understanding that counselors counsel according the dictates of the state, which removes trust in the counselor as the nature of their speech becomes “scripted.”
11. As the state cannot determine happiness or fulfillment for an individual, it should not dictate the “goals” of counseling by restricting speech. Mental health therapy aims at achieving wholeness, completion, and resolution, which often provides a sense of happiness through addressing inner conflict. It is impossible for the state to determine what happiness is to each individual, so it should not dictate what counselors can say and how they can counsel.
12. Numerous studies demonstrate that sexuality is fluid in the adolescent years and that many conflicts or difficulties may resolve in adulthood. Counselors should not be forced into “affirmation therapy” but should rather assist the minor in the pursuit of his or her desired goal if they are able to do so. If they are not, they should recommend another therapist, as is the current common practice.
13. Since patients can file complaints if harmed by their counselors/therapists, if the state has not received numerous complaints from patients about being harmed by SOCE, the bill is not needed and unnecessarily curtails the freedoms of both those who would seek out this treatment and those who would provide it to help their client’s achieve their own stated goals.

For these reasons, I urge you to not pass SB 270 SD1 HD1. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Kerrie Villers

Dear hearing committee,

I am in support of banning conversion therapy because clients, especially those who are under 18 and receiving therapy treatment shouldn't be told or manipulated into doing something that is uncomfortable for them. Engaging, attempting to engage in, and advertising sexual orientation change to a minor can deeply affect them mentally and emotionally. The topic of sexual orientation is never an easy subject, especially when a minor is still not willing to open up to others yet. SB 270 will prevent licensed counselors from giving out wrong information or views on how an individual should be.

Aloha,

Rep. Scott Y. Nishimoto, Chair

Rep. Joy A. San Buenaventura, Vice Chair

And members of the House Judiciary Committee

I would like to encourage you to vote in strong support of SB 270, a ban on conversion therapy.

Conversion therapy is ineffective, highly problematic and can produce grave results for anyone who undergoes treatment. There is no need for any type of 'conversion' to happen for anyone.

When you want to convert someone you are saying that something is wrong with that person and their current self is not valid. Are we not pushing for a movement for people to live authentically? Don't we want people to live happy, natural lives? Was there not a movement to encourage kids to think that they are enough? Conversation therapy to convert someone's sexuality or gender identity/expression to one that makes another person feel comfortable is wrong, its inhumane and intrudes on anyone's first amendment right of freedom to express themselves. We need to keep a safe world for our youth to grow up and by using ineffective treatments that could potentially cause harm to the child is a form of child abuse and should be banned. Anyone identifying as gay, lesbian, bisexual and or transgender are harmless when not affected by cruel people who make it a point to inflict their own beliefs in order to prohibit their children from living happy lives. I encourage every single person to live authentically and beautifully, safe from harmful ideals of others. Please, vote in strong support of SB 270, a ban on conversion therapy.

Mahalo,

Trigger Warning: This testimonial contains detailed references to trauma and torture incurred during conversion therapy.

To the Hawaii State House Committee on the Judiciary:

With the consent and support of my husband, Max E. Hughey, Jr., I implore you to support SB270 SD1 HD1, the ban on conversion therapy, which has long been, and continues to be, a cruel euphemism for sanctioned programmatic torture.

In the 1970s, my husband, then a completely sexually inexperienced sixteen-year-old, came out to his Michigan Assemblies of God family, the single-most disastrous decision of his life. His parents were persuaded to commit him to a local sanitarium for a period of three months of religiously based “therapy,” during which time he was daily strapped to a gurney, sobbing and screaming, savaged by caustic chemicals like Indoklon gas, and unremittingly shocked with electroconvulsive treatments—all for having done nothing but admit a same-sex attraction. In between these sessions, Max was psychologically abused by “reparative” programming in which he was subjected to pornographic imagery, shaming techniques, personal humiliation, and other degrading treatment, the sole intention of which was to make him hate himself and his same-sex attraction. All of this relentless intimidation was made possible by one thing: isolation. Max was, in a word, a prisoner.

Among the many horrific details of conversion therapy that so often go overlooked and undiscussed is its tacit terror. It is, in point of fact, a form of renditioning: subjects are typically taken off the grid for their so-called therapy and are gulaged from any chance of rescue or outside support; they’re kept in a controlled state of secrecy, vulnerability, anxiety, and helpless dependency on their captors. In Max’s case, not only were his parents prevented from monitoring his brutal reprogramming procedures, even sympathetic medical staff were threatened not to intervene on his behalf, leaving subjects at the merciless discretion of their captors. Case in point: eventually, Max’s involuntary screams during the procedure had become so uncomfortable for the staff to hear, a paralyzing agent was administered to his vocal cords to ensure he would remain unheard during and after the procedure. Now 63 years of age, he still retains the traumatizing memory of, not only how the electroshock made him think his brain way burning into ash, but how he was still conscious and unable to use his voice to scream for help just moments before they flipped the switch. He continues to experience full-on night terrors about this.

None of my own words can adequately capture with accuracy the degree of terror this innocent sixteen-year-old was forced to experience, nor the ineluctable lifelong consequences of it. An extremely bright, ethically grounded, and otherwise untroublesome “A” student--one who dutifully looked out for his blind younger brother and was just trying to make sense of his own adolescence, just like any other teen—had his life, his health, and his family relationships destroyed in the misnomer of therapy. After his sanitarium experience, Max broke ties with his family, lapsed into life-threatening depression, and lived homeless out of his car. After meeting a partner, Chip, who helped to lift him from this lowest point of his life, Max found the courage to go back to school, earned a prestigious scholarship to attend law school, and eventually landed a career as one of the youngest hospital administrators ever to have worked for an ivy league medical center. However, just as he seemed to be putting the past behind him, those three months in the sanitarium found yet more ways to scourge his life. The combination of the post-traumatic stress and the long-term effects of the chemicals he endured caused Max to succumb to a rare intractable ulcer syndrome that led to a near fatal gastric bleed and incurred two major surgeries, the last of which led to a subtotal gastrectomy: the removal two-thirds of his stomach. The primary and secondary consequences of these surgeries have resulted in more than thirty years of living with severe--severe--medical disability, unrelenting physical discomfort, and daily pain management. Owing to the permanent postsurgical gastric syndrome that followed, he has been generally unable to eat solid food without becoming violently ill and going into shock. For a while, the subsequent damage to his pancreas also made him a subject of curiosity for medical research: he had been one of merely a handful of insulin-resistant patients in the U.S. to be hooked up to a U500 insulin pump 24-hours a day. Throughout all of this, though, the emotional scars of his conversion experience have not lessened, nor have they been overshadowed by these ongoing physical and medical problems. Unalleviated by clinical trauma therapy, the post-traumatic stress remains shackled to him for life, manifesting in heart disease, chronic sleep deprivation, frequent and dangerous somnambulism, not to mention the very a constant wariness of the triggers that will send him into sudden panic attacks.

In submitting this testimonial, Max and I realize how fortunate we are to be alive in an era where our relationship is at last respected through the sanctity of civil marriage. However, that this testimonial should warrant a trigger warning is more than just a painful irony. Hiding in plain sight, bigoted religion-based rendition techniques like conversion “therapy” continue to torture young people in the name of religious freedom and health, as if there were anything legitimately spiritual or medical about any of it. (In fact, some of its victims have been gender nonconformist heterosexual youth!) As a nation, we cannot claim to be uncomfortably disturbed by the plight of minors forced to submit to torture, then at the same time sanction paralyzing them of the one defense they have left: an ability to cry out to us for help! Max and I beg you--BEG YOU!--not to let his happen to your children, your neighbors’ children, your fellow parishioners’ children, or anyone else. Conversion therapy is not merely a lie, it is a life sentence of trauma and misery. Confusing moral rectitude with wellness, it gives the false imprimatur of “therapy” to an inquisitor’s brainwashing, for the sole purpose of making an ideological minority feel more comfortable with a child’s difference.

You now have the political voice to speak on behalf of those whose voices, like Max’s, have been silenced, and you possess the power to stand up to those who abuse their powers as counselors, therapists, and parents. Please make compassion and justice your legacy. Strike a victory today against abuse. Your decision today can inspire others to ban conversion therapy once and for all from all U.S. territories. I’m sure you agree, we’ve lost far too many young people to senseless violence this past year.

Thank you for your consideration of this testimony.

Sincerely,

Karl J. Sherlock and Max E. Hughey, Jr.

I stongly support the passage of SB270.

I am so proud of the progress within the Great State of Hawai'i with regards to LGBTQI equality issues. We have accomplished so much over the past few years, and the passage of this legislation would speak volumes to our keiki as well as to the rest of our nation. Many states have already banned conversion therapy; Hawai'i should continue to lead and join the chorus of those other progressive states.

If you would like to see how well we stand with regards to the rights of the LGBTQI community, consult this incredibly detailed map of our country: http://www.lgbtmap.org/equality-maps/conversion\_therapy. Yes, there's a bit more work to be done here in Hawai'i, but we can feel proud that we are leading the way and doing the right thing for future generations.

Thank you in advance for all of your work and for your support in the passage of SB270.

Honorable Chairs and members of the Senate Committee on Consumer Protection & Health, I am Walter Yoshimitsu, representing the Hawaii Catholic Conference. The Hawaii Catholic Conference is the public policy voice for the Roman Catholic Church in the State of Hawaii, which under the leadership of Bishop Larry Silva, represents Roman Catholics in Hawaii.

We oppose this bill because it bans reparative therapy for minors, even if the minor themselves or the parents want the therapy. That is awfully invasive on the part of the legislature, which has no competence in this area. The wording in SB270 SD1 HD1 offers no exemption for clergy, religious or spiritual counselors who are licensed by the state, which we find problematic and a violation of religious freedom.

To make it abundantly clear, the Catholic Church is concerned for the whole person. And in the mind of the Church, the psychological sciences, in accord with Christian anthropology, are not considered separate from pastoral care, but rather integral to it. The care and dignity of the human person is the core foundation for what we believe as Catholics.

In 1995, the Pontifical Council for the Family issued a document, "The Truth and Meaning of Human Sexuality: Guidelines for Education in the Family." The document states that "[y]oung people need to be helped to distinguish between the concepts of what is normal and abnormal, between subjective guilt and objective disorder, avoiding what would arouse hostility." It also states that "if parents notice the appearance of this tendency or of related behavior in their children during childhood or adolescence, they should seek help from expert qualified persons to obtain all possible assistance."

Banning these "efforts" as specified in this bill (pg 4 line 3ff) is overly broad. Since local medical licensing boards already provide a mechanism for a patient (or their parents) to complain if therapists are providing questionable therapy outside of accepted practices, and/or patients can simply choose to change doctors they are unhappy with, we simply do not see the need for this bill. If there is a true need to clarify bad practices, why not be specific in the "bad therapy" you are banning?

This bill would keep patients, and their parents, from exercising their fundamental right to choose the therapy they feel best meets their needs. Their individual choice in therapy should be taken into consideration. Every patient, especially those who may have been sexually abused as children and experiencing gender identification confusion, deserves the right to get the help they need and secure a counselor that supports their counseling goals. Mahalo for the opportunity to testify.

RE: Opposition to SB270 SD1 HD 1 Relating to Minors

Hawaii Family Forum is a non-profit, pro-family education organization committed to preserving and strengthening families in Hawaii, representing a network of various Christian Churches and various faith-based groups. We oppose this bill for two reasons: (1) the bill is not necessary and (2) we believe that this bill violates the right of parents to choose their child's therapy and provide appropriate and professional health care services.

The ban language is so vague, we have no idea what forms of "bad" therapy you are addressing. Claims of "barbaric 'therapy' treatment aimed at converting lesbians and gays to heterosexuality" and alleged licensed therapists using "pseudoscience and torture" are extremely concerning to all of us.

If these types of abusive therapy are indeed happening here in Hawai'i, complaints need to be filed through the State Licensing Board – not the Hawaii State Legislature. In fact, a report of how many complaints were filed should be accessible by this legislature. The bottom line is that if patients in Hawaii have truly have been harmed or treated unethically, the licensing boards would already have known, documented, and acted.

Rather than punishing all therapists, a thorough study of the issue needs to happen. Protection of children against "harmful" and "medieval" therapeutic practices should be taken up with the authority that has been established to do so. The strongest safeguard against these alleged abuses should start and end with the licensing board. At the very least, rather than passing this bill, a task force should be established to study how many instances of abuses have been filed here in the State of Hawaii.

Finally, there is an unintended consequence to the passing of this bill. Parents would be prohibited from accessing licensed health professionals who are trained to help their son or daughter dealing with unwanted same-sex attraction issues that may be occurring because of childhood sexual assault and abuse inflicted by an adult same-sex perpetrator. This bill, if passed, will stop these victims of sexual abuse from getting the help they need. In light of current news stories about this very issue, surely that is not what this legislature intends.

For these reasons we ask that you defer this bill. Mahalo for the opportunity to testify.

Aloha,

I am writing to you today to express the strong support I and my family have for SB 270 . Conversion "therapy" is immensely harmful to people, especially children and teenagers who are impressionable and just discovering their identities. My daughter and many other family members and friends are LGBTQ, and I can attest to the damage that is suffered when people are not allowed to express who they are and be accepted and loved by their friends and family. No one can be trained to not have the sexual orientation or gender identification they are born with, and attempting to do so only results in repression and a multitude of stress related disorders. Please support this important bill to allow all the residents of Hawaii to be free of the draconian and outdated concept of conversion therapy.

TO THE HONORABLE SCOTT Y. NISHIMOTO, CHAIR, AND MEMBERS OF THE COMMITTEE:

My name is May Ferrer, and I am the Executive Officer of the Board of Psychology (“Board”). Thank you for the opportunity to testify in support of S.B. 270, S.D. 1, H.D. 1, Relating to Minors.

S.B. 270, S.D. 1, H.D. 1 prohibits specific state-licensed persons who are licensed to provide professional counseling from engaging in, attempting to engage in, or advertising sexual orientation change efforts on persons under eighteen years of age.

At its meeting on Friday, March 23, 2018, the Board expressed its continued support of this bill from the 2017 legislative session. The Board reinforced its commitment to the American Psychological Association’s (“APA”) Ethical Principles of Psychologists and Code of Conduct, which the Board voted unanimously to incorporate into Hawaii Administrative Rules chapter 94 on January 23, 2015.

The Ethics Code states the following general principle: “Psychologists respect the dignity and worth of all people, and the rights of individuals to privacy, confidentiality, and self-determination. Psychologists are aware that special safeguards may be necessary to protect the rights and welfare of persons or communities whose vulnerabilities impair autonomous decision making. Psychologists are aware of and respect cultural, individual, and role differences, including those based on age, gender, gender identity, race, ethnicity, culture, national origin, religion, sexual orientation, disability, language, and socioeconomic status, and consider these factors when working with members of such groups. Psychologists try to eliminate the effect on their work of biases based on those factors, and they do not knowingly participate in or condone activities of others based upon such prejudices.”

RE: SB 270, SD 1, HD 1 - RELATING TO MINORS

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 4, 2018

COREY ROSENLEE, PRESIDENT
HAWAII STATE TEACHERS ASSOCIATION

Chair Nishimoto and Members of the Committee:

The Hawaii State Teachers Association supports SB 270, SD 1, HD 1, relating to minors.

Conversion therapy, often called “ex-gay” therapy, has no place in our society. It involves a rejection of a child's sexual or gender identity. Minors who experience rejection based on their sexual orientation face serious health risks. In a study published in the medical journal Pediatrics, lesbian, gay, and bisexual young adults who reported higher levels of rejection during adolescence were 8.4 times more likely to report having attempted suicide, 5.9 times more likely to report high levels of depression, 3.4 times more likely to use illegal drugs, and 3.4 times more likely to report having engaged in unprotected sexual intercourse compared with their peers.

Numerous medical, psychological, and mental health organizations have condemned conversion therapy as unscientific and developmentally dangerous, including the American Psychological Association. In the education world, HSTA helped pass a 2015 National Education Association Convention Item opposing conversion therapy, NBI 86, that states, “NEA will disseminate to educators through existing publications current information regarding the damaging effects of anti-gay conversion/reparative therapies.” Thus, teachers, too, understand the harm caused by conversion therapy, which undermines childhood development. We believe this practice is tantamount to child abuse and should be banned statewide.

To protect our keiki from discriminatory pseudo-psychology, the Hawaii State Teachers Association asks your committee to support this bill.

Aloha Chair Nishimoto and Committee Members,

I strongly oppose SB 270 SD1 HD1, for many reasons. I think that preventing a person who is unhappy with his or her construction of self from seeking DESIRED treatment is oppressive, especially if he or shee is an abused minor. All persons, including minors, should be able to choose licensed professional counseling and therapy that would help them freely discuss and resolve inner conflict related to UNWANTED same sex attraction or gender identity. Being a kid and a teenager is difficult in this day and age and I would hate to legally prevent them from being able to speak with a trusted counselor about their feelings and concerns, about anything, not to mention something as all-encompassing as their sexuality. I of course support the right for all persons to determine their own direction in treatment concerning sexuality, and this proposed legislation would be taking that right away. As a parent, I am extremely concerned about this bill because I have a responsibility to nurture and support my children. I have the right as a parent to employ licensed counselors who support my values and goals.

Lastly, with the understandable exceptions of risk of suicide, homicide, or child abuse, all counseling is legally confidential and should remain uninhibited so that counselors and their clients may be transparent for the sake of the professional relationship and trust that is needed to work through issues.

Please, I urge you to vote NO and do not pass SB 270 at the hearing.

Thank you for hearing my concerns.

Conversion "Therapy??" is not recognized as a valid practice by the American Psychological Association. It risks depression, helplessness, social withdrawal, & suicide. Its more a form brain washing. Please ban conversion therapy from being used on individuals 18 & under.

It is imparative that this bill pass banning any and all attempts to commit conversion therapy for changing sexual orientation. Calling it therapy is already a misnomer, as it is nothing short of legalized torture. However, calling it torture isn't exactly accurate either, as torture is the illegal punishment of those that are guilty of accused of a crime. What is the crime in being gay, or are we still living in the dark ages? It is time that government step up and do its job of protecting its citizens from any form of legalized abuse. Conversion "therapy" must be banned in the state of Hawaii once and for all, and by doing so, Hawaii may be a voice to the rest of the country to stop this backward trend that violates the civil rights of those who may be different from the "moral" majority.

I support the banning of conversion therapy for minors, as someone who once tried to use religion/prayer as a way to change my sexual orientation. I can personally testify, of the unnessecary emotional difficulties and self hate that such actions cause. There was nothing wrong with me, but for years I struggled needlessly. Acceptance is what was really needed. Homosexuality is not something that needs to/should be fixed. Conversion therapy is archaic and wrong, and certainly not something that should be forced upon anyone. Aloha.

Conversion therapy is a relic of an ignorant, prejudiced, and hateful era, much like lynchings and segregation. It has no place in Hawaii. Please act now so that our children, our family members, and our neighbors can feel safe in their own skin, living in our communities and our ohanas.

Hate, bigotry, and prejudice are dangerous viruses. They take hold and they warp people and communities. They ruin lives. They destroy families. We've seen this hatred's damage throughout history, and we look back at those moments and wonder how it ever got to that, that children and citizens could be the target of such vile cruelty.

We stand there again. By banning this hateful act, you are telling our loved ones - our children, aunts and uncles, mothers and fathers - that you value them and you stand with them. If you don't act to ban this hateful practice, you are complicit in your silence. You send a message to these loved ones that they don't matter, that you know better than they do, that you don't accept them as who they are.

Issues can get complicated from time to time. But this isn't one of them. Either we stand with our loved ones, or we tell them they must be subject to a hateful measure before they are considered full and acceptable human beings.

If you don't act on this bill, banning this practice this session, you're telling my son, my friends, my colleagues, and others in my family that they are somehow wrong or less-than in your eyes. That's not the community Hawaii claims to be. That's not the people we say we are.

Please do what's right, and do it right now.

Thank you.

Aloha Chairs and Committee Members,

I am in strong support of this measure to ban "conversion therapy." Young people need to find their own way to their gender identity, free of coercion of any kind. We need to stop letting parents and guardians to force children into unneeded, harmful attempts to "correct" their gender expression. There is nothing more personal than one's gender identity. We must protect the absolute right of children to determine and express this identity as they see fit, in all aspects of life. Conversion Therapy is a blunt, barbaric tool of shame and repression that has no place in 2018.

Thank you,

Re: TESTIMONY IN SUPPORT OF SB 270SD 1 RELATING TO MINORS

Hearing: March 14, 2018, 2:00 pm, CR 329

Thank you for allowing us to testify in support of Senate Bill 270 SD 1, which prohibits licensed persons who provide professional counseling from engaging in sexual orientation change efforts involving persons under eighteen years of age.

Mental Health America of Hawaii (MHAH) is a 501(c)3 organization founded in Hawai'i 76 years ago, that serves the community by promoting mental health through advocacy, education and service. MHAH actively works on the issue of youth suicide and bullying prevention with a special focus on LGBTQ+ youth and organizes a coalition of LGBTQ+ youth advocates, called the Rainbow Youth Coalition. LGBTQ+ youth are put in harms' way when they face a lack of acceptance in their families, schools and communities. The practice of conversion therapy is one of the most harmful manifestations of that lack of acceptance. This bill supports the mental health of Hawai'i's youth by offering legal protection against a practice that is not supported or validated by research. Conversion therapy is harmful and should not be a part of any mental health treatment.

Our position is supported by many professional mental health and education associations, including Just the Facts Coalition (American Academy of Pediatrics, American Association of School Administrators, American Counseling Association, American Federation of Teachers, American Psychological Association, American School Counselor Association, American School Health Association, Interfaith Alliance Foundation, National Association of School Psychologists, National Association of Secondary School Principals, National Association of Social Workers, national Education Association, School Social Work Association of America), Just the Facts About Sexual Orientation and Youth: A Primer for Principals, Educators, and School Personnel (2008), available at <http://www.apa.org/pi/lgbt/resources/just-the-facts.pdf>.

"The most important fact about 'reparative therapy,' also sometimes known as 'conversion' therapy, is that it is based on an understanding of homosexuality that has been rejected by all the major health and mental health professions. The American Academy of Pediatrics, the American Counseling Association, the American Psychiatric Association, the American Psychological Association, the National Association of School Psychologists, and the National Association of Social Workers, together representing more than 477,000 health and mental health professionals, have all taken the position that homosexuality is not a mental disorder and thus there is no need for a 'cure.'"

Thank you for the opportunity to testify in support of this bill. Please contact me at trisha.kajimura@mentalhealthhawaii.org or (808)521-1846 if you have any questions.

I would like to express my strong opposition to SB270 Conversion Therapy Bill

To deny the freedom of individuals the right to therapy that would allow them necessary counseling for sexual orientation and other psychological disorders to avoid sex change options is infringing on our freedoms to pursue life, liberty and happiness as expressed in the Constitution. Much of the struggle and unhappiness of those struggling with sexual identity have shown in studies that they also struggle from other psychological issues that need to be addressed. Simply pushing a sex change operation or sex change options are not necessarily treating the root cause of their pain and struggle.

Passing this bill would make an easy option of sex change and literally make it more difficult for individuals to pursue counseling that would aid in addressing root issues in their life that might bring lasting healing and happiness to them. This bill rushes into protecting and promoting the politically correct view of transderism and does not encourage or allow for differing options that are available.

It is my belief that passing this bill would pose more dangers for our keiki of this great state. Please do some research and find out what the studies show about helping keiki struggling with sexual identity,

I urge you to vote no.

Sincerely,

Kimberly Marquez

Re. SB 270, Relating to Minors

Dear Chairperson Nishimoto and Vice Chairperson San Buenaventura:

I write to you in support of SB 270, "Relating to Minors."

The National Center for Lesbian Rights (NCLR) is a national nonprofit legal organization dedicated to protecting and advancing the civil rights of lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender (LGBT) people and their families. NCLR's youth project was founded in 1993 specifically to address the mistreatment of LGBT youth in the mental health system. As part of the #BornPerfect campaign, we support a network of survivors of these dangerous and discredited practices through the process of telling what can be deeply re-traumatizing stories. We have seen firsthand the devastating impact on parents and families when they are misled by state-licensed professionals who give them false information that therapy can change a child's sexual orientation or gender identity. Tragically, based on our direct experience as well as that of others who serve this young population, all the children subjected to these dangerous practices are harmed, but not all of them survive.

Modern science recognizes that being LGBT is not a disorder. In 2009, the American Psychological Association reviewed all the empirical and expert clinical data on decades of conversion therapy treatments and concluded that there is no scientific evidence that such efforts are effective, and significant evidence that they are harmful—especially for children—and linked to dramatically increased rates of depression, substance abuse, risky sexual behavior, isolation, and even suicide. Because these practices have no scientific basis, provide no benefits, and carry such high risks, every one of the nation's leading medical and mental health associations have issued policy statements condemning them. In October 2015, the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration published a report from the nation's foremost experts on LGBTQ youth mental health, describing these practices as ineffective and inappropriate and calling for their end.

NCLR has helped defend laws like SB 270 before the Third and Ninth Federal Circuit Courts, both of which have concluded that these regulations are legally beyond dispute. Last May, the U.S. Supreme Court declined to review a law just like this one for a fourth time. The courts have made it clear that these regulations are constitutionally sound. This bill does not affect the free speech of doctors or the ability of minors to seek any type of medically sound therapeutic treatment. Like all other laws that protect the public against ineffective and unsafe treatment by licensed professionals, it will only ensure that state-licensed mental health providers cannot subject minor patients to dangerous, ineffective, and discredited practices—and cannot defraud and mislead loving parents who would never knowingly place their children at risk of such serious harms, and who count on the law to regulate medical professionals to prevent them from harming their children.

Working closely with survivors of conversion therapy, I know all too well that this is truly a matter of life and death. We have lost too many along the way to finally ending these practices for good. The tragic death by suicide of Leelah Alcorn, a transgender teenage girl who said that undergoing conversion therapy made her feel more isolated and rejected, has been a wake-up call to much of the country that we need to act now to protect our children from an industry that profits from their pain. SB 270 would protect the most vulnerable among us from being told that who they are is wrong and protect families from the terrible pain of discovering that they have been defrauded by trusted professionals who abuse their state licenses to tell children that they were born anything but perfect.

I respectfully request that the Committee adopt a favorable report for SB 270 as expeditiously as possible.

Thank you for your consideration on this important matter.

Respectfully,

RE: SB270, SD1, HD1

I strongly oppose this bill for the following reasons:

1) This bill removes the right of minors to choose the type of health care they are entitled to, care that they may want or need. As adolescents they face a number of mental and physical issues that are related to maturing into adults. Some may question gender identity and they should be allowed to discuss this with a professional counselor. This choice should not be removed by the government. By not allowing a choice results in stifling the growth of youth who want to be healthy and confident in who they are.

2) The bill removes the right of licensed professional counselors the freedom to practice as well as the right of confidentiality for their patients. Government should not be privy to what concerns and issues a patient may need to discuss with a doctor or counselor. By stepping into this area of gender identity this bill also opens the door for government to intrude further into other areas of practice.

3) This bill takes away the right of every parent or guardian to choose the type of care that would be most appropriate for their children who may be questioning their gender identity. Currently, parents can choose any type of mental health care for their children, but not this one, if the bill becomes law. Removing this right for a parent could be considered neglect in the proper care and nurturing of a child.

SB 270 sets mental health care back. We should be moving forward by providing complete care for a healthier society. By preventing discussion, counseling and/or treatment government assumes it knows better than a professional or parent in caring for youth who have questions about their identity. This creates more problems than it purports to solve.

Please reconsider and give Hawaii's children an opportunity to discuss their concerns, give their parents more tools to care for their families and give professional counselors latitude to do their jobs to help their patients. Please do not pass this bill.

Thank you for your consideration.

Aloha,

I am a lesbian that grew up in Hilo on the big island, I came of age just before Ellen came out, a time when it was simply not possible to be out in highschool without being shunned and taunted. I tried to find out about myself at the Hilo library- there were two books available to check out- one was called "Inverts" and was written in the 1930s and was just awful- it was in the mental disorder section. The other was "A Well of Lonliness," also a terrible tale of lesbian tragedy and... lonliness lol. This was the extent of the knowledge I had access to. This was before the internet, before GSAs and fun TV shows with gay characters. My family was extremely poor- homeless off an on and fox news loving right wingers, but at least they were not religious fanatics. I was afraid for them to find out I was gay. I had three older brothers who loved taunting me for not wearing dresses or wanting to date boys as it was- coming out would have been the final nail in my coffin. They would have sent me to conversion therapy if they would have known something like that existed, if they would have found out that I was gay before I turned 18 and if they could have afforded it. I moved to Oahu where I was somewhat out and because of how things are here I was terrified they would find out via the cocoanut wireless. Then Hawaii voted down the measure to allow same sex marriage and there was a lot of commercials making fun of LGBT people. I thought for sure the politicians would approve marriage if for no other reason than to get Hawaii all that wonderful tourist money! When I saw that even money couldn't assuage their hate I was pretty shocked and hurt. I couldn't believe nearly 70% of voters hated me, I thought progress had been made, I was pretty devastated, even in Hawaii a place I loved that spoke of Aloha and acceptance this could happen. I couldn't find very many people like me- even in the big city of Honolulu- sure there were lots of gay men- I went to Hulas a lot but definately very few women my age. My family found out of course and I was disowned for about eight years. Thank goodness I was already an adult. They started talking to me a bit again but I cut off all contact after they voted for Trump, I just couldn't put up with that anymore. They would say things like lesbians are creepy and "how's your "roommate?" using little sarcastic quotey fingers around roommate. I eventually moved to Europe and the mainland hoping to finally find someone to date! My girlfriend of now thirteen years had a different but equally bad experience coming out on the mainland. Neither of us have family, a support system of any kind or a network or people who think we are worthy of promotion, despite having 4 masters degrees and years of work expereince between us we struggle to make a living here in Honolulu and people still treat us like we are not people. Every time a new feminine woman or male is hired they surpass us in promotion- we point this out but it never helps despite all the "exceeds expectations" reviews in the world. I no longer hold out hope of owning a home, paying off student loans or even enjoying a daily latte. My girlfriend and I will live in poverty until we drop dead of exhaustion. Our only hope is that future generations might have it easier than we did- locking them away or trying to therapy away the gay is not a solution to anything. What the state needs to focus on is making workplaces and schools safer and healthier for lgbt folks in the future. Gay men have made a lot of progress and are able to now earn impressive incomes. They are often stereotyped as "fun" "Stylish" and "successful." While lesbians are stereotyped still as either sex objects or boring, plaid wearing, unstylish, overly political Debbie Downers. Its time to make things easier for the lbt's too. You can't do that with barbaric conversion therapy, most professionals agree that this is pointless and harmful. Does my story sound easy or pleasant? No, it was and is not. If it was a choice, I am not saying I would choose to be straight, but I would very much have liked it to have been easier. Certainly conversion therapy would have done nothing except perhaps make me consider suicide. If you ban conversion therapy you are saying that you support this oppressed community and want to protect them from quackery. I would also like to see some health communication from the state in schools and workplaces that talks about stereotyping- it's exhausting. If one more person asks me and my girlfriend "who is the man?" I swear I am going to lose it. Please do something to protect not just LGBT youth but all stereotyped and oppressed populations- set a good example! I am now a poorly paid library assistant and I do what I can to ensure others have more LGBT literature to choose from at the library than I did! It is one small thing I can do. (You may use any of this for testimony if you wish)- Mahalo!

POSITION: STRONG SUPPORT for Senate Bill 270 - RELATING TO MINORS

To the House Committee on Judiciary:

I respectfully request that you strongly support this bill banning conversion therapy for minors. Any remotely competent professional counselor knows that this practice is harmful, and it is already scorned by the professional community.

I earned a Master of Arts in Counseling in Guidance from Louisiana Tech University, which is located in northern Louisiana. In that part of Louisiana, the schools were only desegregated in 2012. In northern Louisiana, when someone says, "that n*gger" in conversation without any additional context, they are referring to Barack Obama. The public hate toward the LGBTQIA community and overall ignorance about LGBTQIA concepts is just as severe there as it is here in Hawaii, possibly even more so.

Even despite that kind of hate, my professors were very clear in their condemnation of conversion therapy. The public around the university may have had other opinions, but when it came time to uphold professional responsibility and evidence-based practices, they did their due diligence.

My hope is that you all will do the same.

Mahalo nui loa!

Good Afternoon Representatives,

My understanding of our Constitutional Rights is that we're allowed to pursue our individual freedoms SO LONG AS WE DON'T REMOVE, CURTAIL OR IMPOSE UPON THE FREEDOM/S of another individual/other individuals - has something fundamentally changed this legislative session?

First you decided to specifically override Hawaii physicians' professed Hippocratic Oaths and their freedom with HB2739 and now you're going to instruct mental health professionals on what they can and can't counsel on???! Has Hawaii ceded from the United States and/or the Constitution? (Because I'm not understanding ANY of this Legislature's motives, motivations or decision-making this year - "truth, justice, the American way, the will of the people" has nothing to do with it!)

For what it's worth, as a former Marriage & Family Therapist, I DON'T AGREE with this bill and hope you have the integrity enough to VOTE NO to it. May God have mercy ~

On behalf of Hawaii Children's Action Network (HCAN), we are writing to support SB 270, SD1, HD1, which would prohibit licensed mental health professionals from practicing conversion therapy on minors.

Hawaii's children should never be subjected to harmful practices by their trusted mental health professionals. Sexual orientation change efforts ("SOCE"), commonly known as conversion therapy, has been shown to cause lasting harm to young people, and the nation's leading mental health organizations, including but not limited to the American Psychological Association and the National Association of Social Workers, have condemned the practice.<sup>1</sup> SOCE and family rejection of lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender (LGBT) youth has been linked to anxiety, depression, and suicide. Those who practice SOCE on minors base their practice on the false assumption that sexual orientation is a choice, and that homosexuality is a disorder that can and should be "cured." The medical consensus is that this is untrue, and the practice of conversion therapy violates best practices in mental health.

In addition to potentially causing serious negative health outcomes for young people, SOCE is ineffective in changing a person's sexual orientation. Those who advertise that they can change a person's sexual orientation through therapy may be acting in violation of Hawaii's consumer protection laws. In 2015, a New Jersey trial court found that an organization claiming to have the ability to "convert" people from gay to straight acted in violation of the state's consumer protection laws.<sup>2</sup> Laws banning SOCE, on the other hand, have been upheld in several jurisdictions, and the United States Supreme Court has declined review of federal rulings upholding these bans, including the ruling in the 9th Circuit which set binding precedent for our jurisdiction.<sup>3</sup> SB 270, if passed into law, would almost certainly withstand any similar First Amendment challenge.

For these reasons, HCAN respectfully requests your Committee to support this measure.

HCAN is committed to building a unified voice advocating for Hawaii's children by improving their safety, health, and education.

Testimony IN SUPPORT OF SB270 SD1 HD1
RELATING TO MINORS

The Hawaii Psychological Association (HPA) supports SB270 SD1 HD1 which seeks to protect the physical and psychological wellbeing of minors against exposure to harm caused by Sexual Orientation Change Efforts (SOCE; also known as “Conversion Therapy”). According to the American Psychological Association (APA), there is insufficient research evidence to demonstrate the efficacy of SOCE. There is also no evidence that providing SOCE therapies to children or adolescents has an impact on their Adult sexual orientation or on adult gender identity. In addition, the HPA supports the amendment included in this version of the bill that defines “conversion therapy” as including “sexual orientation change efforts” and “gender identity change efforts.” This helps make it clear that these are two distinct kinds of conversion efforts that are prohibited by this bill. The HPA supports the idea that this bill needs to present gender identity change efforts correctly to equally highlight the importance of protecting youth from undue adult pressure related to their gender identity as well as to their sexual orientations.

The APA found SOCE therapies tend to do more harm than good. Not only do children and adolescents get misinformation, they also are at risk of increased self-stigma and psychological distress. Children and adolescents who participate in these types of interventions are given inaccurate scientific information regarding sexual orientation and gender identity. These types of therapies also often use fear based techniques and have the potential to increase stigma. Participants also often report an increase in distress and depression especially when such “therapies” do not work. SOCE participants report negative consequences of SOCE interventions such as, anger, anxiety, depression, guilt, hopelessness, loss of social support, relationship problems with significant others and families, social isolation, suicidal thoughts, self-hatred, and sexual dysfunction. As such, these types of coercive techniques are contrary to current clinical and professional standards. These types of interventions violate current clinical practice by not protecting the client’s autonomy and by ignoring scientific information on sexual orientation and gender identity.

Although some opponents of this bill have tried to suggest that there is disagreement among researchers about the evidence in this area, they have referenced publications by anti-gay organizations only. All the major organizations of professionals involved in treating children have issued statements opposing Sexual Orientation Change therapy, including the American Psychological Association, the American Medical Association, the American Academy of Pediatrics, the American Psychiatric Association, and the National Association of Social Workers. This consensus of professional opinion is very well documented in a 2015 publication by the Federal Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA; Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration, Ending Conversion Therapy: Supporting and Affirming LGBTQ Youth. HHS Publication No. (SMA) 15-4928. Rockville, MD: Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration, 2015. It can be read by following this link: <https://store.samhsa.gov/shin/content/SMA15-4928/SMA15-4928.pdf> )

The bill does not hinder mental health providers, clergy or parents from counseling youth or offering a range of other, more standard clinical psychological services to lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender (LGBT) children and adolescents. The bill regulates the services being provided to LGBT children and adolescents to provide them protections against being exposed to harm through SOCE therapies that might be chosen for them by adults. The bill is in line with APA practice standards.

Thank you for the opportunity to submit testimony on this important subject.

Please vote no on SB 270.

If this bill becomes law, counseling that encourages minors to change their gender -- even to go through irreversible sex-change operations -- would be protected by the state. But counseling to help them accept their birth sex would be outlawed.

RE: SB270, SD1, HD1, Relating to Minors

Thank you for the opportunity to provide testimony.

I am testifying in strong support of SB270, SB1, HD1

I am a licensed Mental Health Counselor and am testifying on behalf of myself and Hawaii Counselors Association.

For almost half a century mental health professionals have been aware that homosexuality is not a mental disorder. In 1973 the American Psychiatric Association declassified homosexuality from the Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorder (DSM). It takes a number of years to make changes to any DSM version so this process began well before changes were made. The Pan American Health Organization has noted that the global scientific and professional consensus is that homosexuality is a normal and natural variation of human sexuality.

Looking at history many cultures embraced the concept of gender identity and the Hawaiian culture definitely embraced the Transgender identity and even revered it and does to this day. When western society overtook the Hawaiian Islands the new comers felt it was evil.

SAMHSA (Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration) issued, in October 2015 about a 40 page booklet "Ending Conversion Therapy: Supporting and Affirming LGBTQ Youth". This can be found on their website. These rejections contain issues such as there has been no documented evidence that attempts at conversion therapy has been successful and are rather than helpful to the individual are harmful, abusive and fraudulent.

Having worked with sexually abused children & adolescents in the past, I do not believe that sexual abuse usually causes a person to become, or think they are a lesbian or gay. Whether it is an LGBTQ child or someone sexually abused they are confused, upset, feel they are at fault, and feel guilty. They usually have low self-esteem and they often turn to alcohol, drugs, pernicious behavior and other behaviors that harm themselves including suicide. The same symptoms are often present in LGBTQ youth.

What these children most need is support. The support hopefully will start with their parents who accept them and their feelings and that is often not the case. Even with parental support, for the most part it requires more than the parents can give. What these children need is a qualified profession to help them work through their feelings. That means listening to them; validating them and helping them value themselves so that they can develop a positive sense of identity. It does not mean doing anything to change who they already are.

This is not a mental illness and anything done to make anyone feel even less okay increases their issues. Gender identity is something individuals are born with and by the time a child is five or six they know they are different. So called conversion therapy attempts to force someone to be someone they are not and does not work.

Conversion therapy methods are not therapy and it confuses and mentally harms any person subjected to the so called therapy. It is not considered a therapy as it has not been proven to work. In addition, many of my colleagues, as well as myself believe this is a form of child abuse and is not at all helpful.

I encourage you to pass SB270, SD1, HD1

Comments:

Chair Nishimoto and Committee Members:

I strongly oppose SB 270, SD1, HD1 on the grounds that:

Yes _ Our state should respect and affirm the autonomy of all persons to choose counseling in accordance with their own personal desires, inner convictions, and faith.

Yes _ Preventing a person who is unhappy with his or her construction of self from seeking desired treatment is oppressive, particularly if it is an abused minor.

Yes _ All persons, including minors, should be able to choose licensed professional counseling and therapy that would help them freely discuss and resolve inner conflict related to unwanted same sex attraction or gender identity.

Yes _ I support the right of all persons to determine their own direction in treatment concerning sexuality.

Yes _ I support the right of parents to employ licensed counselors who support their values and goals.

Yes _ I support the right of all counselors to express their views on sexuality and to not be censored by the state for using words to help their patients reach their own desired goals.

Yes _ With the understandable exceptions of imminent risk for suicide, homicide, or child or elder abuse, all counseling is legally confidential and should remain uninhibited so that counselors and their clients may be transparent for the sake of the professional relationship and trust that is needed to work through issues.

This bill has been proposed and written on behalf of a very small percentage of our population for their specific benefit, and I'm not referring to the children this outrageous restriction on counselors ability to help will impact. This isn't about the children, but about those who want their particular lifestyle choice to be endorsed by all. While I agree that their lifestyle is only their business, this law is making it everyone's business. It would prevent someone who wants the information to assist them in their life choices from being able to get it from a professional source.

I understand there have been abuses of conversion therapy. There have been abuses of the legislative process. Should we pass laws against legislating? No, we correct and carry on. Please show that same restraint here. If some guidelines or restrictions are needed for conversion therapy, then do that. That does not justify keeping valid and valuable information from anyone seeking it.

Please do not pass this unfair bill.

I urge you to vote no and do not pass SB 270 at the hearing.

Position: IN SUPPORT

Chair and Vice Chair, I am a concerned citizen writing on behalf of myself to testify in support of SB270. I am a concerned citizen, a youth advocate, and a member of many minority and marginalized communities, including the LGBTQ+ community. It concerns me that Hawai'i is having such a difficult time banning conversion "therapy", with all of the evidence existing stating the probability of harm incurred as a result.

I know, deep down, that you care deeply for your keiki and the generations to come. As a member of the LGBTQ+ community who did not have the option of living openly as a youth with the support of those around them, I know how devastating it can be to confide in those closest to you and hear them say they want to change you. I know how crippling it can be to one's mind, and how traumatic to one's spirit to be told that something is inherently wrong with you because of whom you love or how they identify.

Youth in this community are 4 times more likely to attempt suicide than their straight peers, and if these youth come from rejecting families or families who try to change them, that statistic balloons to 8.4 times more likely (<http://www.thetrevorproject.org/pages/facts-about-suicide>); 40% of homeless youth identify as LGBTQ+ (<http://williamsinstitute.law.ucla.edu/press/americas-shame-40-of-homeless-youth-are-lgbt-kids/>). These statistics don't exist because of the identity of the children—they exist because of the rejection of them by the people they are supposed to be able to count on the most. 70% of these youth identify family rejection as the reason they are in these predicaments.

Parents will still have the right to express how they feel. Enough parents will continue to express their disapproval of their LGBTQ+ child(ren) without continuing to allow licensed professionals and educators to use their positions of influence to bring more trauma to the lives of youth still in the midst of discovering who they are. I'm in support of SB70, and I hope you are too.

Committee and Honourable Chair,

My name is Andria (Andi) Kirk, I am 17, I am a Junior in high school, I am a part of the LGBTQ community, and I am strongly in favour of SB 270 to ban conversion therapy.

When I was 12 I first realised that I was attracted to girls. I got my first girlfriend when I was 13 and didn't come out to my parents until 6 months later. At the time I feared the idea of rejection at the hands of my family and would often have nightmares of being kicked out of the house, or even worse sent away to conversion therapy. When I finally came out to my family my father was confused yet accepting, but my mother was not. Behind my fathers back she would often talk about her many sexual encounters with men, how wrong I was for being gay, and she threatened multiple times to send me to conversion therapy if I didn't admit to her it was a phase. Because of this and other abusive encounters with my mother my father, brother, and I put a restraining order against her and my father soon got a divorce.

This is a tame example of what LGBTQ children have to go through after coming out to unsupportive parents. I am lucky to have a supportive family surrounding me now, but others aren't as fortunate. My friend, a trans girl who does good in school and is a practicing Christian is often faced with mental and verbal abuse from her family and has admitted that if she was ever sent to conversion therapy she would kill herself.

According to the American Academy of of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry:

“such “conversion therapies” (or other interventions imposed with the intent of promoting a particular sexual orientation and/or gender as a preferred outcome) lack scientific credibility and clinical utility. Additionally, there is evidence that such interventions are harmful. As a result, “conversion therapies” should not be part of any behavioral health treatment of children and adolescents” (aacap.org, approved by the council of February 2018). Many other psychological organizations agree with this information. This “therapy” is disguised as help when in reality it's a program to conform children and adolescents to one's political or religious beliefs. Therapy or rehabilitation for for the purpose of conformity is no longer considered therapy, but instead brainwashing.

The abuse that goes on during conversion therapy consists of promoting shame, denial, and self-hatred. In mild cases “talk therapy” is used to belittle, mock, or deny the child's feelings, but in extreme cases it has been reported that physical abuse has been used. In ancient Hawai'i the once treasured and worshipped Mahu's and Aikane faced similar types of abuse and even death at the hands of Westerners. We don't want a similar fate for our children in Hawai'i especially at the hands of our government, our communities, or our families. That is why it is important to pass SB 270 so that we can prevent abuse at the hands of strangers and promote a safer environment for children and adolescents in Hawaii.

Thank you.

Comments:

Good afternoon, my name is Melodie Aduja. I serve as Chair of the Oahu County Committee ("OCC") Legislative Priorities Committee of the Democratic Party of Hawaii. Thank you for the opportunity to provide written testimony on SB270 SD1 HD1 relating to Sexual Orientation Change Efforts; Conversion Therapy; Prohibition; Minors; and Licensed Professionals.

The OCC Legislative Priorities Committee is in favor of SB270 SD1 HD1 and supports its passage.

SB270 SD1 HD1 is in alignment with the Platform of the Democratic Party of Hawai'i ("DPH"), 2016, as it prohibits specific state-licensed persons who are licensed to provide professional counseling from engaging in, attempting to engage in, or advertising sexual orientation change efforts on persons under eighteen years of age.

The DPH Platform states that "[w]e support the passage and enforcement of laws banning both medical and therapeutic treatments for the purpose of forcing sexual orientation, and gender identity and gender expression conversions, such as conversion therapy (aka reparative therapy), for minors and adults at the State and Federal level. We believe that everyone should have the opportunity to live a true and authentic self.(Platform of the DPH, PP. 7-8, Lines 389-392 (2016)).

Given that SB270 SD1 HD1 prohibits specific state-licensed persons who are licensed to provide professional counseling from engaging in, attempting to engage in, or advertising sexual orientation change efforts on persons under eighteen years of age, it is the position of the OCC Legislative Priorities Committee to support this measure.

Thank you very much for your kind consideration.

Sincerely yours,

Gay conversion therapy has no standard way of going about it. Kids are being forced to be sepreated from there parents, friends and loved ones and even tortured. Gay lonliness is a serious issue that is going on and gay conversion therapy is just feeding into self hard, suicides and drug abuse among gay and lesbian youth alike. Chair and members of the Judiciary Committee,

I am Maecia Linville testifying in strong support of SB270SD1HD1.

This bill is sorely needed to prevent great harm to the children of Hawaii. The belief that you can alter someone's sexual bias by "therapy" has been disproved by years of example, and hundreds of damaged lives. It was based on parental wishful thinking and the fear that their child would suffer if they were known as "different". That fear was justified in the past, when being known as a homosexual would get you thrown in jail or killed. That is not true today. Being LGBT is not easy, but they no longer throw you in jail. Parents can now give their children the support they need. However, there are still people whose cultural beliefs will cause them to act in a way which will cause lasting damage to their child. That is why this bill is needed.

I am your support for SB270SD1HD1

Re: Testimony of the ACLU of Hawai'i in Support of S.B. 270, S.D. 1 H.D. 1, Relating to Minors

Dear Chair Nishimoto, Vice Chair San Buenaventura, and Committee Members:

The American Civil Liberties Union of Hawai'i writes in support of S.B. 270, S.D. 1 H.D. 1, which prohibits licensed professional counselors from engaging or offering to engage in "sexual orientation change efforts" on minors.

So-called "therapies" to change a person's sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression are based on the long-discredited notion that being gay, lesbian, bisexual, or transgender is a mental disorder in need of a "cure." Historically, these therapies have perpetuated and legitimized state-sanctioned discrimination against gay men, lesbians, bisexuals, and transgender individuals. Through S.B. 270, S.D. 1 H.D. 1, Hawai'i seeks to codify the widespread consensus in the mental health profession that "therapy" to change a person's sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression is not efficacious, poses a risk of serious harm, and is unethical. The measure serves both to protect minors and to avoid state sanction of harmful and discriminatory professional practices.

We note, however, that technically this bill prohibits not only sexual orientation change efforts, but also efforts to change someone's gender identity or expression—which is different from someone's sexual orientation. Thus, we respectfully request that to avoid future confusion and misunderstanding, the bill be amended to use the proper terminology by replacing "sexual orientation change efforts" with "conversion therapy," which includes both efforts to change someone's sexual orientation and efforts to change someone's gender identity or expression, throughout the bill. If this technical amendment cannot be made at this time, we respectfully request that the issue be referenced in the Committee report and considered in conference.

The ACLU of Hawai'i respectfully request that your Committee pass S.B. 270, S.D.1 H.D. 1, with the suggested technical amendment. Thank you for the opportunity to testify.

I am submitting testimony in STRONG SUPPORT of SB270

I am a licensed mental health professional and have been a mental health therapist for over 40 years. Additionally, I am an active member of the American Psychological Association (APA), The American Mental Health Counselors Association (AMHCA), and the American Counseling Association (ACA).

It is neither wise nor even possible to turn a gay person straight. "Conversion therapy" is not based on science, and there is no statistical track record that it works. Medical professionals have warned that it can cause depression.

Psychoanalytic technique does not encompass purposeful attempts to convert, repair, change or shift an individual's sexual orientation, gender identity or gender expression. Such directed efforts are against fundamental principles of psychoanalytic treatment and often result in substantial psychological pain by reinforcing damaging internalized attitudes". So-called "conversion therapy" has been denounced by every mainstream medical and mental health association, including the American Medical Association and American Psychological Association. Youth in the child welfare and juvenile justice systems may be especially vulnerable to these practices. Some researchers estimate that as many as one-third of LGBT youth may encounter these practices in some form.

There is an overwhelming scientific consensus that these practices have no scientific basis, contradict the modern scientific understanding of sexual orientation, and put young people at risk of serious harm, including severe depression and suicide. In addition to harming youth directly, the therapists who engage in these practices prevent parents from obtaining accurate information about their child's sexual orientation and gender identity, including the critical importance of family acceptance and support to a child's long term health and wellbeing.

There is no evidence that sexual orientation can be altered through therapy, and that attempts to do so can be harmful. There is no empirical evidence adult homosexuality can be prevented if gender nonconforming children are influenced to be more gender conforming. Indeed, there is no medically valid basis for attempting to prevent homosexuality, which is not an illness. On the contrary, such efforts may encourage family rejection and undermine self-esteem, connectedness and caring, important protective factors against suicidal ideation and attempts. Given that there is no evidence that efforts to alter sexual orientation are effective, beneficial or necessary, and the possibility that they carry the risk of significant harm, such interventions are contraindicated.

“Conversion therapy” has no grounding in mainstream medicine. It is a pseudoscience—junk science. This is why it has been condemned by such groups as the American Psychological Association (APA) and the American Medical Association (AMA). Dr. Jack Drescher, a New York psychiatrist who has written extensively about the “conversion therapy” movement, says that most of its practitioners are religious counselor, most of them are unlicensed and all base their treatment on theories that are scientifically unsound.

Relating to the Minors

Aloha, Chair Nishimoto and Vice Chair San Buenaventura,

I support the intent of Senate Bill 270, House Draft 1, and respectfully offer these comments.

Hawai'i can join a growing coalition of states and municipalities – including California, Nevada, Oregon, New Mexico, Rhode Island, and Vermont – and ban licensed mental health professionals from subjecting individuals to “conversion therapy” with this bill’s passage.

I note that on March 3, 2018 the Washington State Legislature passed Senate Bill 5722, a bill that also bans licensed therapists from practicing conversion therapy on minors. I would encourage the committee to review the Washington legislation and consider following its approach and use the term “conversion therapy” in lieu of the term “sexual orientation change efforts” so that the law properly encompasses gender identity and gender expression in addition to sexual orientation. Therapy seeking to change sexual orientation is not inclusive of an effort to change gender identity or expression in medical or psychological circles. The Washington legislation recognized this. We should do the same.

Thank you for the opportunity to provide testimony in support of Senate Bill 270, H.D. 1. I ask the Committee to favorably consider this measure to protect our keiki.

Re: S.B. 270, SD1, HD1 Relating to Minors

Testimony of Josephine Chang on S.B. 270, SD1, HD in Support w/further amendments

I am in full support of prohibiting conversion therapy on minors that would include practices or treatments that seek to change an individual's sexual orientation or to change an individual's gender identity. S.B. 270, SD1, HD1 states that its purpose is to protect transgender youth, as well as lesbian, gay, and bisexual (LGB) youth from conversion therapy efforts. However, the use in this bill of the term "sexual orientation change efforts" as an umbrella terminology that is meant to protect transgender youths' gender identities as well as LGB youths' sexual orientations is the wrong terminology to use.

Transgender youths' suffer from "gender identity change efforts", and those efforts are not the same as "sexual orientation change efforts". Gender identity and sexual orientation are different aspects of people, and gender identity is not the same as nor simply a part of sexual orientation, as the definition of "sexual orientation change efforts" in this bill presents. The conflation of gender identity change efforts under the term "sexual orientation change efforts" is simply incorrect, would do a disservice to transgender persons, and would create erroneous and confusing law that would be difficult to enforce.

Therefore I am recommending that the bill be retitled "conversion therapy" and that it define "conversion therapy" as including "sexual orientation change efforts" and "gender identity change efforts", making it clear that these are two distinct kinds of conversion efforts that are prohibited by this bill. This would not be a substantive change but would make a very important distinction between sexual orientation and gender identity that is so important to those who struggle to have society understand and recognize their gender identity and the particular risks they suffer from discrimination against their gender identities. This bill needs to present gender identity change efforts correctly, in order to equally highlight the importance of protecting youths' gender identity as well as their sexual orientations.

I am also providing here some resources that show that sexual orientation and gender identity are two distinct aspects of human sexuality and gender identity, as defined by medical and mental health authorities. See for example, the definitions in "Sexual orientation and adolescents", Journal of the American Academy of Pediatrics, at: <http://pediatrics.aappublications.org/content/pediatrics/113/6/1827.full.pdf> , and "Key Terms and Concepts in Understanding Gender Diversity and Sexual Orientation Among Students" developed by the American Psychological Association, at: <https://www.apa.org/pi/lgbt/programs/safe-supportive/lgbt/key-terms.pdf>.

I am also including here the link to the model legislation that was developed by the National Center on Lesbian Rights, an organization that is in the forefront of assisting states in developing their conversion therapy legislation (See “Sample Legislation to Protect Youth from Conversion Therapy”, at http://www.nclrights.org/wp-content/uploads/2015/10/SampleAntiConversionTherapyBill\_2016-1.pdf. In this “Sample Legislation,” you will see a highly regarded draft legislation with the correct use of terminology, and also will find more justification for prohibiting both sexual orientation and gender identity conversion therapy than is currently in SB 270, SD1,1 HD. Additionally, a review of the increasing number of states that adopted laws to prohibit conversion therapy in recent years shows that the erroneous conflation of sexual orientation and gender identity in such laws is not used.

I would also like to emphasize that there is a clear need to prohibit conversion therapy as ineffective and harmful to youth that is fully documented in the 2015 federal Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) report, “Ending Conversion Therapy: Supporting and Affirming LGBTQ Youth” at: <https://store.samhsa.gov/shin/content/SMA15-4928/SMA15-4928.pdf> (see also the definitions of terms in the Glossary in the appendix of this report, that further demonstrates shows the error in the use of “sexual orientation change efforts” in SB 270, SD1, HD1.) Hawaii needs a law prohibiting conversion therapy on youth but needs a law that is correctly stated.

I ask your Kokua in making the necessary changes to SB 270, SD1, HD1 and hearing the voices of so many lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender youth who are also looking to all of you to protect them, who are too often placed in unbearable situations of sexual orientation change therapies and gender identity change therapies. Please amend this bill and give it your full support.

With much appreciation,

Chair Nishimoto and Committee Members:

I strongly oppose SB 270, SD1, HD1 on the grounds that:

___ Our state should respect and affirm the autonomy of all persons to choose counseling in accordance with their own personal desires, inner convictions, and faith.

___ Preventing a person who is unhappy with his or her construction of self from seeking desired treatment is oppressive, particularly if it is an abused minor.

___ All persons, including minors, should be able to choose licensed professional counseling and therapy that would help them freely discuss and resolve inner conflict related to unwanted same sex attraction or gender identity.

___ I support the right of all persons to determine their own direction in treatment concerning sexuality.

___ I support the right of parents to employ licensed counselors who support their values and goals.

___ I support the right of all counselors to express their views on sexuality and to not be censored by the state for using words to help their patients reach their own desired goals.

___ With the understandable exceptions of imminent risk for suicide, homicide, or child or elder abuse, all counseling is legally confidential and should remain uninhibited so that counselors and their clients may be transparent for the sake of the professional relationship and trust that is needed to work through issues.

I urge you to vote no and do not pass SB 270 at the hearing.

Dear Representatives;

I am so distressed about the substance of SB 270 SD1 and implore you to oppose this devastating bill.

While I am sure the intent of the senators who introduced the bill and passed it is well meaning, the effects will be detrimental to families which is the basis of healthy children. This bill undermines parental influence and aid to their children, as well as silences and restricts many professional counselors who believe they can help adolescents through these very challenging long-term, life decisions.

Sadly, our senators, in their efforts to protect our children, may in fact be doing them great harm. According to Dr. Michelle A. Cretella, president of the American College of Pediatricians, “Transgender ideology has created widespread child abuse.”

Following are excerpts from an article written by her:

July 10, 2017 (LifeSiteNews) — Transgender politics have taken Americans by surprise, and caught some lawmakers off guard.

But transgender ideology is not just infecting our laws. It is intruding into the lives of the most innocent among us — children — and with the apparent growing support of the professional medical community.

As explained in my 2016 peer reviewed article, “Gender Dysphoria in Children and Suppression of Debate,” professionals who dare to question the unscientific party line of supporting gender transition therapy will find themselves maligned and out of a job.

I speak as someone intimately familiar with the pediatric and behavioral health communities and their practices. I am a mother of four who served 17 years as a board certified general pediatrician with a focus in child behavioral health prior to leaving clinical practice in 2012.

For the last 12 years, I have been a board member and researcher for the American College of Pediatricians, and for the last three years I have served as its president.

I also sat on the board of directors for the Alliance for Therapeutic Choice and Scientific Integrity from 2010 to 2015. This organization of physicians and mental health professionals defends the right of patients to receive psychotherapy for sexual identity conflicts that is in line with their deeply held values based upon science and medical ethics.

I have witnessed an upending of the medical consensus on the nature of gender identity. What doctors once treated as a mental illness, the medical community now largely affirms and even promotes as normal.

Here's a look at some of the changes.

The New Normal

Pediatric “gender clinics” are considered elite centers for affirming children who are distressed by their biological sex. This distressful condition, once dubbed gender identity disorder, was renamed “gender dysphoria” in 2013.

In 2014, there were 24 of these gender clinics, clustered chiefly along the east coast and in California. One year later, there were 40 across the nation.

With 215 pediatric residency programs now training future pediatricians in a transition-affirming protocol and treating gender-dysphoric children accordingly, gender clinics are bound to proliferate further.

Last summer, the federal government stated that it would not require Medicare and Medicaid to cover transition-affirming procedures for children or adults because medical experts at the Department of Health and Human Services found the risks were often too high, and the benefits too unclear.

Undeterred by these findings, the World Professional Association for Transgender Health has pressed ahead, claiming — without any evidence — that these procedures are “safe.”

Two leading pediatric associations — the American Academy of Pediatrics and the Pediatric Endocrine Society — have followed in lockstep, endorsing the transition affirmation approach even as the latter organization concedes within its own guidelines that the transition-affirming protocol is based on low evidence.

They even admit that the only strong evidence regarding this approach is its potential health risks to children.

The transition-affirming approach has been embraced by public institutions in media, education, and our legal system, and is now recommended by most national medical organizations.

There are exceptions to this movement, however, in addition to the American College of Pediatricians and the Alliance for Therapeutic Choice. These include the Association of American Physicians and Surgeons, the Christian Medical & Dental Associations, the Catholic Medical Association, and the LGBT-affirming Youth Gender Professionals.

The transgender movement has gained legs in the medical community and in our culture by offering a deeply flawed narrative. The scientific research and facts tell a different story.

Bottom Line: Transition-Affirming Protocol Is Child Abuse

The crux of the matter is that while the transition-affirming movement purports to help children, it is inflicting a grave injustice on them and their nondysphoric peers.

These professionals are using the myth that people are born transgender to justify engaging in massive, uncontrolled, and unconsented experimentation on children who have a psychological condition that would otherwise resolve after puberty in the vast majority of cases.

Today's institutions that promote transition affirmation are pushing children to impersonate the opposite sex, sending many of them down the path of puberty blockers, sterilization, the removal of healthy body parts, and untold psychological damage.

These harms constitute nothing less than institutionalized child abuse. Sound ethics demand an immediate end to the use of pubertal suppression, cross-sex hormones, and sex reassignment surgeries in children and adolescents, as well as an end to promoting gender ideology via school curricula and legislative policies.

For the full article see:

Also, as you ponder this bill please consider Walt Heyer's life story:

“Living in a self-made gender fantasy world void of reality is not psychologically or emotionally healthy. I know that to be true. I was transgender kid at the age of 4. For decades, as I tried to live in my male birth gender, the feelings of being a woman only grew stronger.

I sought help from a renowned gender specialist who told me that mine was a clear-cut case of gender dysphoria—strong, persistent feelings of identification with the opposite gender and discomfort with one's own assigned sex. He said the only way to get relief was to surgically change genders. I underwent gender reassignment surgery at 42 years of age after cross-dressing for most of my life.

I lived as a transgender, Laura Jensen, female, for eight years. While studying psychology in a university program, I discovered that trans kids most often are suffering from a variety of disorders, starting with depression—the result of personal loss, broken families, sexual abuse, and unstable homes. Deep depression leads kids to want to be someone other than who they are.

That information sure resonated with me. Finally, I had discovered the madness of the transgender life. It is a fabrication born of mental disorders.

I only wish that when I went to the gender counselor for help he would have told me I couldn't really change genders, that it is biologically impossible. Instead, he approved me for gender reassignment surgery, a surgery that, if I had been provided proper psychotherapy, would never have been necessary or appropriate.

The transgender life is often the direct result of early childhood difficulty or trauma. Assisting a young child into the fabricated ideology of a transgender life is not helping the child sort out what is real and what is fiction.

The likelihood that the child ... suffering from separation anxiety or some other psychological disorder cannot be ignored. Separation anxiety disorder and other psychological disorders can masquerade as gender dysphoria, leading caregivers and medical practitioners to misdiagnose and not provide proper or effective psychotherapies.

Thankfully, like me, many transgender persons return to the gender they once shed. Slowly they restore the life that was lost.” <http://dailysignal.com/2016/02/16/i-used-to-be-transgender-heres-my-take-on-kids-who-think-they-are-transgender>

Sadly, Walt Heyer lost a lifetime because of wrong psychological diagnosis, therapy and surgery. How many of our keiki will lose a lifetime because counselors will be prohibited from making correct diagnosis and therapies due to SB 270 SD1?

Please oppose SB 270 SD1. Vote no.

Dear Representative Nishimoto and the Committee on the Judiciary,

I am offering my strongest endorsement on SB 270. While this bill bars licensed persons who are licensed to provide professional counseling in the practice of conversion therapy, conversion therapy comes in all forms including shaming. Many organizations practice other forms of conversion therapy through an unlicensed individual. This practice has led to the deaths of many LGBTQ keiki. I hope that this bill will lead to future initiatives that would not only end all forms of conversion therapy but provide a change in the hearts and mind of parents and guardians of LGBTQ keiki.

Having gone through the painful trials of discovering my sexuality and difficulting excepting who I am, the pain and agony of being forced to undergo extreme psychological trauma to "fix" who I am would have only put me at higher risk for more significant physical and emotional injury. The views of one's parents do not need to be the views of the child, and the protection of these children, like the protection reserved to them in the event of physical abuse, should extend to conversion therapy as well. Please pass this bill as it will continue the fight for a more just society.

To all:

The professional consensus behind this bill is solid. This bill is necessary to prevent licensed professional counselors from engaging in emotional and psychological abuse of minors. Please pass it.

Although some of those who presented testimony against this bill think that it covers parents and religious leaders, obviously, from reading the text, it does not. Both parents and religious leaders can continue to gaslight and emotionally and psychologically abuse minor children about their gender identity and orientation. They can bring all the weight of their parental or religious authority to bear to make kids miserable, perhaps even suicidal. This bill does not prevent that. I suppose if the kids survive into adulthood, a certain amount of alienation from their abusers will ensue.

The professional counselors, however, should not indulge in this nonsensical, unscientific, abusive behavior. They deserve to be negatively sanctioned if they do.

If I had more time, I would write at greater length. Please excuse these brief remarks.

Please pass this bill. Thank you.

Re: Strong Opposition to SB 270 SD1 HD1

Dear Chair Nishimoto, Vice Chair San Buenaventura and Members of the House Judiciary Committee:

I am a practicing attorney, and possess a graduate degree in Counseling. I testify in strong opposition to SB 270 SD1 HD1.

There are different medical opinions on both sides of this debate. It is unfortunate that many legislators are choosing to ignore compelling medical testimony and evidence in support of talk therapy for those children with unwanted sexual attractions. Please review the testimony and articles of Dr. Michelle Cretella, President of the American College of Pediatricians, as well as those of her colleagues. Further, I submit the following for your consideration.

1. Parents have the fundamental constitutional right to direct the care, upbringing and education of their children. The U.S. Supreme stated in Prince v. Massachusetts, 321 U.S. 158 (1944) that “It is cardinal with us that the custody, care and nurture of the child reside first in the parents, whose primary function and freedom include preparation for obligations the state can neither supply nor hinder.” See also Meyer v. Nebraska, 262 U.S. 390 (1923) (“It is the natural duty of the parents to give his children education suitable to their station in life.”); Pierce v. Soc’y of Sisters, 268 U.S. 510 (1925) (“The child is not the mere creature of the State; those who nurture him and direct his destiny the right coupled with the high duty to recognize and prepare him for additional obligations. . .”)

When a child is going through personal struggles, the parents who know the child better than the government should decide what is the best course of medical, psychological or psychiatric treatment for the child, not the state.

Therapy bans are discriminatory because they deny some parents their right to employ therapists who support their goals and values.

Parents and their children can get counseling for unwanted depression and unwanted anxiety but the ban prohibits a therapist from treating children with an unwanted same sex attraction.

It is unfortunate that the child must wait until he/she is an adult to get the type of desired treatment or to have to spend a great deal of money to travel out of state to receive the treatment he/she desires. This bill is unfair to the poor.

2. As drafted, the bill seems unconstitutionally overbroad and appears to ban treating minors with other types of sexual orientation that involves criminal or harmful sexual behavior, such as pedophilia, zoophilia, and necrophilia. Surely, a child who molests young children or is sexually attracted to animals or dead people should be able to receive therapy/counseling.

Note: Bestiality/zoophilia is becoming more acceptable with the recent the Academy Awards for best picture involving bestiality. Another film involving pedophilia received an award as well.

3. The bill appears to be unconstitutionally vague. The bill appears to be vague in that it fails to define what aspect of conversion therapy is unacceptable. Haven't harmful practices of the past to treat mental illness such as ice baths, shock therapy, lobotomies and vomit-inducing drugs been discredited and are no longer used? Are there not disciplinary guidelines that therapist must adhere to in order to treat patients? Is it the intention of the legislature/state to now regulate simple talk therapy to patients? If so, that is unfortunate indeed.

Patients can file complaints against their therapists if they have been harmed by the treatment, without the State having to specify, limit or prohibit certain types of treatment. Are there many (or any) complaints in the state against therapists for conversion therapy? If not, then such a bill is not needed.

4. Talk therapy works for those desiring to change.

Dr. Nicholas Cummings (former President of the APA) said: "Of the patients I oversaw who sought to change their orientation, hundreds were successful. But contending that all same-sex attraction is immutable is a distortion of reality. Attempting to characterize all sexual reorientation therapy as 'unethical' violates patient choice and gives an outside party a veto over patients' goals for their own treatment. A political agenda shouldn't prevent gays and lesbians who desire to change from making their own decisions."<sup>1</sup>

Importantly, according to Dr. Michelle Cretella, studies strongly demonstrate that "80-95% of adolescents outgrow gender dysphoria.<sup>2</sup> Access to therapy to help these children resolve gender dysphoria should not be stigmatized or, worse yet, banned—these children need access to basic talk therapy."

5. Children have a right to treatment for unwanted same sex attraction, particularly those who have been abused. Sometimes children who have been the victims of sexual abuse struggle with sexual orientation or gender dysphoria issues. If a therapist is treating a minor for sexual abuse, and months later, the patient begins talking about unwanted same sex attractions or gender dysphoria, the bill appears to deny treatment to the child, despite the child's pain, depression, anxiety, self-loathing thoughts and actions (such as cutting, suicide ideation, excessive rage, and so on), even when there is a causal connection between the abuse and same sex desires and/or gender dysphoria.
6. The bill violates the First Amendment rights of therapists. The bill infringes on the constitutional rights of therapists to express their views on sexuality and to express words that would help alleviate a patient of certain unwanted same sex desires, gender dysphoria, and so on. It is an unconstitutional viewpoint discrimination.
7. A task force of therapists, attorneys and physicians from both sides of the issue should be appointed to research and present its findings to the Legislature. Suicide rates among transgender people are about 41%. Has the Legislature reviewed sufficient scientific evidence that suicides in the LGBT community have decreased as a result of state legislatures passing bans on conversion therapy? If not, the ban should not pass. For more information see some of the rebuttals below against the conversion therapy ban by prominent physician, Dr. Michelle A. Cretella.
8. Strong Rebuttals to Advocates of Conversion Therapy Ban By A Prominent Physician. Michelle Cretella, M.D., is president of the American College of Pediatricians, a national organization of pediatricians and other health care professionals dedicated to the health and well-being of children. She wrote an article published on Jul 3, 2017 that rebuts some of the troubling assumptions made by medical professionals as there is insufficient evidence for their positions: See link: <http://dailysignal.com/2017/07/03/im-pediatrician-transgender-ideology-infiltrated-field-produced-large-scale-child-abuse/>.

“Even the American Psychological Association’s Handbook of Sexuality and Psychology admits that prior to the widespread promotion of transition affirmation, 75 to 95 percent of pre-pubertal children who were distressed by their biological sex eventually outgrew that distress. The vast majority came to accept their biological sex by late adolescence after passing naturally through puberty.”

Dr. Cretella further states: “There is no proof that affirmation prevents suicide in children.”

Advocates of the transition-affirming protocol allege that suicide is the direct and inevitable consequence of withholding social affirmation and biological alterations from a gender-dysphoric child. In other words, those who do not endorse the transition-affirming protocol are essentially condemning gender-dysphoric children to suicide.

Yet as noted earlier, prior to the widespread promotion of transition affirmation, 75 to 95 percent of gender-dysphoric youth ended up happy with their biological sex after simply passing through puberty.

*In addition, contrary to the claim of activists, there is no evidence that harassment and discrimination, let alone lack of affirmation, are the primary cause of suicide among any minority group. In fact, at least one study from 2008 found perceived discrimination by LGBT-identified individuals not to be causative.

Over 90 percent of people who commit suicide have a diagnosed mental disorder, and there is no evidence that gender-dysphoric children who commit suicide are any different. Many gender dysphoric children simply need therapy to get to the root of their depression, which very well may be the same problem triggering the gender dysphoria”.*

“Bottom Line: Transition-Affirming Protocol Is Child Abuse

The crux of the matter is that while the transition-affirming movement purports to help children, it is inflicting a grave injustice on them and their nondysphoric peers.

These professionals are using the myth that people are born transgender to justify engaging in massive, uncontrolled, and unconsented experimentation on children who have a psychological condition that would otherwise resolve after puberty in the vast majority of cases.

Today’s institutions that promote transition affirmation are pushing children to impersonate the opposite sex, sending many of them down the path of puberty blockers, sterilization, the removal of healthy body parts, and untold psychological damage.

These harms constitute nothing less than institutionalized child abuse. Sound ethics demand an immediate end to the use of pubertal suppression, cross-sex hormones, and sex reassignment surgeries in children and adolescents, as well as an end to promoting gender ideology via school curricula and legislative policies.

It is time for our nation's leaders and the silent majority of health professionals to learn exactly what is happening to our children, and unite to take action."

In light of these valid points and the evidence, why is our Legislature banning a certain type of therapy for minors? Fortunately, most states have rejected a ban on conversion therapy.

9. Many adults have changed with good therapy. Many adults have received treatment, and have successfully left the LGBT life. They are happy and contented with their choices, and live fulfilled lives. One of them is Walt Heyer. Visit: <http://www.thepublicdiscourse.com/2015/04/14688/> or <http://www.sexchangeregret.com/>. Another well-known former gay man is Dr. Christopher Yuan. And there are many more on youtube and other websites (google it). Please give the youth the same opportunity to get the therapy they desire for their unwanted sexual attractions as we give to adults.

For the foregoing reasons, please vote against the SB 270 SD1 HD 1. Thank you for this opportunity to express my concerns.

Very truly yours,

Sandra Young

If this bill becomes law, counseling that encourages minors to change their gender -- even to go through irreversible sex-change operations -- would be protected by the state. But counseling to help them accept their birth sex would be outlawed.

Mathew Shurka – April 4, 2018

SB270 – Relating to Minors.

Ten years ago I knew exactly I what I wanted in life. There was not a single constraint that could have stopped me from all the possibilities that lay before me. In the summer of 2004 I fell in love with a boy for the first time. Love is the human experience which drives us all. The licensed professional who attempted to treat me out of my homosexuality told me I suffered from an obsessive behavior/ addiction, and that there is no such thing as love between two men, nor such a thing as homosexuality. He knew better, right? When I was 16 years old, I told my father about my attraction to other boys. My father countered my statement, pointing out that I had dated girls. I explained to him that my attraction toward women never rivaled my attraction toward men. As I tried to describe my sexual orientation, I confessed to him that I had strong feelings for a boy I knew from my hometown. My father couldn't have given me a better answer as I wept and told him about my fears of possibly being humiliated at school and about my confusion around my feelings for this particular boy. He told me he loved me no matter what and would be there by my side always. His words comforted me; those words made me trust that he had my best interest in mind.

That following week, my father consulted my mother and two sisters. He feared what could happen to me if I grew up to live a life as a gay man living the "gay lifestyle." At the time, my parents knew very little of the gay community. There was not one gay member of my family and not one openly gay person in my town to relate to, or none that they knew of. My mother felt naive about the issue and thought it best to just leave me be. She was able to accept me as I was, whatever my orientation might be. My father, however, could not let go of his fears. He met with a dozen therapists -- some gay, some straight, and some who practiced "conversion" therapy. When my father offered me the idea of seeing a therapist who could possibly help me overcome "living the gay lifestyle," I was willing to try it. The idea that I might not actually be gay or might be able to resist my attraction to other boys was a relief. If it worked, I would never have to face my fears of coming out or being humiliated and rejected by society. My father's eagerness to get me "help" fed my fears that maybe my father wouldn't accept me if I did not at least try to change.

I would not describe my family as religious, so I can't blame these fears on religious convictions. We were more of a traditional Jewish family. My father's fears were based in the belief that our society is not very accepting of gay men and that a gay lifestyle would interfere with my ability to live my life to the fullest capacity. My father figured: if there really is something to this so-called "conversion therapy" and there is a possibility that his son may be truly straight, perhaps just suffering from a delusion, then why not give it a try? So I did. I went to therapy because I wanted my family's approval, and because I feared being rejected by society.

I began my five years of "conversion" therapy among four different therapists. The first who attempted to "help" seemed ineffective as he searched for my "disconnect" with my masculinity. My father then received another recommendation through an organization known as JONAH (Jews Offering New Alternatives to Homosexuality). I was recommended to a therapist known in the industry of "conversion" therapists as "one of the best." I will refer to him as

"John" to keep his name anonymous. My father and I met with John first. Even though the recommendation came from JONAH, John was Christian, and as I learned over time, all religious figures worked together in supporting "conversion" therapy for their youth. John was a university professor with his own practice. He believed I would be an easy case considering my age and the fact that I had not been involved in many sexual experiences with men at that point. He believed that I would start to see results in as few as six weeks.

“Conversion” therapists believe there is no such thing as being gay. As the theory goes, men experience these attractions because they are suffering from a condition, not because they are gay. “Conversion” therapists call this condition “a void in their masculinity.” They believe this “condition” is triggered by and rooted in early childhood experiences. These experiences can be as subtle as a father and his son not getting along or an overbearing mother, but can be attributed to something as severe as a child being raped or molested by an elder. From this broad range of experiences, the young man supposedly creates this so-called void in his own masculinity. They neither feel as though they belong with the other boys, nor do they feel close to their father. When the young boy reaches his age of puberty this void becomes sexualized and the young man will seek “homosexual” activity to fill this void. Conversion therapists call this SSA, short for “Same-Sex Attraction.” The condition and symptoms that these young men “suffer” from (sexual and romantic attraction to other young men) is actually just their psyche attempting to fill the void. Young gay men then grow to become adults, spending their entire lives seeking homosexual activities in order to heal their wounds from childhood. This is then posed as the dramatic, loveless, and lonely life “conversion therapists” are here to save you from.

To cure a person of homosexuality, conversion therapists believe the young boy needs to be saturated with “healthy” male bonding. By healthy I mean nonsexual. This bonding takes place to fill the void the young man is experiencing. Through this supposedly natural process of male-bonding, the young man will start to regain his attractions for the opposite sex. These therapists believe that attraction to the opposite gender is natural and innate, and as such, those attractions will return as the healing of the psyche is completed.

When I began my therapy with John, I was subjected to this saturation of male-bonding and was told to avoid having relationships with the girls at school. As my father consulted with the therapist they believed it also was wise for me to limit any conversations or interactions with my mother and sisters.

Because of this theory, I had minimal to no conversation with my mother and sisters for two years, as advised by my therapist. I lived with my mother and father, while my older sisters lived on their own.

Never in my life had I gone without talking to my mother and sisters. Every morning I woke up to find that my mother had made me breakfast, but I would leave our home without even talking to her. Throughout this process I became closer to my father; it seemed as though the therapy was working as I began to experience resentment toward my mother and sisters for possibly creating this void in me. There was a constant tensions between us, yet being closer to my father meant progress.

As I feared a loveless and lonely life, I gave this therapy my most sincere efforts, my mother would at times attempt to speak to me more than the usual "good morning" and "have a nice day;" I would enforce my detachment and remain estranged. As the time went on, and as I learned how to become closer with the other boys in school, I became popular, and was beginning to fit in more than I had ever before. However, my attractions towards men never weakened. Instead, I experienced an extreme form of denial, which led to depression. Becoming popular at school became an act of living a double life. My grades began to drop significantly, I started to find ways to avoid attending school and I became ever more distant from my family. Since the therapy claimed my homosexuality may be rooted from the detachment between my father and I, I kept looking for more reasons to blame him, as I realized my attraction for boys was not 'phasing' away. First I looked for reasons to blame my mother, then more so of my father. I was running down the rabbit hole, and ironically the therapy caused me to become distant from my father, and ever more resentful toward him. All along, I was taught to use masturbation and pornography as tools to stay away from homosexuality and practice my heterosexuality. This was the loneliest time I had ever felt and I experienced constant thoughts of suicide.

When I turned 18 I began my first romantic relationship with another young man, Jacob. I was more than willing to give it try, as it was my strongest desire. I experienced a tremendous amount of guilt and shame as I shared this news with my father and my therapist. I was told by my therapist that if I wanted to stay in a gay relationship then I was welcome to do so, and that if I was ever interested in changing, that was an option as well. I never believed my therapists' intention, that it was alright for me to be in a gay relationship. The fact that there was always an option that I could change who I was implied to me there was something wrong.

I was in a constant dilemma as I fell more in love with Jacob. Constantly blaming myself, I experienced levels of anguish and anxiety. When I had told my therapist I was experiencing love, he explained I was suffering from an obsession and that it was not love. Several months into my relationship, without my knowledge and with John's permission, my father told Jacob to stay away from me for a minimum of two years. Jacob himself never knew I was seeing a 'conversion' therapist, nor did he know that I was acknowledging my sexuality to my family, for he was still closeted. For seven months I continued to receive therapy while expressing despair for my missing lover, which my therapist claimed he knew nothing about. During that time I did my best to experience sexual intercourse with women. The experiences were torturous. I was not interested and felt overwhelmed and anxious. Anxiety is not sexy, and does not have me want to participate in sexual activities. I began to experience erectile dysfunction with every woman. I felt more embarrassed as I believed it was a sign of relapse. It was then that my father, again with permission from my therapist, began to give me Viagra pills for those moments. I was only 18 years old and felt more disabled than ever before. After attempting to use Viagra pills two to three times, I eliminated all sexual activities. I no longer wanted to have sex. I felt more confused. I did not know what I liked or didn't like.

Just before my 19th birthday I learned from Jacob of my father's and John's motives to keep him away from me. I was heartbroken and enraged with anger. I immediately ended my therapy sessions with John and cut my ties with my father. I felt that I was conspired against. I no longer knew who to trust or who was "in" on controlling my life.

With my mother's support, I attempted to continue my education. I continued to see therapists, one who practiced general psychotherapy and then two who practiced "conversion" therapy. I continued to believe I failed the "conversion" therapy, and I reapplied myself. One of those "conversion" therapists was also a middle school guidance counselor. This fact deeply disturbs me: That a person of guidance for young adolescents may also be a "conversion" therapist.

I also attended "Journey into Manhood," a weekend of activities also promising to change gay men. I encountered the same feelings over and over again: I was not trying hard enough and I would live an empty life because there was no such thing as love between two people of the same gender. I gained 60 pounds during those two years as I used food to medicate my mood swings. I suffered from depression where I would not leave my apartment for days on end. The only communication I had with my family was with my mother and two sisters.

In 2009 at 21 years old, I dropped out of school, stopped seeing therapists altogether and began to work. For the next two years I became more and more comfortable with myself. I worked in an environment with other gay employees and a gay boss. I started to experience acceptance in my life for the first time. As I met supportive friends, mentors and role models, I became comfortable to come out. At age 23 in January of 2012 I came out of the closet to all my friends, family and employer. I no longer was hiding, however, I still held on to some regret, that I had maybe made a mistake by coming out as I was experiencing being openly gay for the first time.

October 2012 was the first time I heard the news of Governor Jerry Brown of California signing a ban on 'conversion' therapy for minors among licensed therapists. It was the single most affirmative action taken by a government official I had ever witnessed and experienced for myself. It gave me the clarity and acceptance I was seeking. My past no longer had to be some horrible nightmare. I'm not alone and my country is willing to take a stand for people like me and other LGBT youth.

I am in support of the "conversion" therapy ban for minors among licensed therapists in New York State. I have always known who I am and who I am attracted to. During my adolescence I did not get to experience embracing my sexuality and experiencing love without hesitation. I lost years of what would have been time spent with my family and loved ones, on my education and on my career. I am 25 today, a full-time student for the first time since high school -- no longer using the imagery of pornography to find my heterosexual self, no longer estranged from my parents' love, and no longer fearing the world. A lot of work has been put into my "conversion" therapy.

I've discovered something I already knew: I know exactly what I want in life and I have every possibility ahead of me. What makes today different is my peace of mind. Being alive today to tell you my story is a miracle of its own.

In 1973 the American Psychiatric Association declassified homosexuality as a disease. Since then numerous organizations have nonetheless attempted to "cure" gay people. To this day I've never met a single person who has been changed. The closest I've come across is abstinence. I believe it is necessary for government to enforce this ban. Allowing this bill to pass will protect minors from undergoing so-called "conversion" therapy. It will have parents think twice before considering taking a child to a "conversion" therapist. It will help parents accept their children and do what is best for them, along with the medical and educational professionals who adolescents seek throughout their childhood. There is no scientific basis for "conversion" therapy. There is not a single school or university that includes "conversion" therapy in their curriculum in the United States, and there is an enormous amount of evidence of the horrifying impact it has had on its patients. I believe it is a complete outrage that recent graduates with a license in psychotherapy have the right to advertise themselves as a creditable person to conduct "conversion" therapy. It is out of line with the entirety of accepted psychological practice and our educational standards. It is also complete misinformation to the consumer seeking psychological help.

Thank you for providing me with the opportunity to share my experience with you. I share this appreciation and honor of my story with great triumph over my past. I am requesting that the legislators of Hawaii take it upon themselves to approve this bill, to protect our youth from psychological and physical harm, protect the standards and integrity of the medical and educational system, and lastly to end the notion that homosexuality is a disease. Affirming the APA's declassification from 1973 will bring our society closer to ending homophobia and will support bringing love and acceptance to all Americans. Your time and efforts are greatly appreciated, and the consideration for this bill has my upmost gratitude.

Thank You,

Mathew Shurka

Re: Opposition to SB 270 SD1 HD1 as currently drafted

Hearing: 4/4/18 2:00pm Room 325

Thank you for the opportunity to testify. My name is Leslie Jones and as a former university instructor in Psychology at the graduate division level, as well as Director of Graduate Psychology Internships at a local university for nearly ten years, I believe it is important to offer a perspective on SB270 SD1 HD1 that I have not yet encountered in reading through the posted testimony, which is a perspective of unity. Rather than focus our efforts on the extremes that exist with such a controversial topic as conversion therapy, it seems that a more productive approach is warranted.

True scientific inquiry demands that we investigate all the relevant evidence, not just that which supports our own specific theory of events. As a result, while it is true that there have been misguided and even coercive attempts to effect change in the sexual orientation of those who did not desire such change, it is equally true that there have been compassionate and effective efforts to assist those who do desire such change, as well as successful efforts to assist those who only desire clarification of the questions involved. Therefore, to define conversion therapy as broadly as it is in this measure is to do a disservice to those mental health professionals and others such as teachers and administrators who are using their best professional skills and ethics to provide a valuable service to our youth.

We all know that questions of sexual orientation and gender identity are difficult, no matter at what age they arise and no matter what the orientation may be. It seems then that the logical and reasonable approach, especially when it comes to impressionable populations such as our youth, would be to offer them every possible support to address these challenging questions, in a compassionate and non-judgmental fashion. In addition, while it may be an unpopular topic, our teachers, administrators, and counseling professionals are on the "front lines" when it comes to handling bullying, harassment, and other discipline-related matters that can arise between students. As a result, these professionals need sufficient latitude and discretion to enable them to intervene effectively to "change the expressions and behaviors involved." It is also worth clarifying that gender identity and sexual orientation are not identical. Gender identity is often described as "who you are" while sexual orientation is described as "who you want to have sex with."

Therefore, I respectfully offer amended language to this measure which has been submitted to the Committee clerk :
(see attached)

As a colleague has testified, "while many youth can and do seek counseling as they are discovering their own sexualities, gender identities, and abilities to build meaningful relationships, that counseling should be supportive of their exploration and self-definition, not an attempt to force them along one proscribed path." I believe that the proposed amended language furthers these aims.

In closing, I agree that the intent of this measure represents an opportunity to protect Hawaii's youth, IF we take the unified perspective of doing no harm to all parties concerned. I hope that you will vote in support of the recommended amendments. Thank you again for this opportunity to testify.

Re: Opposition to SB 1201 HQT as currently drafted

Dear Mr. [Name],

Thank you for the opportunity to testify. My name is Leslie Jones and as a former university instructor in Psychology at the state level, as well as director of Graduate Psychology programs at a local university for nearly ten years, I believe I am qualified to offer a perspective on SB 1201 HQT. First, HQT has not been considered in reading through the posted testimony which is a disservice to the efforts of the experts that exist with such a controversial topic. I believe that a more productive approach is warranted.

The scientific inquiry demands that we investigate all relevant evidence, not just that which supports our own specific theory of events. As a result, while it is true that there have been rigorous and evidence-based attempts to effect change in the sexual orientation of those who do not fit the such change, it is equally true that there have been considerable and effective efforts to assist those who do desire such change, as well as suggestions to assist those who only desire education of the question involving the conversion therapy. It is also important to note that in this measure to do a disservice to the mental health professionals and other such as teachers and administrators who are using their best professional skills and efforts to provide a valuable service to our youth.

We all know that questions of sexual orientation and gender identity are difficult, no matter what the law states, but no matter what the orientation may be, it seems that the more professional support, especially when it comes to professional positions such as our youth, would be to offer them every possible support to address these challenging questions in a compassionate and non-judgmental fashion. In addition, while it may be an important topic for teachers, administrators, and counseling professionals in the "mainstream" when it comes to handling bullying harassment, and other related matters that can exist between students. As a result, these professionals need sufficient training and education to enable them to provide effectively to "change the expectations and behaviors involved". It is not worth defining that gender identity and sexual orientation are not identical, gender identity is often described as "who you are" while sexual orientation is described as "who you want to have sex with".

The state is currently offering amended language to the measure which has been submitted to the committee and (see attached).

As a colleague has testified, "while many youth can and do seek counseling, they are often young, their own identities are still forming, and it is important to build the mental relationship that counseling should be supportive of their exploration and self-definition, not an attempt to force their identity into a mold." I believe that the proposed amended language further these aims.

In closing, I hope that the intent of this measure is to provide support to all youth, and I hope that you will vote in support of the amended language. Thank you again for this opportunity to testify.
