TESTIMONY BY THOMAS WILLIAMS
EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, EMPLOYEES' RETIREMENT SYSTEM
STATE OF HAWAII

TO THE SENATE COMMITTEE ON LABOR
ON

SENATE BILL NO. 2766

January 30, 2018
2:45 P.M.
Conference Room 229

RELATING TO THE EMPLOYEES' RETIREMENT SYSTEM

Chair Tokuda, Vice Chair English and Members of the Committee,

S.B. 2766 would amend and clarify provisions of chapter 88, Hawaii Revised Statutes to clarify and limit the claim for ERS benefits to its members and beneficiaries and to protect the interests of the beneficiaries of the Employees' Retirement System ("ERS") Trust and to confirm, that as a trust fund, the assets of the ERS must be used for the exclusive benefit of its members and beneficiaries.

On July 10, 2017, the Supreme Court of the State of Hawaii issued a memorandum of opinion on an appeal of a decision by the Medical Board of the ERS. The opinion applied the ERS requirement for an employee to be disabled while "in the performance of duty" to claim for service-connected disability benefits, to include any "service" paid by the State or county of a governmental function including service for which no ERS contributions are made.

Employees' Retirement System of the State of Hawaii

As there are numerous persons working in governmental functions paid by the State or county who are not members of the ERS, and for whom no contributions are made, this proposal amends chapter 88, Hawaii Revised Statutes, by amending sections 88-21, 88-70 and 88-336, to clarify that claims for benefits related to service-connected disability and accidental death benefits should be limited to members who are beneficiaries of the Trust. For members of the ERS who are in positions for which all contributions required to the System by the employee, employer, or both, are made, claims for service-connected disability and accidental death benefits will apply. These service-connected disability and accidental death benefits would not apply to persons who are excluded from membership in the ERS.

The Board of Trustees of the Employees' Retirement System supports this legislation.

Thank you for this opportunity to provide testimony on S.B. 2766
