Aloha, all.

This is an inspired Resolution. Thank you so much for hearing it. It is a wonderful idea.

Even now, I remember when Rep. Patsy Mink came to speak to the students at Kauai High School. We sat in the bleachers of the Kauai High School gym. It had no air conditioning, mind you. No one was rude or inattentive that I could see. She certainly made an impression on me. Her manner, her expressiveness, her determination all came through. No one needed to say, "This is a leader." We could see it for ourselves.

It was inspiring just to see and hear Rep. Mink, in fact, to know that she existed. She was a model for many women in Hawaii and elsewhere, I'm sure. I wish that other women and young girls elsewhere in the US could have a model like Rep. Mink in their communities.

Among the students there that day was Joann Yukimura, who went on to become the Kauai Mayor.

Please do pass this Resolution.

Thank you.
