Further, (b) the Hawaii Lions Foundation is (1) incorporated under the laws of the State of Hawaii; and has (2) bylaws and policies describing the manner in which activities and/or services for which the grant is awarded will be conducted and/or provided; is (c)(1) a non-profit organization determined and designated by the Internal Revenue Service; and (2) has a governing board whose members who have no material conflict of interest and serve without compensation. Finally, (d) if the Hawaii Lions Foundation discontinues activities or services for which the grant was awarded, the organization shall negotiate with the expending agency for a lump sum or installment repayment to the State for the amount of the grant used.

3. Public Purpose Statement

In accordance with Section 42F-102 of the Hawaii Revised Statutes, the Hawaii Lions Foundation shall submit the request for grants to the appropriate standing committees of the legislature at the start of each legislative regular session and include (1) the Hawaii Lions Foundation as an organization seeking (2) a grant for the public purpose of improving Title I school screenings on Oahu and neighbor Islands, for (3) support to enable hearing and vision screening services to be implemented by Hawaii Lions Foundation, and (4) will endeavor to serve the most needy of the target group of elementary school students in Title I schools on Oahu, Maui and the Island of Hawaii, and (4) that this grant application covers the cost and budget of this proposal.

II. Background and Summary

1. The Hawaii Lions Clubs were founded in Honolulu shortly after the national organization was chartered in 1917 and has the distinction of being the first Lions organization in the United States to be fully integrated, regardless of race, color, national origin, religion, creed, sex, age, orientation and disability.
2. The Hawaii Lions Foundation was established in 1961 for the expressed purpose to administer sight conservation programs for the Hawaii Lions Clubs and raise monies for that purpose. In 1980, the Lions supported a merger of the Hawaii Eye Bank and Makana Foundation to seek eye tissue and organ donations and eventually set up the State's first full-time laboratory for that purpose. Four years later, the Foundation raised over a million dollars for its operation and remains its principal funding source and activity today.
3. The Hawaii Lions Foundation and its member Clubs are inspired by the national ethos of "we serve" and has contributed to the betterment of society here by funding the Hawaii Eye Bank; installing and repairing bus shelters; providing physical, financial and moral support at schools and other community activities; and for recycling eyeglasses and providing thousands of free vision and hearing screenings to deserving and impoverished keiki in all corners of the State each year.
4. Comprising approximately 1400 members statewide, one of our 55 active Hawaii Lions clubs can be found somewhere on all publicly inhabited islands of the State (including Kalaupapa) and is the only civic organization in the Islands to hold such a distinction.
5. The Hawaii Lions Foundation with the help of volunteers from member Clubs on each inhabited Island provides free vision and hearing screenings each academic year at public, charter and private schools throughout the State. The test provides an initial indication of a child's vision and hearing abilities and then collaborates with schools, parents, the University of Hawaii at Manoa Keiki Nurse Program, the Department of Public Health, and the Department of Education should further tests or services be needed.

Mission Statement

The Hawaii Lions Foundation is dedicated to support sight and hearing related activities and any humanitarian programs deemed necessary by the Hawaii Lions Clubs and the Trustees of the Hawaii Lions Foundation.

III. Service Summary and Outcomes

1. In the case of Title I students who come from disadvantaged circumstances, the Foundation coordinates free or low-cost professional services, eyeglass grinding, and complementary frames to students needing a pair of eyeglasses or hearing assistance. With this help, students stand a better chance to become accomplished pupils and better engaged members of their schools, grow their vocabulary and focusing skills, and most critically, intervene if undetected disease is present in either the eye or ear. Today, the service is only limited by manpower, physical logistics and equipment.

Although the Lions Foundation continues to make substantial investments in equipment to requesting Clubs (including purchasing over $74,000 in equipment in 2018), a need to expand both the scope and depth of our services to the most isolated corners of the State still exists. While we routinely partner with organizations such as the Atherton and Fred Baldwin Foundations and generous gifts from First Hawaiian and Central Pacific Banks, more help is needed to expand our efforts.

2. This proposal asks for $31,200 to complete the purchase of a portable set of vision and hearing equipment to be used at the 36 most distressed schools in Hawaii (with percentages of 75% or more of Title I eligibility). Because many of these schools are in the most remote places of our State, we are asking for assistance with volunteer travel, training, and training manual printing as well as in expanding and deepening online/website information for families with children who will be or just were tested. The 36 additional schools represent the servicing of one additional location per week for the Foundation beginning in August, which we believe is both a reasonable growth initiative and yet would not impact or detract from our current schedule of visiting some ninety schools per year on Oahu alone (list attached). The program would conclude in May, 2020.
3. All Lions Club volunteers are fully trained, insured and overseen by a practicing audiologist, nurse and/or vision professional onsite. All aspects of the Foundation and its Eye Bank comply with federal HPA privacy rules and Department of Health regulations (enclosed).
4. While annual statistics vary, approximately one in every fifty children of the 14,000 tested each year indicate some serious difficulties with hearing and/or vision after our tests, for a total of about 280 students statewide. If this proposal is funded, we anticipate finding a slightly higher percentage of difficulty at the Title I schools (after an estimated 9000 tests) at an overall expenditure by the State of less than $3.50 per test or $140 per student who encounters a hearing or vision issue.

7. Experience and Capability

1. Since 1961, the Hawaii Lions Foundation has been assisting and funding the Lions Club work in the Islands. Especially in the past 33 years, the elementary school hearing and vision screenings have become a quasi-professional endeavor by a core group of dedicated Lions volunteers. However, we are limited by time, manpower and logistical support, which this grant hopes to address.

This grant provides for the purchase of a full and portable set of screening equipment exclusively for Title I schools in Hawaii and will provide a small per diem per event to increase manpower capacity and cover in-island travel and training expenses. Until this is funded, the organization finds itself limited to our existing 90 neighborhood schools.

At each event, our volunteers are overseen by a professional audiologist, a practicing nurse, a vision screening expert and/or a combination of all three. Many of the volunteers are former school teachers and parents, so they come with a pertinent skill set and sensitivity for our young clients. Further, every volunteer undergoes a formal training program (which this grant will help support) and per-event updates to keep skills and accuracy to the highest levels possible. A list of current schools serviced is provided.

In the end, we service about six students a minute and disrupt the school day for just an hour to ninety minutes. With your help, we can keep the mission strong and the process safe, efficient and effective.

2. Our facilities are the 36 most eligible Title I public elementary schools of the State.

8. Personnel: Project Organization and Staffing

1. The Hawaii Lions Foundation is overseen by a Board of Trustees who directs its full-time Executive Director, Robert M. Armstrong to write, administrator and fulfill the terms of this grant. He works with a full complement of volunteers comprised of Lions Club members in the locality. Overseeing relations with schools is trained audiologist Shannon Ching and his wife, while Steven Wong oversees the vision component. Each have decades of in-school experience and are trusted in the field.
2. Both Ching and Wong work collaboratively to the local Clubs to staff each event and send that information to the Foundation office for confirmation and safe-keeping.
3. As the grant indicates, compensation is for training and travel of an additional six volunteers who staff these additional events at Title 1 elementary schools.

VII. Other

1. There is no known pending litigation or judgments against the Hawaii Lions Foundation or its applicable Clubs.
2. The appropriate licenses and accreditations are provided at the end of this application.
3. This grant is solely and exclusively for use at the most eligible Title I public elementary schools on Oahu, Maui and the Big Island. (On Kauai, Molokai and Lanai, the Lions Clubs there operate differently and independently, often partnering with local population leaders to execute the screenings.)
4. A. With the addition of a full-time professional Executive Director at the Hawaii Lions Foundation (hired in November, 2018), the organization has made a major commitment to their ongoing fundraising and program execution plans. This grant request and its submission is the first set in that process.

B. Including the administration of this grant, if awarded, the Executive Director's duties will be to increase fundraising incoming by at five percent per annum, enough to cover the inclusion of this grant's future costs. He has a substantial background in public and government relations, non-profit administration and fundraising, as well as a communications background; so the Trustees feel their modest growth goals will be met.
