

RESUME

LORRAINE PUALANI SHIN

July 31, 2018

My grandparents and parents were lei sellers operating a kiosk on the Royal Hawaiian Hotel grounds in Waikiki.

BACKGROUND:

I started working at the age of 12 at our family lei stand in Waikiki and later owned and operated several small businesses on Oahu and the Big Island. I received my BBA degree from the University of Hawaii at Manoa

CAREER PERFORMANCE:

President of Polynesian Hooponopono Corporation to present

Property Management of residential and commercial properties

President of Polynesian Management Corporation to present

Property Management of residential and commercial properties

President of Masayumi Inc. to present

Property Management of commercial properties

President of M.S. Petroleum Corp to present

Property Management of commercial properties

Past President of Waiakea Shopping Center in Hilo

Anchor tenants Wal-Mart, Office Max, Ross' Dress for Less, etc

Awards:

Presidential Appointee as State Director for USDA Rural Development from 2001 to 2008

Delivering over $1 Billion of federal funds to Hawaii, American Samoa, Micronesia, Marshall Island, Northern Marianas, and Palau

COMMUNITY SERVICES:

Commissioner for Hawaii County Board of Ethics by Mayor Lorraine Inouye

President of the Penn Hawaii Youth Foundation

Helping at-risk youth from 2005 the martial arts way to instill values of confidence, discipline, humility, and spirit

Past President of East Hawaii Coalition for the homeless

Interim Parole Board Member Appointee by Governor Lingle

As President of Waiakea Center in Hilo, I was instrumental in awarding $100,000 annually to families on Hawaiian Homelands in Panaewa & Keuakaha from 1997 totaling over $2 million.

Member of the Downtown Improvement Assn & Hilo Main Street Program

Rotarian member and Elks member

Recognition:

In 1993, I was selected as one of the Business Women of the Year by the Hawaii Tribune Herald.