

ROBERT J. HALL

SKILL SETS

- Community organization development & support specifically within Hawaiian Homesteads and low-income housing; project development, financing & management; construction management; technical assistance & training for economic development;
- 25 years as executive-level manager leading public agencies (State Housing and Hawaiian Home Lands) with demonstrated success in effective budget management, financing, development, affordable housing planning and construction, rental property management, legislative strategy, design and implementation of program policies and procedures, and human resource management.

SELECTED ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Deployed over $100 million of leveraged financing to develop 5 projects in Hawaii during the last 4 years; Waimanalo Community Economic and Employment Training Center, Molokai Community Health Center, West Hawaii Community Health Center, Lana i Community Health Center and Laiopua Community Center
- Developed the initial concept and scope for DHHL's Home Ownership Assistance Program (HOAP), which assists native Hawaiian families to become successful homeowners
- Directed the development of DHHL's beneficiary consultation policy to facilitate community engagement with DHHL and informed decision-making by the Hawaiian Homes Commission
- Established a 15-year development budget for approx. 10,000 homestead units for DHHL.
- Refocused DHHL to assess, amend and establish Administrative Rules that properly address and guide its current policies, procedures and programs (an effort, which includes beneficiary input and guidance, that provides program clarity and avert future challenges against the Trust)
- Secured 305 Section 8 project-based vouchers to enable the conversion of Palolo Public Housing from State to private (complimented by capital improvements to the facilities, this effort resulted in a reduction to the State housing's annual deficits and improved the quality of life for residing public housing families)
- Created the first Sports Fest program in public housing, enabling an alternative for friendly sports competition while building community pride for all residents
- Formed the first public housing Neighborhood Watch Program at Mayor Wright Homes (this concept expanded in other public housing communities in urban Honolulu, paving the way for programs like Weed-N-Seed and Community Policing)
- Received a national award for drug prevention from U.S. Housing and Urban Development in 1989, one of only 24 in the nation, for establishment of the Neighborhood Watch Program in Mayor Wright Homes.
