II. Background and Summary

This section shall clearly and concisely summarize and highlight the contents of the request in such a way as to provide the State Legislature with a broad understanding of the request. Please include the following:

1. A brief description of the applicant's background;

The Hawai'i Agricultural Foundation (HAF) is a non-profit charitable organization created to promote agriculture and farming. Created in 2007 (initially as The Hawaii Farm Bureau Foundation for Agriculture, and renamed The Hawai'i Agricultural Foundation in 2010), the mission of HAF is to support and sustain Hawaii's agricultural industry by addressing critical needs and services of farmers and the agricultural industry in Hawaii, and by better connecting the farmers with the community and vice-versa. This involves educational and outreach programs in the community, as well as direct marketing, technical, educational and in-the-field support for farmers.

2. The goals and objectives related to the request;

The goal of this project is to assist farmers and food manufacturers with value-adding processing. It supports the State Department of Agriculture's published mission to promote the conservation, development and utilization of agricultural resources in the State. Most local farmers are able to only sell their market grade products and all other off-grade products are either disposed of or donated.

3. The public purpose and need to be served;

The Governor has made doubling local food production and increasing local manufacturers as a priority. In coordination with the Governor's plan, the HAF will support local farmers and manufacturers.

As part of this grant, the HAF will assume responsibility for the building of a facility in Whitmore Village, Oahu to lease to farmers and value-added manufacturers seeking to scale their production in value-added products.

4. Describe the target population to be served; and

The target population to be served are farmers and start-up food manufacturers looking to scale their production.

5. Describe the geographic coverage.

The geographic coverage to be served is Oahu.

III. Service Summary and Outcomes

The Service Summary shall include a detailed discussion of the applicant's approach to the request. The applicant shall clearly and concisely specify the results, outcomes, and measures of effectiveness from this request. The applicant shall:

1. Describe the scope of work, tasks and responsibilities;

The grant will provide the needed funds for the HAF to expand its ability to support local farmers and food manufacturers. HAF will seek a 30-year lease as part this project and sublease to farmers and food manufacturers. HAF purchase and retrofit pre-fabricated buildings to minimize costs. It will purchase a minimum of three buildings of 3,000 – 4,000 square feet and will retro those buildings with additional infrastructure and utilities.

The applicant shall demonstrate that it has the necessary skills, abilities, knowledge of, and experience relating to the request. State your experience and appropriateness for providing the service proposed in this application. The applicant shall also provide a listing of verifiable experience of related projects or contracts for the most recent three years that are pertinent to the request.

Established in 2007, HAF has worked to address the need for Hawaii to become more food sustainable through three areas that deal with the supply and demands of agriculture. Its Farmer Assistance Programs support the viability of supporting farmers with training/educational working, infrastructure, and technology. Through its Education Programs, HAF has promoted agricultural careers and developed a K-12 continuum, including but not limited to specific Dept of Education complex areas with a natural resource pathway to ag. The programs have grown from serving 160 students in its beginning stages to over 22,000 students collectively over the last six years. Its Public Awareness and Outreach Initiatives are centered around community education such as the EAT THINK DRINK events series, which have consistently become a sold-out success. The annual Localicious campaign has grown from raising $31,000 for HAF's K-12 ag education programs in its first year of 2014 to over $65,000 in 2019. The Localicious campaign continues to attract an increasing number of businesses while garnering community support.

2. Facilities

The applicant shall provide a description of its facilities and demonstrate its adequacy in relation to the request. If facilities are not presently available, describe plans to secure facilities.

HAF has an office location in the Kaimuki area of Honolulu and operates a 220-acre agricultural park in Kunia. HAF contracts Second City Property Management to handle day-to-day operations of the ag park.

VI. Personnel: Project Organization and Staffing

1. Proposed Staffing, Staff Qualifications, Supervision and Training

The applicant shall describe the proposed staffing pattern and proposed service capacity appropriate for the viability of the request. The applicant shall provide the qualifications and experience of personnel for the request and shall describe its ability to supervise, train and provide administrative direction relative to the request.

HAF is managed by an Executive Director Denise Hayashi Yamaguchi with day-to-day administrative support from Executive Assistant, Cassidy Apo. Ms. Yamaguchi reports to a 10-member Board of Directors. Finance Advisor Teri Matsukawa oversees all financial reporting and budgeting for the organization. Associate Director of Development, Allison Tong manages funding, oversees marketing communications for HAF and its Public Awareness and Outreach Initiatives. Communications Coordinator Sarah Anne Mau and Communications and Development Assistant Lei'a Haff execute marketing communications and support Public Awareness and Outreach Initiatives. K-12 Education Programs are led by Education Programs Managers, Elizabeth Stanton-Barrera and Celeste Yee. All staff report directly to Executive Director. See qualifications below:

Denise Hayashi Yamaguchi, Executive Director

Prior to working for the HAF, Yamaguchi was a consultant to the Hawaii Farm Bureau Federation where she helped craft the language, vision and mission of the Foundation. She has more than nineteen years working as a consultant and executive with non-profit organizations specializing in strategic planning, fund development, marketing, government affairs, public relations and community relations. Her past employers and clients include NCL America, Bishop Museum, Japanese Cultural Center, Hawaii Foodbank, U.S. Senator Daniel K. Inouye, 3Rs, Artisans' Farmers Alliance, Durrant Media Five, Hawaii Institute for Public Affairs, Hawaii Farm Bureau Federation, Coast Guard Foundation, Hawaii

Forest Industry Association, U.S.S. Battleship Missouri Association, and the State of Hawaii Procurement Office.

Cassidy Apo, Executive Assistant

Apo majored in business administration while also coordinating, planning, and executing campus events for her university. She also interned and volunteered as an event planning assistant for a non-profit children's museum in Washington.

Teri Matsukawa, Finance Advisor

Teri Matsukawa serves as the financial advisor for HAF and oversees all financial reporting and budgeting for the organization. She has more than 30 years in accounting and financial management with her last position as the CFO for Louis Vuitton. She is a graduate of the University of Hawaii and is a Certified Public Accountant

Allison Tong, Associate Director of Development

Formerly based in Hong Kong and the San Francisco Bay Area, Ms. Tong brings a wealth of experience in media, marketing, events and project management spanning from Cohn & Wolfe – a global public relations agency under the WPP conglomerate, to Digital Butter – a tech startup. She secures grant funding, corporate sponsorships and leads HAF's Public Awareness and Outreach initiatives. She holds a bachelor's degree in Strategic Communications from Hawaii Pacific University and attended Bauman College in Berkeley, California where she became a certified chef of holistic health and nutrition.

Elizabeth Stanton, Education Programs Manager

Elizabeth Stanton currently manages HAF's education programs, with a primary focus on after-school initiative Kids Cooking Local and In the Fields. She has a Masters degree from the University of Hawaii in Education Foundations and graduated from the George Washington University with a Bachelor of Arts degree in International Relations. Prior to her tenure with HAF, she spent four years working as the Educational Program Director for the Japan America Society. She is experienced in coordinating programs and volunteers, and has experience working directly with school administrators, teachers and students.

Celeste Yee, Education Programs Manager

For the past three years, Ms. Yee has developed outreach programs and executed trail management projects as an Outreach & Administrative Associate for the Division of Forestry and Wildlife (DOFAW), DLNR. Prior to working at DOFAW, she served as a Science Resource Teacher for Myron B. Thompson Academy for elementary school students. With a degree in biology and a passion for education, Ms. Yee also has work experience in systematics laboratories at the University of Hawai'i at Mānoa, and supported a number of high school environmental learning programs in her hometown of Kaneohe.

Sarah Anne Mau, Communications Coordinator

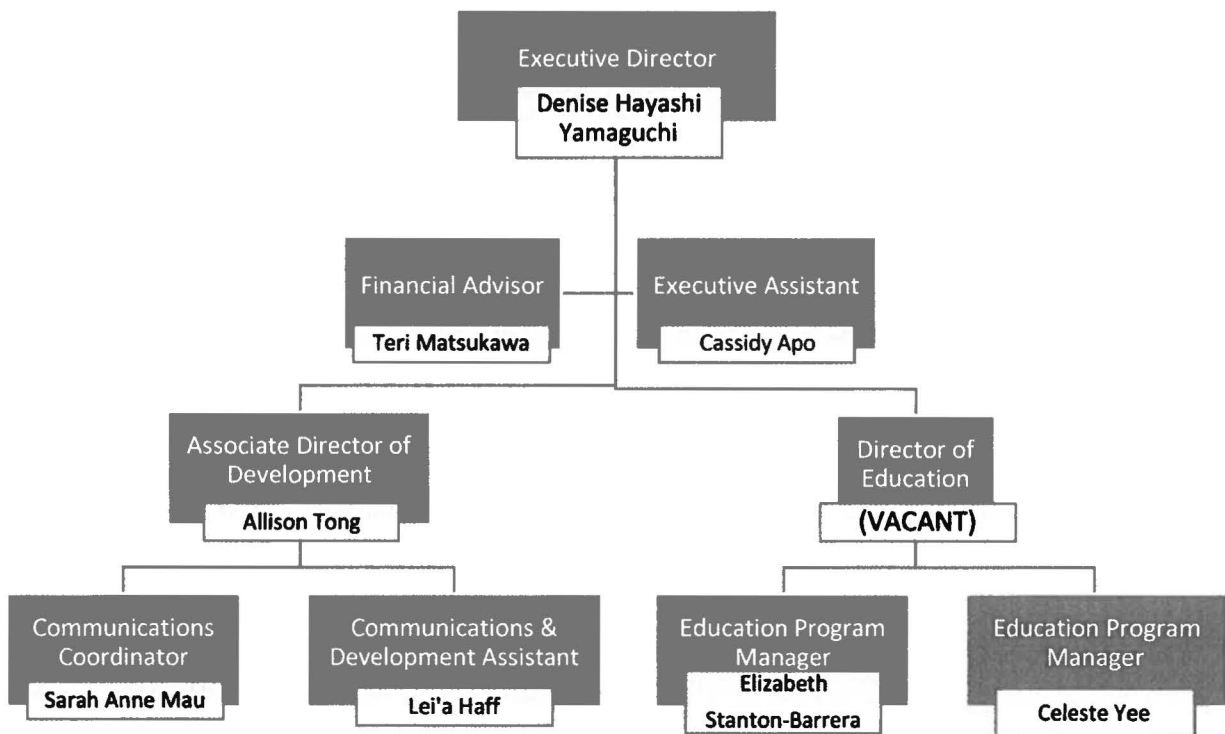

Ms. Mau graduated from Punahou School in Oahu and obtained a Bachelor's degree in Psychology from the University of Southern California. As an editor of Hawaii Parent Magazine and Hawaii Military Guide, she helped launch the company's social media presence. Ms. Mau is charged with developing communications materials, content and community management on HAF social media channels and the HAF website. She also assists with the coordination and execution of Public Awareness and Outreach Initiatives.

Lei'a Haff, Communications and Development Assistant

Ms. Haff is a recent 2019 graduate of the University of Hawaii West Oahu. She assists with the distribution of communications materials, design of marketing collaterals, and the coordination and execution of Public Awareness and Outreach Initiatives.

2. Organization Chart

The applicant shall illustrate the position of each staff and line of responsibility/supervision. If the request is part of a large, multi-purpose organization, include an organization chart that illustrates the placement of this request.

3. Compensation

The applicant shall provide an annual salary range paid by the applicant to the three highest paid officers, directors, or employees of the organization by position title, not employee name.
