Pursuant to Section 42F-102, Hawaii Revised Statutes, the funding granted in this proposal will be used for a public purpose.

II. Background and Summary

This section shall clearly and concisely summarize and highlight the contents of the request in such a way as to provide the State Legislature with a broad understanding of the request. Please include the following:

- 1. A brief description of the applicant's background;*

Lunalilo Home was established by the will of King William Charles Lunalilo in 1874 to perpetuate his legacy and honor, tend to, and protect the well-being of kūpuna (elders). As part of its expansion of services to the surrounding community, Lunalilo Home has made its services (residential, day care, meals, etc.) available to both the Native Hawaiian and non-Native Hawaiian populations in 2001. See our attached IRS determination letter dated 3/14/1988.

Our fiscal sponsor and community partner, Papa Ola Lōkahi, is a private 501(c)(3) not-for-profit organization whose mission is to improve the health status and wellbeing of Native Hawaiians and others by advocating for, initiating and maintaining culturally appropriate strategic actions aimed at improving the physical, mental and spiritual health of Native Hawaiians and their 'ohana (families) and empowering them to determine their own destinies. See Papa Ola Lōkahi's attached IRS determination letter dated 3/6/1996.

2. The goals and objectives related to the request;

To provide needed support services for disadvantaged seniors, especially the vulnerable, frail, developmentally disabled, and isolated elderly to assure that they have a continuum of integrated care options to age in place in their homes and communities, have nutritious meals, receive needed care, have supervised, safe, and stimulating environment; and their caregivers are supported and have opportunities to comfortably proceed with their life goals. Lunalilo Home will also collaborate with other organizations to offer opportunities to persons of all ages, through volunteer service, to foster cross-generational interactions and experiences. This community approach is a bold strategic measure to seek out new ways for Lunalilo Home to fulfill the testamentary mandate of King Lunalilo in reaching substantially more disadvantaged elderly Native Hawaiians in their homes and communities as well as expand into and impact a wider network of elders in the community to improve their well-being.

These funds would be specific toward the Kauhale Kūpuna Strategic Plan (see attached) of enhancing and sustaining quality through the support and strengthening of the clinical and nursing department of Lunalilo Home. Currently, the position of Director of Nursing is responsible for holding the Department of Health license for operating the Care Home and provides the primary nursing oversight for residents during their time on-site. As we develop and begin to see more chronic and complex kupuna, this role will need to be strengthened with more medical oversight and training. Rather than placing this responsibility on one individual, we seek to enhance our clinical department toward better addressing of elements primary toward kupuna care. Medical reconciliation, advanced practice nursing, hospital integration, geriatric focused medicine, and appropriate clinical staffing would all be supported through this grant.

Native Hawaiians enter their senior years with more chronic conditions and poorer health habits than most other ethnic groups. In addition, Native Hawaiians suffer from adverse health events, such as Stroke, about 10 years younger than other ethnicities (Nakagawa, et. al., 2015). Similar to all older adults, quality care for Native Hawaiian elders acknowledges their desire to remain in their own homes with an array of assistance from families, friends, and home and community-based services that honor and reflect their culture. Not surprisingly, quality of life is influenced by the education and training of professionals and other service workers who provide the care. Successful interventions for Native Hawaiian elders are predicated on practitioners having an understanding of cultural values and traditions that influence elder's health practices, with cultural preferences that may include involvement of the elder's extended family and use of health promotion approaches reflecting holistic wellness. By offering specialty care in Alzheimer's / dementia with a uniquely Native Hawaiian perspective, combined with the expertise of the Clinical Director to develop the nursing skills of our direct patient care workers, Lunalilo Home can become a training ground for higher level sites, such as hospitals, as well as serving as home health aides in the community to mitigate the growing shortage of these workers. This issue has critical implications for Native Hawaiians, who may require long-term care services early in life due to earlier onset of disability. See research article by Ka'opua L. Braun K. Browne C. Mokuau N. Park C. "Why are native Hawaiians underrepresented in Hawai(i)s older adult population?" <https://new.hindawi.com/journals/jar/2011/701232/> (2011).

The need for delivery of health care services is increasing in the community and home care services, and with this GIA grant, Lunalilo Home can provide a culturally responsive, community-based long-term care training program that will increase the workforce pipeline of high quality professional nursing staff as well as home health care aides to the underserved Native Hawaiian population.

3. The public purpose and need to be served;

Forbes reports (1/15/2020) that 10,000 baby boomers reach Social Security age every day and 70% of adults age 65 will need long-term care in their lifetime. There are about 238,000 Hawai'i residents aged 60 and over and constitute 18.7% of Hawai'i's total population. However, according to US Census data (2010), 24% of East Honolulu's nearly 50,000 residents are aged 65 and over. While one of the largest issues for kūpuna is senior housing, we realize that the seniors' desire to age in place is growing rapidly. Long term care facilities are at their maximum capacity and care homes have been under more scrutiny with licensing and regulation. Engel&Volkers (2018) estimates that for the East Honolulu market, only 1.5% of the projected kūpuna population will have a long-term care bed available when needed. This low supply of care homes and beds will drive families toward exhausting all resources to have their elder age in place. For care homes like ours, turnover among nursing staff is high. In one study by the American Health Care Association (2008), annual turnover among CNAs in nursing facilities was 66%. A substantial barrier to recruitment and retention of direct care workers is the low pay and limited fringe benefits that employees receive, with 75% only having a high school education or less and about 42% reporting having been on food stamps in the past. Poor pay and benefits is the most commonly reported reasons for leaving. According to the US Department of Health and Human Services March, 2011, report (<https://aspe.hhs.gov/system/files/pdf/76186/CNAchart.pdf>), nurse aides, certified nursing assistants and home health aides are the primary providers of paid hands-on care for more than 13 million elderly and disabled Americans. Although direct care workers like these constitute one of the largest and fastest-growing sectors of the workforce, there is a documented critical and growing shortage of these workers in every community throughout the United States. There is a significant need to attract many more direct care workers in the near future. Furthermore, the need for better training was recognized by the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act of 2010; however, training costs and time constraints represent a substantial barrier to becoming a direct care worker.

In addition, one of the most basic determinants of aging in place are regular nutritious meals. Lunalilo Home currently provides 607 meals per month via our Hawaii Meals on Wheels (HMOW) partnership, and an additional 279 meals for private clients unable to qualify for the HMOW program. Special meals are modified via a Registered Dietician to ensure the meal coincides with physician monitored medications, consistencies (soft, minced, or pureed), and provides the necessary nutritive basis for the special needs of the elder.

4. Describe the target population to be served; and

There are about 238,000 Hawai'i residents aged 60 and over and constitute 18.7% of Hawai'i's total population. However, according to US Census data (2010), 24% of East Honolulu's nearly 50,000 residents are aged 65 and over. In the late 1960s and 1970s, the population in the Maunaloa area (Diamond Head to Koko Head) swelled with new subdivisions and young families. Experts have been predicting a "silver tsunami" in the islands as Baby Boomers age and retire. Baby boomers began turning 65 in 2011 and with the expected growth of these older residents, the need and demand for elderly support services, including meal preparation, will continually rise. Furthermore, the cost of housing in East Honolulu is 305% higher than the national average with the median sales price for a home at $1.3 million (Title Guaranty, 2018). Correspondingly, East O'ahu has some of the highest property taxes in Hawai'i, the cost of living index in East Honolulu is 26% higher than the Hawai'i average and 122% higher than that for the entire country. These conditions severely limit seniors' ability to age in place.

5. Describe the geographic coverage.

Lunalilo Home directly benefits seniors, predominantly ages 60 and older, especially the vulnerable, frail, developmentally disabled and isolated seniors who otherwise would go hungry, become malnourished or homebound residing in the geographic area ranging from Kaimukī to Kailua. Inquiries and requests for care are not limited to East O'ahu and include placement from all districts of the State of Hawai'i and occasionally out-of-state.

III. Service Summary and Outcomes

The Service Summary shall include a detailed discussion of the applicant's approach to the request. The applicant shall clearly and concisely specify the results, outcomes, and measures of effectiveness from this request. The applicant shall:

1. Describe the scope of work, tasks and responsibilities;

The scope of work will entail the onboarding of appropriate Clinical staff who specializes in geriatric medicine and kūpuna with Alzheimer's and other related dementias, in order to stabilize and strengthen the nursing department at Lunalilo Home. This Clinical Director will be charged with recruiting, hiring, and training qualified and competent Licensed Staff (RN and LPN), CNAs and Nurse Assistants and other service workers who provide care, in order to drastically reduce Lunalilo Home's current shortage of full-time staff and the extensive associated expense for hiring temporary agency workers. In addition, the development of current staff to further address the more chronic ailments that we are seeing increase in our resident profile. After a period of nine months, Lunalilo Home will strategize with the new recruits on various ways to retain the professional nursing staff, including providing transportation to work, shift differential pay, workload distribution, education reimbursement, fringe benefits and bonuses. Lunalilo Home envisions providing a culturally responsive, community-based long-term care training program that will increase the workforce pipeline of high-quality professional nursing staff as well as home health care aides to the underserved Native Hawaiian population and fulfill the increasing demand by health care organizations for competent, experienced nursing professionals. In all, by strengthening the core of the skillsets of the care we provide, we would be able to better support the kupuna community at large in the development of a Home Health strategy.

2. Provide a projected annual timeline for accomplishing the results or outcomes of the service;

If State GIA funds are awarded, Lunalilo Home will spend the first three months recruiting, and onboarding Licensed Staff (RN and LPN), CNAs and Nurse Assistants. Months 4-9 would be the specific training period and the final three months 10-12 will be spent determining suitable retention strategies, including providing transportation to work, shift differential pay, workload distribution, education reimbursement, fringe benefits and bonuses.

3. Describe its quality assurance and evaluation plans for the request. Specify how the applicant plans to monitor, evaluate, and improve their results; and Lunalilo Home will continue to evaluate overall patient satisfaction, including staff competency, overall quality, staff and community education as part of its licensure with the Department of Health. The evaluation is a collaborative process that identifies risks and helps address challenging issues at the site along with social determinants of health such as family support, home safety, community-based support, nutrition, income and education evaluated to customize care for the elderly. Individual health care assessments are done constantly and summarized monthly. Instilling a culture of preventive care and active aging has been substantiated by evidence-based programs such as chronic disease self-management classes that have demonstrably reduced health risks, disabilities, and premature deaths. Our providing seniors with physical fitness, educational and recreational classes and activities will help maintain and improve their cognitive, social, emotional and physical health in to allow them to age in place, saving them and the government costs related to not just physical health but mental health as well. The National Council on Aging (NCOA) Seniors reports that malnutrition affects all groups of people and is a significant problem in the United States. Older adults are particularly at risk due to the changes in their bodies as they age, including depression, dementia, decreased appetite, decreased mobility, poor diets, limited access to healthy food, and medications that affect their appetite or ability to absorb key nutrients or afford to spend money on food. NCOA also found that both low-income and socially-isolated seniors also need help with transportation. The Clinical Director is one of our primary transporters and patient advocates for our residents and oversees the implementation of any medical care prescribed by their physicians.

4. List the measure(s) of effectiveness that will be reported to the State agency through which grant funds are appropriated (the expending agency). The measure(s) will provide a standard and objective way for the State to assess the program's achievement or accomplishment. Please note that if the level of appropriation differs from the amount included in this application that the measure(s) of effectiveness will need to be updated and transmitted to the expending agency.

Lunalilo Home will submit quarterly reports to the State Department of Human Services with all required information, including the demographics on the number of seniors served at Lunalilo Home, Lunalilo Home’s Adult Day Care Center, Meals on Wheels and Meals-to-Go Programs. and detailing our recruitment, hiring, training and retention efforts for Licensed Staff (RN and LPN), CNAs and Nurse Assistants.

6. The applicant shall provide the balance of its unrestricted current assets as of December 31, 2019.

The balance of Lunalilo Home's unrestricted current assets as of December 31, 2019 is $10,196,267.66.

V. Experience and Capability

1. Necessary Skills and Experience

The applicant shall demonstrate that it has the necessary skills, abilities, knowledge of, and experience relating to the request. State your experience and appropriateness for providing the service proposed in this application. The applicant shall also provide a listing of verifiable experience of related projects or contracts for the most recent three years that are pertinent to the request.

The legacy of Lunalilo Home stems from 1883 when the first Lunalilo Home in upper Makiki opened for Native Hawaiian kūpuna (elders). The vision of King William Charles Lunalilo gave an opportunity for his royal wealth to be passed down to this special population. Over 137 years later, his legacy continues in Maunaloa (Hawai'i Kai) with a 42-bed adult residential care home and a separate adult day care facility. In addition, we have expanded our reach to include non-Native Hawaiians since 2001 as approved in Probate Court. In this philosophy, kama'āina families are recognized as a part of our community we wish to serve.

We have expanded our services to not only residential care (including Intermediate and Skilled nursing care) and Adult Day services, by partnering with HMOW to provide to those deemed the most needy in their area. However, we have found a gap group of kūpuna that are unable to cook or create nutritious meals to complement their prescription medications, yet do not qualify for a HMOW subsidy. This gap group will be increasing and creating a wave of kūpuna dietary needs that will drive demand for in-home meal delivery. As families desire to have their elders age-in-place, meal deliveries are an important component and Lunalilo Home is one of the few community commercial kitchens in East O'ahu. Lunalilo Home provides over 5,000 meals a month for the nourishment and dietary needs of homebound seniors and disabled elderly with physical or mental disabilities that inhibit their normal daily living including the ability to prepare meals and who otherwise would go hungry or become malnourished. We started with only two routes providing 15 meals a day from 'Āina Haina to Hawai'i Kai and we currently provide an average of 40 meals a day to kūpuna residing in the geographic area ranging Kaimukī to Waimānalo. Last year, Lunalilo Home was awarded a GIA grant by the City that that allowed us to retrofit our 20 year old kitchen equipment to increase the number of homebound kūpuna population we serve.

Lunalilo Home has the distinct advantage of a diversified array of services that bring revenue to support the subsidized care provided for a limited amount of kūpuna. Similar to a hospital, the rising costs of providing skilled nursing is growing. In order to mitigate this rising expense, we seek to operationalize efficiencies in our ancillary services and keep those streams of revenue expanding through higher numbers of residents, day care clients and expansion of our meal delivery program.

2. Facilities

The applicant shall provide a description of its facilities and demonstrate its adequacy in relation to the request. If facilities are not presently available, describe plans to secure facilities.

Lunalilo Home is the first residential care home in Hawai'i and its facilities are located on 5 acres of land as follows:

Residence/Administration Building	26,000 sq. ft.
Laundry	1,504 sq. ft.
Adult Day Care Building	1,793 sq. ft.

Services include residential for 42, respite, and adult day care for 33, hospice options, home-delivered meals, caregiver workshops, and elder care assistance to kūpuna, their families, caregivers, and the community.

The legacy and vision of King William Charles Lunalilo in caring for kūpuna are founded upon a discipline of cultural professionalism grounded in the values of ALOHA (love, empathy, and compassion), HŌ`IHI (respectful and dignity), HO`OMANAWANUI (patience), MĀLAMA (caring), KULIA I KA PONO (striving for the right), LAULIMA (collaboration and teamwork) and LOKOMAIKA`I (benevolence, grace, a nickname affectionately bestowed upon King Lunalilo). Lunalilo Home strives to achieve being the foremost system of elder services for Native Hawaiians and training ground for higher level sites (like hospitals) providing exceptional care in the spirit of aloha and `ohana.

A substantial barrier to recruitment and retention of direct care workers is the low pay and limited fringe benefits that can be provided. Lunalilo Home's workers are motivated not just by the desire to help kūpuna, but to be a part of a unique 137-year-old legacy of delivering culturally competent care emphasizing Hawaiian values to Hawaiian elders and the broader Hawaii senior community. However, successful interventions for Native Hawaiian kūpuna as well as the broader Hawaii senior community are predicated on practitioners having an understanding of cultural values, traditions and preferences. Funding for our Clinical Director will be sustained through savings realized by having her recruit, hire, train and retain our nursing professionals and other service workers who provide care, drastically reducing the cost of hiring temporary agency workers. Through our Clinical Director's community outreach and resources, Lunalilo Home expects to be able to fill the empty beds that have contributed to lower than anticipated revenue and suitable funding for our nursing professionals and service workers who provide care.

 The Director of Nursing provides the hiring, training, and oversight of all resident medical and nursing care. Our current Director, with an annual salary of $84,000, is retiring on June 30, 2020. We anticipate replacing the DON with a Clinical Director which will consolidate the duties of the DON position, but expands the role to recruiting, hiring and training all nursing professionals and other service workers who provide care and can prescribe medications for our residents. This will drastically reduce Lunalilo Home's current cost of hiring temporary agency workers (above payroll) is $172,000 to significantly improve our operational costs.

Dear Sir or Madam:

This is in response to a letter dated July 21, 1987, regarding your request that you be classified as an exempt operating foundation within the meaning of section 4940(d)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Our records show that you have been recognized as exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Code. You have also been classified for private foundation purposes as a private operating foundation within the meaning of section 4942(j)(3) of the Code since at least January 1, 1983. You indicate that no change has occurred in your status, and that you continue to be a private operating foundation.

The governing body of the Home is a three member Board of Trustees. No Trustee or officer of the Home is a "disqualified individual" nor has any Trustee or officer been a "disqualified individual" at any time during the 1987 taxable year. No officer of the Home is a "substantial contributor" as this term is defined in section 507(d)(2) and 4946(d) of the Code.

The information submitted also reveals that the Home's Trustees are persons who have records of community leadership. Thus, the Trustees represent a broad cross-section of the views and interests of the general public.

Section 4940(a) of the Code imposes upon each private foundation which is exempt from taxation under section 501(a) for the taxable year, with respect to the carrying on of its activities, a tax equal to 2 percent of the net investment income of such foundation for the taxable year.

Section 4940(d)(1) of the Code provides that no tax shall be imposed by this section on any private foundation which is an exempt operating foundation for the taxable year.

Section 4940(d)(2) of the Code defines an exempt operating foundation, with respect to any taxable year, as a private foundation which (1) is an operating foundation, as defined in section 4942(j)(3) of the Code; (2) has been publicly supported for at least 10 taxable years, or was an operating foundation as of January 1, 1983 (as provided by the Deficit Reduction Act of 1984, P.L. 98-369, section 302(c)(3), 98 Stat. 781 (1984)); (3) at all times during the taxable year has a governing body which consists of individuals at least 75 percent of whom are not disqualified individuals, and is broadly representative of the general public; and (4) at no time during the taxable year had an officer who is disqualified individual.

Section 4940(d)(3)(B) of the Code defines a "disqualified individual" as (1) a substantial contributor to the foundation; (2) an owner of more than 20 percent of (a) the total combined voting power of a corporation, (b) the profits interest of a partnership, or (c) the beneficial interest of a trust or unincorporated enterprise, which is a substantial contributor to the foundation; or (3) a member of the family of any individual described above.

Section 507(d)(2) of the Code defines a "substantial contributor" as a person who contributes an aggregate amount of more than $5,000 to a private foundation if the amount of the contribution is more than two percent of the total contributions received by the foundation before the close of the tax year during which the donation was made.

Effective January 1, 1985, section 4946(d) of the Code defines "family" as including only spouses, ancestors, children, grandchildren and great-children, and spouses of children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Section 1.170(A)-9(e)(3)(v) of the Income Tax Regulations indicates, in another context, that the governing body of an organization may be considered to represent the broad interests of the general public if it is composed of persons having special knowledge or expertise in the particular field or discipline in which the organization is operating, or of community leaders, such as elected or appointed officials, clergymen, educators, civic leaders, or other such persons representing a broad cross-section of the views and interests of the community.

Because you are a private operating foundation within the meaning of section 4942(j)(3) of the Code, were described as a private operating foundation on January 1, 1983, have a governing body which is broadly representative of the general public and consists of individuals at least 75 percent of whom are not disqualified individuals, and none of your officers is a disqualified individual, your organization meets the requirements of section 4940(d)(2) to qualify as an exempt operating foundation.

Accordingly, we conclude that you qualify as an exempt operating foundation within the meaning of section 4940(d) of the Code.

Lunalilo Home

You will continue to be classified as an exempt operating foundation provided that (a) you qualify as a private operating foundation, (b) at no time is any officer a disqualified individual, (c) at all times your governing body continues to be broadly representative of the general public, and (d) at all times at least 75 percent of your directors are not disqualified individuals.

We are informing your key District Director of this action. Please keep a copy of this ruling in your permanent records.

A copy of this ruling letter should be attached to your annual return on Form 990-PF, Return of Private Foundation, for tax years ending in 1985 and 1986, if a claim is made on these returns for exemption from the section 4940 tax.

Sincerely yours,

E. D. Coleman

No

Dear Applicant:

This modifies our letter of the above date in which we stated that you would be treated as an organization that is not a private foundation until the expiration of your advance ruling period.

Your exempt status under section 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code as an organization described in section 501(c)(3) is still in effect. Based on the information you submitted, we have determined that you are not a private foundation within the meaning of section 509(a) of the Code because you are an organization of the type described in section 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(vi).

Grantors and contributors may rely on this determination unless the Internal Revenue Service publishes notice to the contrary. However, if you lose your section 509(a)(1) status, a grantor or contributor may not rely on this determination if he or she was in part responsible for, or was aware of, the act or failure to act, or the substantial or material change on the part of the organization that resulted in your loss of such status, or if he or she acquired knowledge that the Internal Revenue Service had given notice that you would no longer be classified as a section 509(a)(1) organization.

If we have indicated in the heading of this letter that an addendum applies, the addendum enclosed is an integral part of this letter.

Because this letter could help resolve any questions about your private foundation status, please keep it in your permanent records.

If you have any questions, please contact the person whose name and telephone number are shown above.

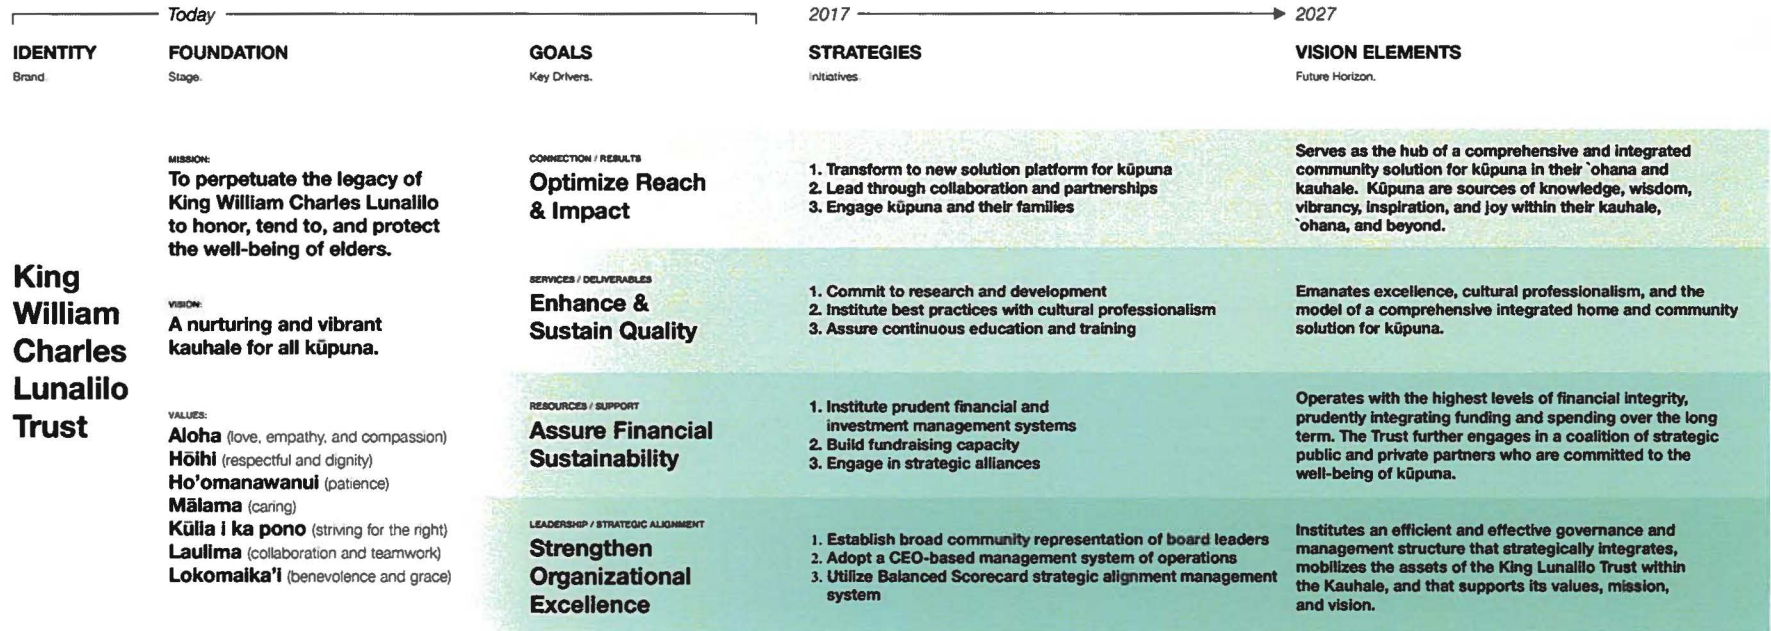

Sincerely yours,

Richard R. Orosco
