
A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO LANDOWNER LIABILITY.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1 SECTION 1. The legislature finds that article XII, section
2 7 of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii requires the State
3 to protect and enforce the reasonable exercise of Native
4 Hawaiian traditional and customary rights. The legislature
5 further finds that Native Hawaiians are legally entitled to 6 engage in the reasonable exercise of these rights and associated 7 practices on both publicly- and privately-owned lands that are 8 less than fully developed, regardless of whether or not they are 9 granted express permission by landowners.

10 However, notwithstanding the rights of Native Hawaiian 11 cultural practitioners, public and private landowners and 12 property managers with liability concerns may refuse to 13 accommodate practitioners' access to sites and resources on 14 lands under their ownership or control. As a result, in order 15 to exercise their constitutional right to reasonably engage in 16 Native Hawaiian traditional and customary practices,

1 practitioners often risk potential conflict with landowners or 2 property managers and face potential citation and even arrest.

3 The legislature finds that although there are statutory 4 liability protections for private landowners who allow 5 recreational users to access their lands free of charge,
6 liability concerns regarding the scope of these protections 7 continue to result in the denial of access for cultural 8 practitioners seeking to enter private lands. Additionally, the 9 legislature finds that existing liability protections for 10 landowners who allow recreational access and use of private 11 lands do not extend to public lands or landowners.

12 Accordingly, the purpose of this Act is to provide 13 liability protections for public and private landowners who 14 expressly allow access to and use of their lands to 15 practitioners of Native Hawaiian traditional and customary 16 practices for purposes of engaging in those practices.

17 SECTION 2. The Hawaii Revised Statutes is amended by 18 adding a new chapter to title 28 to be appropriately designated 19 and to read as follows:

1 "CHAPTER

2 LANDOWNER LIABILITY FOR ACCESS BY NATIVE HAWAIIAN TRADITIONAL 3 AND CUSTOMARY PRACTITIONERS

4 § -1 Purpose. The purpose of this chapter is to 5 encourage owners of land to make land and water areas available
6 for the exercise of Native Hawaiian traditional and customary 7 rights and associated practices by limiting landowner liability
8 toward persons entering thereon for those purposes.

9 § -2 Definitions. As used in this chapter:

10 "Charge" means the admission price or fee asked in return
11 for invitation or permission to enter or go upon the land.

12 "Cultural practitioner" means any person who is on or about 13 the premises that the owner of land either directly or 14 indirectly invites or permits, without charge, entry onto the 15 property for the purpose of engaging in a Native Hawaiian 16 traditional and customary practice.

17 "Land" means land, roads, water, watercourses, private ways 18 and buildings, structures, and machinery or equipment when 19 attached to realty, other than land owned by the government that 20 are open to the public.

1 "Owner" means the possessor of a fee interest, a tenant,
2 lessee, occupant, or person in control of the premises,
3 including private individuals, corporations, trusts, and public
4 entities.

5 "Native Hawaiian traditional and customary practice" means
6 any practice that is exercised pursuant to article XII, section 7 7 of the Constitution of the State.

8 § -3 Duty of care of owner limited. (a) Except as 9 specifically recognized by or provided in section -6, an 10 owner of land owes no duty of care to keep the premises safe for 11 entry or use by others for purposes of engaging in any Native
12 Hawaiian traditional and customary practice, or to give any 13 warning of a dangerous condition, use, structure, or activity on 14 the premises to any persons entering for that purpose, or to 15 persons entering for a purpose in response to a cultural 16 practitioner who requires assistance, either direct or indirect, 17 including but not limited to rescue, medical care, or other form 18 of assistance.

19 (b) For purposes of this chapter, a statement or assertion 20 that a person is seeking entry or use of the premises to engage 21 in a Native Hawaiian traditional and customary practice shall be

1 sufficient to establish that the entry or use of the premises by 2 that person is for the purpose of engaging in that practice.

3 § -4 Liability of owner limited. (a) Except as 4 specifically recognized by or provided in section -6, an 5 owner of land who either directly or indirectly invites or 6 permits without charge any person to use the property for 7 purposes of engaging in a Native Hawaiian traditional and 8 customary practice does not:

- 9 (1) Extend any assurance that the premises are safe for 10 any purpose;
- 11 (2) Confer upon the person the legal status of an invitee 12 or licensee to whom a duty of care is owed;
- 13 (3) Assume responsibility for, or incur liability for, any 14 injury to person or property caused by an act of 15 omission or commission of those persons; and
- 16 (4) Assume responsibility for, or incur liability for, any 17 injury to person or persons who enter the premises in 18 response to an injured cultural practitioner.

19 (b) An owner of land who is required or compelled to 20 provide access or parking for access through or across the 21 owner's property because of state or county land use, zoning, or

1 planning law, ordinance, rule, ruling, or order, to reach
2 property used for the purpose of engaging in a Native Hawaiian
3 traditional and customary practice shall be afforded the same
4 protection as to that access, including parking for the access,
5 as an owner of land who invites or permits any person to use
6 that owner's property for the purpose of engaging in a Native
7 Hawaiian traditional and customary practice under 8 subsection (a).

9 § -5 Exceptions to limitations. Nothing in this chapter
10 limits in any way any liability that otherwise exists:

11 (1) For wilful or malicious failure to guard or warn 12 against a dangerous condition, use, or structure that 13 the owner knowingly creates or perpetuates and for 14 wilful or malicious failure to guard or warn against a 15 dangerous activity that the owner knowingly pursues or 16 perpetuates;

17 (2) For injury suffered in any case where the owner of 18 land charges the person or persons who enter or go on 19 the land for the use thereof, except that in the case
20 of land leased to the State or a political subdivision 21 thereof, any consideration received by the owner for

1 that lease shall not be deemed a charge within the 2 meaning of this section; or

3 (3) For injuries suffered by a house guest while on the 4 owner's premises, even though the injuries were 5 incurred by the house guest while engaged in a Native
6 Hawaiian traditional and customary practice.

7 § -6 Persons using land. Nothing in this chapter shall 8 be construed to:

9 (1) Create a duty of care or ground of liability for 10 injury to persons or property; or

11 (2) Relieve any person using the land of another for the 12 purposes of engaging in a Native Hawaiian traditional 13 and customary practice from any obligation that the 14 person may have in the absence of this chapter to 15 exercise care in the use of the land or in the conduct 16 of activities on the land, or from the legal 17 consequences of failure to employ that care."

1 SECTION 3. This Act shall take effect upon its approval.
