TO DEVELOP RECOMMENDATIONS AND STRATEGIES TO CREATE
HAWAIIAN NATIONALITY AS A PROTECTED CLASS FOR PURPOSES OF HAWAII'S ANTI-DISCRIMINATION LAWS.

1           WHEREAS, Hawaii law prohibits discrimination against a
2 person based solely on national origin, ancestry, race, color,
3 religion, disability, sex, marital status, sexual orientation,
4 or age; and
5

6           WHEREAS, discrimination is carried out against many 7 indigenous people who are recognized as Native Hawaiians under 8 chapter 10H, Hawaii Revised Statutes, and declare themselves to 9 be members of the Hawaiian nation or "Hawaiian nationals"; and 10

11           WHEREAS, discrimination is carried out against many other 12 people who, although they are not Native Hawaiian, reside in 13 Hawaii and share the legal, historical, and philosophical 14 foundation as Native Hawaiians, and who declare themselves to be 15 members of the Hawaiian nation or "Hawaiian nationals"; and 16

17           WHEREAS, an individual's declaration of the individual's 18 own nationality stems from one's sense of loyalty or allegiance,
19 which comes from the soul and may be a consequence of one's 20 education, sense of familiarity, attachment to principles, sense 21 of honor and integrity, genealogy and history, acculturation to 22 a place, sense of belonging to a community or society, and 23 understanding of applicable laws of the land; and 24

25           WHEREAS, the history of Hawaii's relationship with the 26 United States of America (U.S.) is one marked by U.S.
27 aggression, collusion, government overthrow, cession, and 28 annexation as a territory before Hawaii became a U.S. state; and 29

1           WHEREAS, the Hawaiian nation was an inclusive society
2 welcoming people of all nations, colors, and religions as equal 3 before the law; and 4

5           WHEREAS, Hawaiian nationals should not have to face
6 barriers to full participation in private and public affairs in 7 Hawaii; and
8

9           WHEREAS, to truly reflect representation of all people of 10 Hawaii, Hawaiian nationals should be allowed to fully 11 participate, to the maximum extent possible in addressing issues
12 regarding education, employment, housing and public
13 accommodations, lending, law enforcement and police conduct,
14 voting rights, jury service, military service, health care,
