H.R. NO. 11

1 WHEREAS, in January 2018, the United States Department of 2 Education's Office for Civil Rights completed a compliance
3 review of the Hawaii Department of Education, which included a 4 review of policies on harassment, in-depth reviews of twenty-5 nine schools, and two on-site visits in 2013 and 2014; and 6

7 WHEREAS, the Office for Civil Rights also conducted a
8 survey of Department of Education students in November and 9 December of 2014, which found that:

12 survey reported being personally bullied or harassed
13 at school;
14

16 sixty percent reported that they believed their 17 bullying was done because of their race, sex, or 18 disability; and 19
 - 20 (3) More than half of the students surveyed said they 21 personally witnessed another student being bullied or 22 harassed; and
23

28 involving students; and 29

30 WHEREAS, within schools, discipline records also reflected 31 inconsistent responses to harassment incidents, such as in the 32 case of a middle school student who was found to have made
33 inappropriate sexual comments and gestures on three different
34 occasions, receiving a one-day, in-school suspension for each
35 incident; but upon engaging in the same behavior the following 36 year, the same student received a single one-hour detention; and 37

38 WHEREAS, the Office for Civil Rights concluded that the 39 Department of Education violated its obligation to address
40 discrimination on the basis of race, color, national origin, 41 sex, and disability; and
