A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO PROPERTY FORFEITURE.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1           SECTION 1. The legislature finds that civil asset
2 forfeiture laws are controversial and have been evolving 3 throughout the country over twenty years since Hawaii passed the 4 Omnibus Criminal Forfeiture Act, codified as chapter 712A,
5 Hawaii Revised Statutes, which includes civil asset forfeiture.
6 Hawaii's process allows law enforcement agencies to seize and 7 keep property based on suspicion that the property is connected
8 to criminal activity. Property, such as vehicles, houses, cash, 9 and jewelry, can be taken without the property owner having been 10 convicted of a crime or even being formally accused of one.

11           The legislature further finds that a 2018 state auditor's 12 report found a lack of accountability by the department of the 13 attorney general over the storage, preservation, and disposal of 14 forfeited property. The report also documented the ongoing lack 15 of administrative rules that would provide guidance internally,
16 to the county law enforcement agencies, and to the public.
17 Additionally, the legislature finds that there is great

1 incentive for state and county law enforcement agencies to seize 2 property for forfeiture, as these agencies are permitted to
3 retain proceeds from the sale of the property. Under Hawaii
4 law, one hundred per cent of the proceeds are divided among the 5 state and county law enforcement agencies that were involved in 6 the seizure and forfeiture.

7 The legislature takes note of the Institute for Justice's
8 D- rating of Hawaii's civil forfeiture laws and the 9 characterization that our laws "are among the nation's worst".
10 The Institute for Justice, a nonprofit civil liberties law firm,
11 recommends abolishing civil forfeiture entirely as at least 12 three states, Nebraska, North Carolina, and New Mexico, have 13 done. Fifteen states now require a criminal conviction for most 14 or all forfeiture cases.

15 Additionally, the Institute for Justice recommends other 16 reforms to make the forfeiture process more fair, beginning with 17 eliminating financial incentives for law enforcement to seize
18 and keep forfeited property and instead directing any proceeds
19 to the general revenue fund or another neutral fund. Eight 20 jurisdictions now prohibit law enforcement from keeping the 21 proceeds from forfeited property. A second reform is to adopt a

1 high standard of proof, such as "beyond a reasonable doubt," in
2 order to forfeit property in civil proceedings. Eighteen
3 jurisdictions have a standard higher than Hawaii's 4 "preponderance of the evidence" standard, and for ten of those 5 jurisdictions it is equivalent to "beyond a reasonable doubt".
6 Third, law enforcement should be required to prove that owners
7 consented to or possessed knowledge of the crime that led to the 8 seizure of their property, restoring the presumption of 9 innocence used in criminal proceedings. Here, again, a number
10 of jurisdictions have already made this reform. The legislature
11 finds that none of these recommendations have been implemented
12 in Hawaii.

13 Accordingly, the purpose of this Act is to make Hawaii's 14 civil asset forfeiture process more just by:

- 15 (1) Restricting asset forfeiture to cases involving the 16 commission of a covered criminal misdemeanor or felony 17 offense;
- 18 (2) Requiring seized property to be forfeited only when 19 the property owner has been convicted of an underlying 20 covered criminal misdemeanor or felony offense;

- 1           (3) Changing the standard of proof that the State must 2           meet in order for property to be forfeited from 3           "preponderance of the evidence" to "beyond a
4           reasonable doubt";
- 5           (4) Requiring the State to prove that owners consented to 6           or possessed knowledge of the crime that led to the 7           seizure of their property;
- 8           (5) Requiring that the agency seizing the property pay for 9           safe and secure storage of the seized property until 10          the completion of the forfeiture proceeding or final 11          disposition of the property;
- 12          (6) Directing any proceeds from a civil forfeiture to the 13          general revenue fund for public education purposes; 14          and
- 15          (7) Repealing administrative forfeiture proceedings, so 16          that any forfeiture proceedings must be brought in 17          court.

18          SECTION 2. Section 712A-4, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 19          amended to read as follows:

20          "§712A-4 Covered offenses. Offenses for which property is 21          subject to forfeiture under this chapter are[+] as follows;

1 provided that the offense is chargeable as a misdemeanor or 2 felony:

3 (a) All offenses that specifically authorize forfeiture;

4 (b) Murder, kidnapping, labor trafficking, gambling,
5 criminal property damage, robbery, bribery, extortion,
6 theft, unauthorized entry into motor vehicle,
7 burglary, money laundering, trademark counterfeiting,
8 insurance fraud, promoting a dangerous, harmful, or 9 detrimental drug, commercial promotion of marijuana,
10 methamphetamine trafficking, manufacturing of a
11 controlled substance with a child present, promoting 12 child abuse, promoting prostitution, sex trafficking,
13 solicitation of a minor for prostitution, habitual
14 solicitation of prostitution, or electronic enticement
15 of a child that is chargeable as a felony offense
16 under state law;

17 (c) The manufacture, sale, or distribution of a controlled
18 substance in violation of chapter 329, promoting 19 detrimental drugs or intoxicating compounds, promoting 20 pornography, promoting pornography for minors, or 21 solicitation of prostitution near schools or public

1 parks, which is chargeable as a felony or misdemeanor
2 offense, but not as a petty misdemeanor, under state
3 law; and

4 (d) The attempt, conspiracy, solicitation, coercion, or 5 intimidation of another to commit any offense for 6 which property is subject to forfeiture."

7 SECTION 3. Section 712A-5, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is
8 amended by amending subsection (2) to read as follows:

9 "(2) Except that:

10 (a) Real property, or an interest therein, may be 11 forfeited under the provisions of this chapter only in 12 cases in which the covered offense is chargeable as a
13 felony offense under state law;

14 (b) No property shall be forfeited under this chapter to 15 the extent of an interest of an owner [~~7~~-by]:

16 (i) By reason of the commission of any covered 17 offense unless:

18 (A) The covered offense is chargeable as a
19 felony or misdemeanor offense under state
20 law; and

1                   (B) The owner has been convicted of the covered
2                                offense by a verdict or plea, including a no 3                                contest plea or a deferred acceptance of 4                                guilty or no contest plea; or

5                   (ii) By reason of any act or omission [established by 6                                ~~that]~~ of the owner [to have been] unless the 7                                State has proven beyond a reasonable doubt that 8                                the act or omission was committed or omitted
9                                ~~[without]~~ with the owner's knowledge and consent
10                               ~~[of that owner];~~

11                   (c) No conveyance used by any person as a common carrier
12                                in the transaction of a business as a common carrier
13                                is subject to forfeiture under this section unless ~~[it~~
14                                ~~appears]~~ the State has proven beyond a reasonable 15                                doubt that the owner or other person in charge of the 16                                conveyance is a consenting party or privy to a 17                                violation of this chapter;

18                   (d) No conveyance is subject to forfeiture under this 19                                section by reason of any act or omission ~~[established~~ 20                                ~~by]~~ of the owner [thereof to have been] unless the 21                                State has proven beyond a reasonable doubt that the

1            act or omission was committed or omitted [without]
2            with the owner's knowledge or consent; [and]
3            (e) A forfeiture of a conveyance encumbered by a bona fide 4            security interest is subject to the interest of the 5            secured party [~~if~~] unless the State has proven beyond
6            a reasonable doubt that the secured party [neither]
7            had knowledge of [~~nor~~] or consented to the act or 8            omission[-]; and
9            (f) This chapter shall not apply to the forfeiture of an 10           animal prior to disposition of criminal charges
11           pursuant to section 711-1109.2."

12           SECTION 4. Section 712A-6, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 13 amended to read as follows:

14           "§712A-6 Seizure of property. (1) Personal property 15 subject to forfeiture under this chapter may be seized for 16 forfeiture by a law enforcement officer:

17           (a) On process issued pursuant to the rules of civil 18           procedure or the provisions of this chapter including 19           a seizure warrant;

20           (b) By making a seizure for forfeiture on property seized 21           on process issued pursuant to law; or

- 1 (c) By making a seizure for forfeiture without court
2 process as follows:
- 3 (i) The seizure for forfeiture is of property seized
4 incident to an arrest or search;
- 5 (ii) The property subject to seizure for forfeiture
6 has been the subject of a prior judgment in favor
7 of the State or any other state or the federal 8 government in forfeiture proceeding;
- 9 (iii) The law enforcement officer has probable cause to 10 believe that the property seized for forfeiture
11 is directly or indirectly dangerous to health or 12 safety;
- 13 (iv) The law enforcement officer has probable cause to 14 believe that the property is subject to 15 forfeiture; or
- 16 (v) The seizure for forfeiture is of perishable 17 natural resources seized and sold, pursuant to 18 section 199-7, prior to forfeiture proceeding.
- 19 (2) Real property subject to forfeiture under this chapter
20 may be seized for forfeiture by a law enforcement officer 21 pursuant to court order following a pre-seizure hearing in the

1 circuit court in the circuit in which the property is located
2 with notice of the pre-seizure hearing to be made to the owners
3 and interest-holders pursuant to section 712A-8. The court
4 shall order the real property in question to be seized for 5 forfeiture if it finds probable cause that the real property is 6 subject to forfeiture under any provision of the Hawaii Revised
7 Statutes.

8 (3) In determining probable cause for seizure, the fact
9 that a firearm, money, or any negotiable instrument was found in 10 proximity to contraband or to instrumentalities of an offense
11 gives rise to an inference that the money<sup>[7]</sup> or instrument was 12 the proceeds of contraband or that the firearm, money, or 13 instrument was used or intended to be used to facilitate 14 commission of the offense.

15 (4) When a law enforcement officer seizes property that is 16 subject to forfeiture under this chapter, the officer shall 17 provide an itemized receipt to the person possessing the 18 property or, in the absence of a person to whom the receipt 19 could be given, shall leave the receipt in the place where the 20 property was found, if possible."

1 SECTION 5. Section 712A-7, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is
2 amended as follows:

3 1. By amending subsection (2) to read:

4 "(2) If property is seized for forfeiture under section
5 712A-6 pending forfeiture and final disposition, the seizing
6 agency, at the agency's expense, shall ensure the safe and 7 secure storage of the property until the completion of 8 forfeiture proceedings or other disposition of the property as 9 provided in this chapter. Consistent with these requirements,
10 the seizing agency may do any of the following:

11 (a) Place the property under constructive seizure by 12 posting notice of seizure for forfeiture on the 13 property or by filing notice of seizure for forfeiture
14 or notice of pending forfeiture in any appropriate
15 public record relating to the property;

16 (b) Remove the property to a storage area for safekeeping
17 or, if the property is a negotiable instrument or 18 money, deposit it in an interest bearing account;

19 (c) Remove the property to a place designated by the 20 court; or

1 (d) Provide for another agency to take custody of the 2 property and remove it to an appropriate location
3 within the jurisdiction of the court."

4 2. By amending subsection (4) to read:

5 "(4) In the event of a seizure for forfeiture under 6 section 712A-6, the seizing agency shall send to a prosecuting
7 attorney a written ~~[request for forfeiture]~~ notice of the 8 seizure within thirty days, which shall include a statement of 9 facts and circumstances of the seizure, the appraised or 10 estimated value of the property, and a summary of the facts
11 relied on for forfeiture."

12 SECTION 6. Section 712A-9, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is
13 amended by amending subsection (1) to read as follows:

14 "(1) The prosecuting attorney shall determine whether it
15 is probable that the property is subject to forfeiture and, if 16 so, shall initiate ~~[administrative or]~~ judicial proceedings
17 against the property within forty-five days ~~[of receipt of a~~
18 ~~written request for forfeiture from a seizing agency.]~~ after the 19 owner of property has been convicted of a covered offense as set 20 forth in sections 712A-4 and 712A-5. If ~~[, or]~~ :

1        (a) On inquiry and examination, the prosecuting attorney
2                determines, with sole discretion, that the proceedings
3                probably cannot be sustained or that justice does not 4                require the institution of proceedings ~~[7]~~; or

5        (b) Upon entering of nolle prosequi or a verdict of not 6                guilty for all covered offenses relating to the 7                seizure,

8 the prosecuting attorney shall notify the seizing agency, and as 9 soon as practicable authorize the release of the seizure for 10 forfeiture on the property or on any specified interest in it.
11 A determination by the prosecuting attorney to forego initiation
12 of proceedings shall not be a bar to initiation of proceedings
13 against the same property based on the same circumstances at a 14 later time."

15        SECTION 7. Section 712A-11, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is
16 amended to read as follows:

17        "§712A-11 Judicial forfeiture proceedings; general. (1)
18 ~~[In any judicial or administrative proceeding]~~ All forfeiture
19 proceedings pursuant to this chapter ~~[7, the]~~ shall be conducted 20 in the circuit court, and no property shall be forfeited except 21 after conviction of a covered offense as provided under sections

1 712A-4 and 712A-5. The court, on application of the State, may
2 enter any restraining order or injunction, require the execution
3 of satisfactory performance bonds, create receiverships, appoint
4 conservators, appraisers, accountants or trustees, or take any 5 other action to seize, secure, maintain, or preserve the 6 availability of property subject to forfeiture under this 7 chapter, including a warrant for its seizure, whether before or 8 after the filing of a petition for forfeiture, complaint, or 9 indictment.

10 (2) If property is seized for forfeiture without a seizure
11 warrant, a prior judicial order of forfeiture, or a hearing
12 pursuant to section 712A-13, a court, on an application filed by 13 an owner or interest-holder within fifteen days after notice of 14 its seizure for forfeiture or actual knowledge of it, whichever 15 is earlier, and complying with the requirements for claims in 16 section 712A-12, may issue an order to show cause to the seizing
17 agency, with thirty days' notice to the prosecuting attorney, 18 for a hearing on the issue of whether probable cause for 19 forfeiture of the applicant's interest then exists[7] to 20 validate the continued seizure of the property pending the 21 outcome of a judicial forfeiture proceeding; provided that[7]

1 the order to show cause shall be set aside upon the filing of a
2 petition for [~~either administrative or~~] judicial forfeiture
3 prior to the hearing, in which event forfeiture proceedings
4 shall be in accordance with this chapter.

5 (3) [~~There shall be a rebuttable presumption that any~~] Any 6 property of a person is subject to forfeiture under this chapter
7 if the State establishes [~~, by the standard of proof applicable~~
8 ~~to that proceeding, all of the following:~~

9 ~~(a)~~ That] that the person has [~~engaged in~~] been convicted 10 of criminal conduct for which property is subject to 11 forfeiture[+], and the State establishes beyond a
12 reasonable doubt:

13 [~~(b)~~] (a) That the property was acquired by the person
14 during the period of the criminal conduct or within a 15 reasonable time after that period; and

16 [~~(c)~~] (b) That there was no likely source for the property
17 other than the criminal conduct giving rise to 18 forfeiture.

19 (4) A finding that property is the proceeds of criminal 20 conduct giving rise to forfeiture does not require proof that

1 the property is the proceeds [+]of[+] any particular exchange or 2 transaction.

3 (5) A defendant convicted in any criminal proceeding shall 4 be precluded from subsequently denying the essential allegations
5 of the criminal offense of which the defendant was convicted in 6 any proceeding pursuant to this chapter. For the purposes of 7 this chapter, a conviction may result from a verdict or plea,
8 including a no contest plea, [æ] deferred acceptance of guilty
9 plea, or deferred acceptance of no contest plea.

10 [~~(6)~~] ~~An acquittal or dismissal in a criminal proceeding~~
11 ~~shall not preclude civil proceedings under this chapter.~~

12 ~~(7)~~] (6) In any judicial forfeiture proceeding pursuant to 13 this chapter, if a defense is based on an exemption provided for 14 in this chapter, the burden of proving the existence of the 15 exemption is on the claimant or party raising the defense, and 16 it is not necessary to negate the exemption in any petition,
17 application, complaint, or indictment.

18 [~~(8)~~] (7) For good cause shown, on motion by the 19 prosecuting attorney, the court may stay discovery against the 20 State in civil forfeiture proceedings prior to trial on a
21 criminal complaint or indictment arising from the same conduct

1 and against a claimant who is a defendant in the criminal
2 proceeding after making provision to prevent loss to any party
3 resulting from the delay. The stay provided by this subsection
4 shall not be available pending appeal of any order or judgment
5 in the criminal proceeding.

6 ~~[(9)]~~ (8) The court shall receive and consider, at any 7 hearing held pursuant to this chapter, except the hearing on 8 claims pursuant to sections 712A-12(4) through (8) and 9 712A-13(7), evidence and information which would be admissible
10 under the rules of penal procedure relating to preliminary 11 hearings.

12 ~~[(10)]~~ (9) All property, including all interest in such 13 property, declared forfeited under this chapter vests in this 14 State on the commission of the act or omission giving rise to 15 forfeiture under this chapter together with the proceeds of the 16 property after the act or omission. Any property or proceeds
17 transferred to any person after the act or omission are subject 18 to forfeiture and thereafter shall be ordered forfeited [~~unless~~ 19 ~~the transferee claims and establishes in a hearing pursuant to~~ 20 ~~this chapter]~~ if the State has proven beyond a reasonable doubt
21 the showings set out in section 712A-5(2)."

1 SECTION 8. Section 712A-12, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is
2 amended as follows:

3 1. By amending subsection (1) to read:

4 "(1) In rem forfeiture proceedings are not permitted
5 except when the owner of the property has died without 6 successors in interest, cannot be located, or has abandoned
7 claims of ownership, and when the owner was deemed convicted of 8 a covered offense, as provided in section 712A-5 or when the 9 State claims that the owner would have been deemed convicted if 10 the owner had not died or disappeared. If a forfeiture is 11 authorized by law, it shall be ordered by a court on an action
12 in rem brought by the prosecuting attorney on a verified
13 petition for forfeiture filed in the criminal or civil division
14 of the circuit court."

15 2. By amending subsection (2) to read:

16 "(2) A civil in rem action may be brought in addition to 17 or in lieu of the civil and criminal in personam forfeiture
18 procedures set forth in sections 712A-13 and 712A-14 [~~or the~~ 19 ~~administrative forfeiture as set forth in section 712A-10~~].
20 Judicial in rem forfeiture proceedings are in the nature of an 21 action in rem and are governed by the rules of civil procedure

1 whether brought in the criminal or civil division of the circuit
2 court, unless a different procedure is provided by law."

3 3. By amending subsections (8) and (9) to read:

4 "(8) The State has the [initial] burden of [~~showing by a~~
5 ~~preponderance of the evidence~~] proving beyond a reasonable doubt 6 that the claimant's interest in the property is subject to 7 forfeiture. On such a showing by the State, the claimant has 8 the burden [~~of showing by a preponderance of the evidence that~~ 9 ~~the claimant's interest in the property is not subject to~~ 10 ~~forfeiture.~~] to show that the claimant holds a legal right,
11 title, or interest in the property seized and that the claimant
12 held an ownership interest in the seized property at the time
13 the illegal conduct that gave rise to the seizure of the 14 property occurred.

15 (9) In accordance with its findings at the hearing, the 16 court shall order an interest in property immediately returned
17 or conveyed to the claimant, if any, [~~who has established by a~~
18 ~~preponderance of the evidence that the~~] where the State has 19 failed to prove beyond a reasonable doubt that:

20 (a) The claimant had actual knowledge of the underlying 21 crime giving rise to the forfeiture; or

1        (b)    The claimant's interest is [~~not~~] subject to 2                    forfeiture[~~-~~] pursuant to section 712A-5.

3    The court shall order all other property, including all
4    interests in the property, forfeited to the State and proceed
5    pursuant to sections 712A-15 and 712A-16."

6            SECTION 9.    Section 712A-13, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is
7    amended as follows:

8            1.    By amending subsection (1) to read:

9            "(1)    If a forfeiture is authorized by law, it shall be 10    ordered by a court on a petition for forfeiture filed by the 11    prosecuting attorney in an in personam civil or criminal action.
12    In any civil in personam action brought under this section, the 13    owner or interest-holder may testify, present evidence and 14    witnesses on the owner or interest-holder's behalf, and cross-
15    examine witnesses who appear at the hearing.    The State may 16    present evidence and witnesses in rebuttal and in defense of its 17    claim to the property and cross-examine witnesses who appear at 18    the hearing.    The State has the [~~initial~~] burden of [~~showing by~~ 19    ~~a preponderance of the evidence~~] proving beyond a reasonable 20    doubt that the owner or interest-holder's interest in the 21    property is subject to forfeiture[~~-~~] pursuant to section 712A-5.

1 ~~[On such a showing by the State, the owner or interest holder~~
2 ~~has the burden of showing by a preponderance of the evidence~~
3 ~~that the owner or interest holder's interest in the property is~~ 4 ~~not subject to forfeiture.] "~~

5 2. By amending subsection (7) to read:

6 "(7) Procedures subsequent to the verdict or finding of 7 liability and order of forfeiture shall be as follows:

8 (a) Following the entry of an order of forfeiture, the 9 clerk of the court shall give notice of pending
10 forfeiture to owners and interest-holders who have not
11 previously been given notice, if any, in the manner
12 provided in section 712A-8;

13 (b) Any owner or interest-holder, other than a party or a
14 defendant in the underlying in personam action,
15 asserting an interest in property that has been 16 ordered forfeited pursuant to such action, within 17 thirty days after initial notice of pending forfeiture
18 or after notice under paragraph (a) of this 19 subsection, whichever is earlier, may file a claim as 20 described in section 712A-12(5), in the court for a

1 hearing to adjudicate the validity of the person's 2 claimed interest in the property;

3 (c) The hearing on the claim, to the extent practicable
4 and consistent with the interest of justice, shall be 5 held within sixty days after the order of forfeiture.
6 The court may consolidate the hearing on the claim
7 with a hearing on any other claim filed by a person
8 other than a party or defendant in the underlying 9 action and concerning the same property;

10 (d) The hearing shall be conducted in the manner provided 11 for in rem judicial forfeiture actions including the 12 provisions of section 712A-12(7) and (8). In addition
13 to testimony and evidence presented at the hearing, 14 the court shall consider the relevant portions of the 15 record of the underlying civil or criminal action that 16 resulted in the order of forfeiture; and

17 (e) In accordance with its findings at the hearing, the 18 court may amend the order of forfeiture if it
19 determines that any claimant has ~~[established by a~~ 20 ~~preponderance of the evidence that]~~ met the burden of

- 7           ~~petition for remission or mitigation of forfeiture.~~
- 8           ~~However, no petitioner is entitled to a hearing on the~~

- 14           ~~for remission or mitigation within sixty days of~~
- 15           ~~receipt of the petition unless the circumstances of~~
- 16           ~~the case require additional time, in which case the~~
- 17           ~~attorney general shall notify the petitioner in~~
- 18           ~~writing and with specificity within the sixty day~~
- 19           ~~period that the circumstances of the case require~~
- 20           ~~additional time and further notify the petitioner of~~

8       ~~if the claimant fails to prove that claimant's~~
9       ~~interest is exempt from forfeiture under section 712A-~~
10       ~~5, the claimant shall pay the State's costs and~~
11       ~~expenses, including reasonable attorneys fees incurred~~
12       ~~in connection with a judicial proceeding. In lieu of~~ 13       ~~a cost bond, a claimant may file an in pauperis bond~~
14       ~~sworn on oath before a notary public. An in pauperis~~
15       ~~bond shall be in the form set out in the appendix to~~ 16       ~~the rules of penal procedure. The claim shall be~~ 17       ~~signed by the claimant and sworn on oath before a~~
18       ~~notary public and shall comply with the requirements~~
19       ~~of section 712A 12(5). Upon receipt of the claim and~~ 20       ~~bond, the attorney general shall notify the~~ 21       ~~prosecuting attorney who may discretionarily continue~~

1 ~~to seek forfeiture by petitioning the circuit court~~
2 ~~for forfeiture of the property within forty five days~~

7 ~~the release of the seizure for forfeiture on the~~ 8 ~~property or on any specified interest in it.~~

9 ~~(10) If a judicial forfeiture proceeding is instituted~~
10 ~~subsequent to notice of administrative forfeiture~~
11 ~~pursuant to paragraph (9), no duplicate or repetitive~~
12 ~~notice shall be required. The judicial proceeding, if~~ 13 ~~any, shall adjudicate all timely filed claims. At the~~ 14 ~~judicial proceeding, the claimant may testify, present~~
15 ~~evidence and witnesses on the claimant's behalf, and~~
16 ~~cross examine witnesses who appear at the hearing.~~
17 ~~The State may present evidence and witnesses in~~
18 ~~rebuttal and in defense of its claim to the property~~
19 ~~and cross examine witnesses who appear at the hearing.~~
20 ~~The State has the initial burden of showing by a~~
21 ~~preponderance of the evidence that the claimant's~~

1 ~~interest in the property is subject to forfeiture. On~~
2 ~~such a showing by the State, the claimant has the~~
3 ~~burden of showing by a preponderance of the evidence~~
4 ~~that the claimant's interest in the property is not~~
5 ~~subject to forfeiture.~~

6 ~~(11) In the event a claim and bond has not been filed in~~ 7 ~~substantial compliance with this section, or if the~~ 8 ~~attorney general, with sole discretion, determines~~
9 ~~that remission or mitigation is not warranted, the~~ 10 ~~attorney general shall order forfeited all property~~
11 ~~seized for forfeiture. In the event the attorney~~
12 ~~general, with sole discretion, determines that~~
13 ~~remission or mitigation is warranted, the attorney~~
14 ~~general shall notify the seizing agency and the~~ 15 ~~prosecuting attorney and order the release of the~~ 16 ~~seizure for forfeiture on the property or on any~~
17 ~~specified interest in it. There shall be no appeal~~
18 ~~from the attorney general's decision or order of~~ 19 ~~forfeiture or remission or mitigation.~~

20 ~~(12) Administrative proceedings and the adoption of rules~~ 21 ~~under this section are exempt from the requirements of~~

1 ~~chapter 91, the Hawaii administrative procedure act,~~

Report Title:

Civil Asset Forfeiture

Description:

Restricts asset forfeiture to cases involving the commission of a covered criminal misdemeanor or felony offense. Requires seized property to be forfeited only when the property owner has been convicted of an underlying covered criminal misdemeanor or felony offense. Changes the standard of proof that the State must meet in order for property to be forfeited from "preponderance of the evidence" to "beyond a reasonable doubt". Requires the State to prove that owners consented to or possessed knowledge of the crime that led to the seizure of their property. Requires that the agency seizing the property pay for safe and secure storage of the seized property until the completion of the forfeiture proceeding or final disposition of the property. Directs any proceeds from a civil forfeiture to the general revenue fund for public education purposes. Repeals administrative forfeiture proceedings.
