SENATE RESOLUTION

URGING LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCIES TO MONITOR PARKS AND OTHER AREAS
NEAR SCHOOLS DURING SCHOOL HOURS TO DETECT INDIVIDUALS WHO MAY BE STUDENTS, AND TO ENFORCE THE STATE TRUANCY LAW.

1 WHEREAS, section 302A-1132, Hawaii Revised Statutes,
2 commonly known as the State's truancy law, generally requires 3 that children five to eighteen years of age attend school; and 4

5 WHEREAS, truancy is one of the warning signs that a student 6 may be headed for delinquent activity, social isolation, or 7 educational failure due to dropping out of school; and 8

9 WHEREAS, the lack of commitment to school is a risk factor
10 for substance abuse, delinquency, teen pregnancy, and dropping 11 out of school; and 12

13 WHEREAS, those who do not graduate from high school utilize
14 more government-funded social services than high school 15 graduates, with the average high school dropout costing the 16 government more than $200,000 over the course of a lifetime; and 17

18 WHEREAS, in response to Senate Concurrent Resolution 74, 19 Senate Draft 1, Regular Session of 2009, the Department of 20 Education convened a Working Group on Truancy Rate Reduction to 21 develop guidelines to reduce the truancy rate in public schools; 22 and
23

24 WHEREAS, one of the recommendations made by the Working
25 Group on Truancy Rate Reduction was to collaborate with law 26 enforcement; and 27

28 WHEREAS, while section 302A-1136, Hawaii Revised Statutes,
29 vests enforcement of the State's truancy law with the Department
30 of Education, that section does not also relieve the chiefs of 31 police from enforcement of the same laws; and 32

33 WHEREAS, students have been observed loitering in parks
34 near schools and law enforcement agencies have not been actively

WHEREAS, students have been observed loitering in parks near schools and law enforcement agencies have not been actively collaborating with schools to vigorously enforce the State's truancy law; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate of the Thirtieth Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session of 2020, the House of Representatives concurring, that law enforcement agencies are urged to monitor parks and other areas near schools during school hours to detect individuals who may be students, and to enforce the state truancy law; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that certified copies of this Concurrent Resolution be transmitted to the Superintendent of Education and chiefs of police of each county.
