

Konrad Kalaho'ohie Mossman

GOV. MSG. NO. 587

Education:

Kamehameha Schools grade 1-12,

University of Hawai'i at Hilo, , BA earned in Hawaiian Studies and Anthropology

University of Hawai'i at Mānoa, , MA candidate in Anthropology/Archaeology

Kapi'olani Community College, 1/1992 – 5/1992, EMT certificate earned

Hawai'i Community College, 8/2012 – 7/2013, Certificate in Digital Media Art earned

Hawai'i Community College, 1 year toward AAS in Architectural Engineering and CAD Technologies.

University of Hawai'i at Hilo, BA earned in Art

University of Hawai'i at Hilo, MA earned in Heritage Management

Work Experience:

January 1991 – present, Kalāhui Hawaiian Products. Owner/Artist, create traditional and contemporary Hawaiian art pieces specializing in sculpture, painting and digital media art.

May 2017 – present, Edith Kanaka'ole Foundation. Executive Officer, manages day to day operations of a non-profit organization including programing, grant management, fund raising, human resources and fiscal management. Works with EKF leadership to develop programing and services. Principal Investigator for archeological, ethnological and indigenous knowledge research for EKF a CESU organization.

May 2014 – May 2017, Edith Kanaka'ole Foundation. Operations Manager, oversees all operations of non-profit organization including resource management and grant writing.

August 2013 – May 2014, Edith Kanaka'ole Foundation. Teacher for Noho Papa, teaches at an extended day learning program for Hawaiian immersion school students focusing on a place based curriculum which introduces our students to various fields of study in hopes of assisting them in finding their personal interests. Duties include instruction of children K-8 in various subjects.

September 2005 – May 2014, Edith Kanaka'ole Foundation. Site Manager and instructor for a non-profit organization, duties include management of land, ocean and fishpond resources and instructing and facilitating groups of students focusing in 'āina based education focusing on STEAM initiatives.

October 2001 – September 2005, Edith Kanaka'ole Foundation, Papahulilani Project. Site Manger and instructor, duties included management and coordination of all fieldwork for a curriculum development grant concerning Hawaiian astronomy, coordinating the building of a traditional canoe with high school students, oversee all voyaging and ocean activities as the safety officer.

October 2000 – August 2005, Edith Kanaka'ole Foundation, Ku'ula Project. Project Director, Oversee all aspects of a 'āina based curriculum development project having to do with our ocean resources

March 1997 – March 2001, Edith Kanaka'ole Foundation, Site restoration projects. Site Coordinator, duties included the rehabilitation of various sites on Hawaii Island including wetland taro field systems, fishpond and coastal areas, and inland areas as well as coordinating volunteers, giving oral presentations and assisting with 'āina based curriculum development.

September 1991 - February 2011, Hawai'i County Fire Department, Fire Fighter/EMT, duties included firefighting, responding to search and rescue calls, emergency medical calls and hazardous materials situations. Duties also included overseeing a crew of 5 fire fighters in day to day operations and in emergency situations as the Captain of the crew.

September 1990 – September 1991, Bishop Museum Amy Greenwell Gardens, Researcher, duties included the study of Hawaiian cultivars for their implementation into the garden and interpretive displays.

May 1987 – July 1989, Paul H. Rosendahl Inc. – PHRI, Archaeological Technician, duties included archaeological survey, excavation, mapping, data analysis, lab work, collections management, research and report writing.

Teaching and Educational experience:

Dorm aid and advisor for Explorations program in 1984 and 1985 respectively (Kaipo Hale)

Hawaiian Language teacher for Keaukaha Community 1984 (Paul Neves)

Na Pua No'eau teacher for Nā Imiloa program for high school students 1993 (David Sing)

DOE Kupuna Program teacher 1994 (Pua Case)

Edith Kanaka'ole Foundation, teacher various programs 1991 – present (Kekuhi Keali'ikanaka'oleohaililani)

Publications

2017 Mossman, Konrad Kalāho'ohie, Restoration of 'Īmakakkāloa Heiau, Ka'alāiki, Ka'ū Hawai'i: Redefining Ancient Structures For a Living Culture. Master's Thesis, Department of Anthropology. ProQuest, Ann Arbor.

1993 Brown, Daniel E, Koenig, Tupou V, Demorales, Alexis M, Mossman, Konrad K, Akina, Charlene, Sako, Ehukai K, Relation of subcutaneous fat distribution to percentage of Polynesian ancestry in Hawaiian children. American Journal of Human Biology, Vol. 5, issue 1 Pg. 9-15.

Other skills and certifications:

American Red cross Lifeguard instructor

American Red cross Lifeguard, CPR for the professional and first responder

American Heart CPR instructor

PADI Dive Master

Cultural practitioner (Master Carver)

Licensed to conduct archaeology as the PI in the State of Hawai'i

Subsistence fisherman and hunter

Farmer