

Christopher G. Hannigan

Objective

To provide effective tax resolutions for the Hawaii Board of Taxation Review

Work experience

2010-Present Midnight Oil, Inc. Hilo, Hawaii
President/CEO

- Manage and run small accounting firm which provides general accounting, tax preparation, and software support for local organizations and businesses

2006-2010 Midnight Oil, Inc. Hilo, Hawaii
Account Manager

- Tasks included bookkeeping data entry and payroll processing for multiple clients
- Added network services to company offerings to diversify product line and transitioned the corporate office from standalone computers, to peer-to-peer network, to a Windows Server 2003/2008 domain.

2000-2010 Sears Hilo, Hawaii
Electronics Sales Associate

- Extensive retail sales experience in commission-only environment.
- Tasks included stock-work, floor maintenance, etc., as well as selling process

Education

University of Hawaii – Hilo Hilo, Hawaii
Bachelor of Business Administration

- Graduated AACSB accredited institution.
- Attended classes full-time while working full-time for second enrollment period.

2013 Department of the Treasury Hilo, Hawaii
Enrolled Agent of the IRS

- Passed the Special Enrollment Examination to gain certification as EA

Computer Skills

Setup and administration of Windows Server environments including usage of Terminal Services (RDP) and user/computer management (AD). Configuration of Multi-Site VPNs including off-site access to devices (e.g., remote printing and camera access). Software usage includes QuickBooks, Sage BusinessWorks, and other software as used in the accounting profession