

Resume for Ian Robin Kaye

In 1974, Robin and his wife moved to Lāna‘i to document a threatened lifestyle as the island was facing a transition from a pineapple plantation economy to resort development. In 1981, with the University of Hawaii Press, he published a photographic documentary called Lāna‘i Folks. Shortly thereafter, Robin began a career in the arts and nonprofit sectors, working for the Hawai‘i State Foundation on Culture and the Arts, the California Arts Council, the Pennsylvania Council on the Arts, and the Pittsburgh Cultural Trust.

In 1992, he and a partner launched the management consulting firm of Dewey & Kaye, Inc. (DKI), which worked with nonprofit organizations, foundations and government agencies. Robin's work with nonprofits involved board development, long range planning, and executive searches for foundation program staff and nonprofit executive directors. Robin was one of the original founders of the Lana‘i Limu Restoration Project, and currently serves as spokesperson for Friends of Lāna‘i. He serves on the Board of the Conservation Council for Hawaii, and is an active advocate for several Lana‘i nonprofit organizations.
