The Department of Transportation (DOT) strongly supports the confirmation of Colonel Stephen Logan as the Deputy Adjutant General of the Department of Defense (DOD).

Colonel Logan received his BA from Chaminade University and received his MA in Strategic Studies at the United States Army War College.

With more than 30 years of service, he has served in significant positions of authority with the DOD whereby the DOT worked alongside him to enhance our ability to face challenges that the state must confront. Colonel Logan's strength is that he is keenly aware of the challenges that Hawaii faces today and those that we will most likely face in the future and the critical role that DOD and DOT will play in meeting those challenges.

In view of the increasing importance of disaster and emergency management, we have made concerted efforts with other stakeholders to coordinate, design, and implement effective measures that can substantially abate losses in the event of a disaster. We have full confidence that under Colonel Logan's leadership we will continue to make great strides in increasing the state's capacity to prepare for and deal with the threat of a disaster, man-made or natural.

RE: GM 505, Submitting for Consideration and Confirmation as the Deputy Adjutant General of the Department of Defense, Gubernatorial Nominee, Stephen F. Logan, for a term to expire at noon on 12/05/2022

Chair Nishihara, Vice Chair Wakai, and Members of the Committee:

The Chamber of Commerce Hawaii ("The Chamber") supports the confirmation of Colonel Stephen F. Logan's nomination as the Deputy Adjutant General of the Department of Defense.

The Chamber is the largest business organization in Hawaii, representing 2,000+ businesses. Approximately 80% of our members are small businesses with less than 20 employees. As the "Voice of Business" in Hawaii, the organization works on behalf of its members, which employ more than 200,000 individuals, to improve the state's economic climate and to foster positive action on issues of common concern.

Additionally, the Hawaii Military Affairs Council (MAC) was established in 1985 as part of the Chamber, and advocates on behalf of Hawaii's military, and is comprised of business leaders and retired U.S. flag and general officers. The MAC works to support Hawaii's location as a strategic U.S. headquarters in the Indo-Asia-Pacific region.

Colonel Logan has served in the military for over 35 years and has held numerous leadership roles, including 29th Infantry Brigade Combat Team (IBCT) Commander in Hawaii, 29th IBCT Deputy Brigade Commander in Afghanistan, Hawaii Air National Guard (HIANG) Army Aviation Division Chief, and 103rd Troop Command Commander. Most recently, he served as the HIANG Chief of Staff.

Colonel Logan is duly qualified for the position and we believe he will make a positive contribution to the Department of Defense based on his extensive experience. His knowledge and understanding of the industry will serve the Department of Defense well. We are confident that he will execute his duties with integrity, fairness, and with a collaborative approach as demonstrated through his military service. For the reasons above, we respectfully request your favorable consideration of his nomination.

Thank you for the opportunity to testify in favor of this nomination.

Re: GM 505-Submitting for consideration and confirmation as the Deputy Adjutant General of the Department of Defense, Gubernatorial Nominee, Colonel Stephen Logan

My name is Gary Yabuta and I am the Executive Director for the Office of the National Drug Control Policy, Hawaii High Intensity Drug Trafficking Areas (HIDTA). It is with great honor that I express my support for confirmation of Stephen Logan for the position of State of Hawaii, Deputy Adjutant General.

Hawaii is among 33 HIDTA regions throughout our Nation, and the mission of each HIDTA region is to facilitate and enhance local, state and federal law enforcement efforts to dismantle and disrupt drug organizations, enterprises and operations. We are a grant-funded under the Executive Office of the President.

Before becoming the Hawaii HIDTA Executive Director, I was the Chief of Police for the Maui Police Department until I retired on July 31, 2014. As the Chief of Police, I was a Hawaii HIDTA Executive Board Member and I became an acquaintance and then a friend of Colonel Stephen Logan, who represented the Hawaii National Guard. He was also a well-respected police officer for the Honolulu Police Department before fully dedicating himself to serve our country and Hawaii in his military position. Today, Colonel Stephen Logan and General Hara are Executive Board members of the Hawaii HIDTA, and proudly sit with Hawaii's federal, state and local law enforcement and criminal justice partners, during their decision-making responsibilities in appropriating HIDTA assets to our local police, prosecutors, State Attorney General, U.S. Attorney and federal counterparts.

In my opinion, there is no one better suited than Stephen Logan for the position of Deputy Adjutant General. He is ethically and professionally sound, and he is dedicated to this community, Hawaii, and Country. His military and law enforcement achievements are beyond distinction. This blend of military and police leadership will catapult his opportunity to provide essential services relating to civil defense and civil order, and he will safeguard us all against natural catastrophes and terrorism.

Sincerely,

Gary Yabuta
Executive Director
Hawaii HIDTA

I fully support the confirmation of Colonel Stephen F. Logan as Deputy Adjutant General for the Hawaii National Guard and State of Hawaii Department of Defense. Colonel Logan has the capacity to make a positive impact at this position. He possesses the leadership, experience, insight, integrity, compassion and competence that successfully embodied his character in previous positions such as the State Army Aviation Officer, Deputy United States Property and Fiscal Office, and the Chief of Staff, Hawaii Army National Guard. His military positions held validated his leadership abilities while serving as the Commander of the 29 Infantry Brigade Combat Team, Commander, 103D Troop Command, and as a qualified C-26 and CH-47 Pilot. He is a well rounded leader that has the full understand of this organization. He has played major roles in successfully responding and supporting State emergencies, such as wildland fires, floods, storms, lava flows and earthquakes as primary staff and dual status deputy commander. He is a strategic and critical thinker who understands how to get things done at all levels of government, this includes local, state and federal governments. His main objective has always been to provide a safe and secure environment for the citizens of the State of Hawaii.

Subj: GM 505 : Consideration and confirmation as the Deputy Adjutant General of the Department of Defense, Gubernatorial Nominee, STEPHEN F. LOGAN.

I'm in strong support of Governor Ige's nomination of STEPHEN F. LOGAN for the position of Deputy Adjutant General of the Department of Defense.

I had the privilege of working with Colonel Logan for several years with groups that have interfaced both military and civilian groups at the local, national and international levels. I have seen how he treats people at all levels with dignity and respect.

With the experience he has from his past positions, he is an excellent candidate for directing, coordinating, organizing, and stationing the Army and Air National Guards of the State of Hawaii, and federal and state civilians, ensuring their readiness to perform state and national missions.

Having grown up in Hawaii and having a family of his own allows him a unique perspective to make decisions that are in the best interest of the people of Hawaii.

Please vote yes to move GM 505 forward.

- His military assignments include several key leadership and staff positions. He excelled in these assignments. Prior to assuming the Deputy Adjutant General's position, he served as the Chief of Staff for the Hawai'i Army National Guard.
- He served as the Deputy United States Property and Fiscal Officer (Army). The United States Property and Fiscal Office supervises the acquisition, supply and accountability for Federal property issued to the National Guard.

COLONEL (COL) STEPHEN F. LOGAN, for a term to expire 12-5-2022.

Dear Chair Nishihara, Vice Chair Wakai, and Members of the Committee:

I would like to express my wholehearted support to COL Stephen F. Logan for his confirmation as the Deputy Adjutant General of the State Department of Defense. I have known COL Logan for over 15 years and served with him in uniform and as a member of the State Department of Defense. He is a passionate and compassionate leader who has earned the respect of his troops and all he comes into contact with. Elevated to many senior commander positions within the Hawaii Army National Guard, he has a proven track record of dealing with short notice deployments and real world disasters like the Puna lava flow by being cool, calm and collective in his approach to resolving potentially volatile issues at hand. He thrives in critical and stressful environments and can be counted on to provide the right decisions at the right time.

I have also personally worked with COL Logan on several important Veteran initiatives and have found him to be very supportive when it comes to helping our Veterans. He has gotten directly involved in our quest for improving military retiree ID card support and our second State Veterans Home working with legislators and with members of the community. His work in defining and orchestrating the Strategic Communications Plan for the State Department of Defense has helped immensely by unifying all six divisions with a common site picture in supporting our communities. I am confident he will excel and continue to do very well in supporting and shaping our future as the Deputy Adjutant General for the State of Hawaii.

It is my pleasure to write in support of Col. Stephen F. Logan for the position of Deputy Adjutant General, Department of Defense.

I have known Col. Logan for more than twenty years in a personal as well as professional capacity and I feel confident recognizing a future effective leader for the position of Deputy Adjutant General. In my capacity as a citizen and Hawaii small business owner for more than 25 years, I can say without a doubt that Col. Logan would serve in this position professionally and efficiently.

During numerous community situations I have seen him handle himself calmly and with confidence. Col. Logan is a natural leader, but more importantly, he is respectful of colleagues and others in ranking positions. Col. Logan recognizes the value of commanding a team, and works well in stressful situations. He defines the role of a deputy commander with the ability to both lead and follow. To the general public, he exudes a calm and composed demeanor, a definite plus when providing direction during a civilian or military crisis situation.

I believe strongly in Col. Logan's potential for success as Deputy Adjutant General and I hope you will accept my recommendation for his appointment.
