I've worked alongside Anthony Mendez and witness his passion in the work that he does. I;ve known him for about 14+ years now. He's expanded to become one of a handful of independent trainers with the Dept.of Health/ADAD that helps our CSAC certified community in continuing the work they do in addressing substance abuse cases in our state. I believe he would be a great candidate for the position he is applying for.

To whomever it may concern:

I have known Anthony for over 20 years and I know him to be an excellent father who cares very much about the well being of his son and always works to make sure he is in the healthiest of circumstances and is happy and healthy.

Even when it is not easy he works hard to make everything comfortable and healthy for his son. This I hold in a higher place than for a person who everything is easy, and they don't have to put in much work to make sure their son is feeling and expressing positively.

I consider Anthony Mendez to be a very upstanding person who would do the honor of being a model father for the State of Hawaii's "Commission on Fatherhood." I say this without hesitation and based on everything I have seen and heard from him over the years.

Anyone who wishes may feel free to call me to ask any further questions. As I entered my phone number on the form for this testimony.

Sincerely,

Shannon M. Gay

Aloha kakou

This comment is in regards to Anthony Mendez's volunteering to work with the state's board/committee on fatherhood.

While I have known him for many years, our relationship has been one of acquaintances. With that in mind, all of our interactions have shown him to be an intelligent, kind & responsible individual.

I believe he would make a great addition to the committee & hope that the works of the committee are able to benefit families throughout the state.

Aloha,
