1 WHEREAS, Hawaii is already experiencing the impacts of 2 climate change, including rising sea levels, extreme tides,
3 accelerated coastal erosion, and stronger, more frequent storms;
4 and

5
6 WHEREAS, in 2017, the Hawaii Climate Change Mitigation and 7 Adaptation Commission produced the first Hawaii Sea Level Rise
8 Vulnerability and Adaptation Report that identified areas that 9 are susceptible to a sea level rise impacts and urged immediate 10 preparation to a 3.2-foot increase in sea level by 2060; and

11
12 WHEREAS, on January 14, 2019, at the State's first annual 13 climate conference, an expert panel on climate change
14 recommended that the State "consider adopting a community
15 resilience building planning process to help Hawaii's 16 communities, counties, and institutions of any scale to identify 17 their top priorities based on climate change hazards cross-18 reference to strengths and vulnerabilities relative to 19 infrastructure, social, and environmental characteristics"; and

20
21 WHEREAS, the Hawaii Sea Level Rise Vulnerability and 22 Adaptation Report also finds that sea level rise would result
23 in significant adverse impacts to roads, airports, harbors,
24 electrical and telecommunications, water/wastewater facilities
25 and conveyance systems, and other public service and recreation 26 facilities on the island of Hawaii; and

28 chronic flooding with five feet of sea level rise in Kailua-
29 Kona, Hawaii; and 30

31 WHEREAS, the current pavilion at Kahaluu Bay is perceived 32 as the focal gathering point of the Kahaluu Beach Park; and

35 Plan sponsored by the Kohala Center and the County of Hawaii
36 Planning Department found that the current pavilion is much

38 vulnerable to continuous wave action, storm damage, and 39 additional damage due to sea level rise to the current walls, 40 structures, and facilities; and 41

1 WHEREAS, the Kahaluu Beach Park Conceptual Master Plan
2 recommended the relocation of the pavilion back from the 3 shoreline to protect the structure from structural damage that

12 avoid damage from sea level rise; and 13

14 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the master plan for relocating
