SHEILA GUZMAN	Individual	Support	No

Comments:

To whom it may concern,

Please consider this bill which appropriately revises the definition of an individual "income" to include tips and gratuities received by a customer. This is synchronous with many financial institutions and agencies which acknowledges they are earnings and require individuals to report it as such. With this revision, families facing legal actions in family court relating to either child or spousal support can properly calculate and determine an accurate monetary support. My hope is that it provides greater transparency and alleviates many pain for families going through the process. Mahalo for your consideration.

Respectfully,

Sheila Guzman
