Re: S.B. No. 939

The Hawai‘i Civil Rights Commission (HCRC) has enforcement jurisdiction over Hawai‘i’s laws prohibiting discrimination in employment, housing, public accommodations, and access to state and state funded services. The HCRC carries out the Hawai‘i constitutional mandate that no person shall be discriminated against in the exercise of their civil rights. Art. I, Sec. 5.

S.B. No. 939 would designate June 19 of each year as Juneteenth Day to commemorate the end of slavery in the United States. Juneteenth is the day that the news of emancipation reached the last state, Texas, in 1866, over two years after the Emancipation Proclamation was issued. The measure does not make Juneteenth a state holiday.

HCRC supports this measure. Juneteenth is a historical day for both African Americans and the country as a whole. It also shows how justice has been delayed for Black people. Considerable barriers remain for racial equality, and commemoration of Juneteenth is a step towards recognizing that.

The HCRC supports S.B. No. 939.

RE: Testimony in Support of SB 939 – Relating to Juneteenth Day

Aloha Chair Moriwaki, Chair Dela Cruz, and members of the committees,

Thank you for the opportunity to express my support for SB 939, Relating to Juneteenth Day. Last year I had the honor of introducing Resolution 20-154, FD1, which proclaimed June 19th as Juneteenth Day in the City and County of Honolulu. The measure was approved unanimously by the Honolulu City Council.

Juneteenth is an important date because it represents June 19, 1865, the date when Major General Gordon Granger arrived in Galveston and announced the emancipation of enslaved people in Texas through General Order No. 3, almost two and one-half years after United States President Abraham Lincoln issued the Emancipation Proclamation.

The first Black people arrived in the Hawaiian Islands in the early 1800's as deckhands on merchant and whaling ships, and came from Cape Verde, Africa, the Caribbean, and the United States. These early Black residents ended their maritime careers and settled in Hawaii, with many of them becoming successful musicians, businessmen, and respected government officials.

A decade before the United States Civil War and the Emancipation Proclamation, the Kingdom of Hawaii Constitution of 1852 provided that "Slavery shall, under no circumstances whatsoever, be tolerated in the Hawaiian Islands; whenever a slave shall enter Hawaiian territory he shall be free, no person who imports a slave or slaves, into the King's dominions shall ever enjoy any civil or political rights in this realm."

In 1897, Black citizens of the Kingdom of Hawaii joined Kanaka Maoli in their fight for liberation by signing the Ku'e Petition, protesting the annexation of the Kingdom of Hawaii by the United States. The sustained and substantial contributions of Black people to Hawaii's community throughout its history include:

- Anthony D. Allen, formerly enslaved, who was a steward to King Kamehameha I.
- Oliver and George Washington Hyatt, both served as the first two leaders of the Royal Hawaiian Band under King Kamehameha III.
- Betsey Stockton, formerly enslaved, started the first mission school in Lahaina open to the common people.
- The Buffalo Soldiers, who built the 18-mile trail to the summit of Mauna Loa.
- Alice A. Ball, a chemist who was the first woman to earn a master's degree from the University of Hawaii at Manoa and discovered the first treatment for leprosy (the "Ball Method").
- Dr. Donniss Thompson, the University of Hawaii's first women's athletic director who started the Rainbow Wahine athletics program and successful wahine volleyball program.

There are also many, many more unnamed contributors to Hawaii's excellence and history.

The history of the African American and indigenous island communities across the Pacific have endured shared systemic oppression and adversity, and have exhibited historical solidarity with the civil rights movements in the United States, including multiple visits by Dr. Martin Luther King to Oahu in 1959 and 1964, and with Dr. King and other civil rights leaders symbolic wearing of lei gifted to them by Reverend Abraham Akaka during the historic 1965 civil rights march from Selma to Montgomery, Alabama.

Observing Juneteenth Day is about embracing cultural diversity and respect, thus it is fitting to elevate June 19th as a remembrance and celebration for the entire state. For these reasons, I wholeheartedly support SB 939.

Dear Chair Moriwaki, Chair Dela Cruz, and Members of the Committees:

Thank you for this opportunity to provide testimony in SUPPORT of SB 939, Relating to Juneteenth Day. My testimony is submitted in my individual capacity as a Member of the Kaua'i County Council.

SB 939 proposes to create an official day of observance for Juneteenth to commemorate the end of Slavery in the United States and to honor the significant role that African Americans have contributed to the strength of this country. As this will not be a State holiday, it will require no expense. Hawai'i would be well served to join the other 47 states that recognize June 19th as an important commemoration for a shift to furthering a more fair and equitable treatment of this ethnic group that played a painful and profound role in the formulation of the United States. While our black population is relatively small in Hawai'i, this perhaps creates greater importance that this part of our ethnic family understands they are valued and fully respected in Hawai'i Nei.

Mahalo for considering my testimony and the work on this important bill. Should you have any questions, please feel free to contact me or Council Services Staff at (808) 241-4188 or via E-mail to cokcouncil@kauai.gov.

Sincerely,

Subject: Testimony in Support of SB 939 Relating to Juneteenth Day
Hearing: Tuesday, March 2, 2021 at 10:00 a.m.

This testimony is in support of SB 939, which would establish June 19 of each year as Juneteenth Day in the State of Hawai'i. Juneteenth, also known as "Juneteenth Independence Day," "Black Independence Day," "Emancipation Day," "Emancipation Celebration," and "Freedom Day," is the oldest nationally celebrated commemoration of the ending of slavery in the United States. Juneteenth is a day to honor and reflect on the significant roles and contributions that African Americans have played in the history of the United States and in Hawai'i, celebrating resilience and strength and promoting unity, equality, and respect for all cultures.

On July 8, 2020, the Honolulu City Council unanimously adopted Resolution 20-154, FD1, proclaiming the annual date of June 19 to be "Juneteenth" in the City and County of Honolulu.

Thank you for allowing me the opportunity to submit testimony. For the foregoing reasons, I respectfully request your passage of SB 939 and urge the State of Hawai'i to join 47 other states, along with the City and County of Honolulu, in recognizing and celebrating Juneteenth in our Aloha State.

Sincerely,

Common Cause Hawaii supports SB 939, which establishes June 19 of each year as Juneteenth Day.

Common Cause Hawaii is a nonprofit, nonpartisan, grassroots organization dedicated to upholding the core values of American democracy. We work to promote equal rights, opportunity, and representation for all.

SB 939 will recognize the importance of Juneteenth in American history. Even with the Emancipation Proclamation, which declared that as of January 1, 1863, all enslaved people in the states currently engaged in rebellion against the Union “shall be then, thenceforward, and forever free”, and the Civil War’s end in May 1865, confederate states still kept people enslaved. Union troops did not reach the westernmost confederate state of Texas, until June 19, 1865, which became known as Juneteenth, to end slavery. Juneteenth commemorates the freedom, equality, and dignity for all people that this nation is still striving to achieve.

Thank you for the opportunity to testify in support of SB 939. If you have further questions of me, please contact me at sma@commoncause.org.

RE: Testimony in Support of SB939

Dear Senators,

Young Progressives Demanding Action strongly supports SB939. It is way past time for Hawai'i to join the 47 other states that honor this important day. Juneteenth, also known as "Freedom Day," commemorates the ending of slavery in the United States on June 19, 1865. North Dakota, South Dakota and Hawai'i are the only states that do not celebrate Juneteenth. "The Aloha State" should acknowledge this historic and longstanding holiday.

Hawai'i has a proud history of being on the forefront of racial and social justice. As early as 1852 the Kingdom of Hawai'i wrote into law that "Slavery shall, under no circumstances whatsoever, be tolerated in the Hawaiian Islands; whenever a slave shall enter Hawaiian territory he shall be free, no person who imports a slave or slaves, into the King's dominions shall ever enjoy any civil or political rights." Rightfully recognizing Juneteenth will not only uphold this legacy, but will also send a message of solidarity to all of Hawai'i's African-American community members.

STRONG SUPPORT FOR SB 939 - JUNETEENTH DAY

Aloha Chairs, Vice Chairs, and Members of the Committees:

My name is Kat Brady and I am the Coordinator of Community Alliance on Prisons, a community initiative promoting smart justice policies in Hawai`i for more than two decades. This testimony is respectfully offered on behalf of the more than 4,100 Hawai`i individuals living behind bars or under the "care and custody" of the Department of Public Safety on any given day. We are always mindful that 1,000 of Hawai`i's imprisoned people are serving their sentences abroad thousands of miles away from their loved ones, their homes and, for the disproportionate number of incarcerated Kanaka Maoli, far, far from their ancestral lands.

SB 939 establishes June 19th as Juneteenth Day each year. On this date in 1865 when Union troops reached the westernmost confederate state of Texas, slavery was 'officially' ended, although the Emancipation Proclamation had declared on January 1, 1863 that all enslaved people in the states currently engaged in rebellion against the Union "shall be then, thenceforward, and forever free."

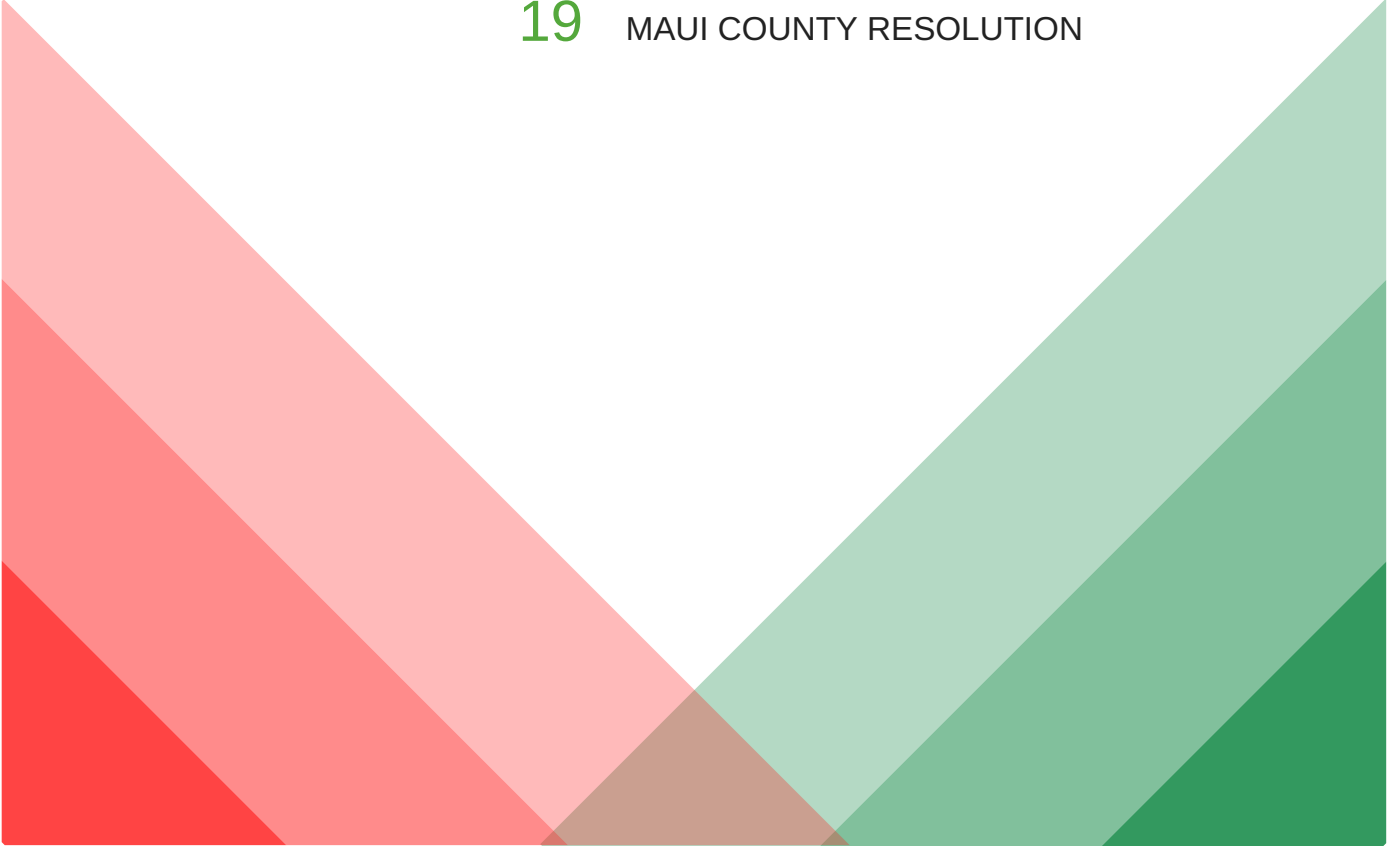

Community Alliance on Prisons supports measures that observe important dates in history. We also assert that slavery has not ended, it has morphed into the prison industrial complex with the same racist structure. Sadly, white supremacy is still ingrained in some as the recent candidacy of a Proud Boy for a seat in the Hawai`i House underscores.

We must work together to build a peaceful community where our keiki can run free and our Kupuna are honored for their wisdom. We urge you to pass this measure. Mahalo for this opportunity to testify.

I prayed for freedom for twenty years, but received no answer until I prayed with my legs.

Frederick Douglas

Dear Committee Members:

This past June 47 states across the country celebrated Juneteenth, also known as Freedom Day, which commemorates June 19, 1865 - the end of African American enslavement in the United States. Sadly, Hawai'i was not one of them.

While communities across the island chain independently honor this historic day by participating in marches and rallies, Hawai'i remains just 1 of 3 states that does not designate Juneteenth as a state holiday. We implore the Hawai'i State Legislature to join the rest of the country by proposing and passing legislation that will finally recognize this monumental day as an official state holiday.

Municipalities across Hawaii have already passed resolutions that mark Juneteenth as a local day of remembrance, including the City of Honolulu whose city council unanimously passed a resolution to make Juneteenth "an annual day of honor and reflection". "I think it's important that we recognize Juneteenth as a time to reflect on the contributions of the black community in Hawai'i, their unique experiences in our nation, and the ways we can engage with our friends, family, and the broader community to dismantle systemic racism," said Honolulu Councilmember Tommy Waters. (KHON2, 6/18/20)

Hawai'i has a proud history of being on the forefront of racial and social justice. As early as 1852 the Kingdom of Hawai'i wrote into law that "Slavery shall, under no circumstances whatsoever, be tolerated in the Hawaiian Islands; whenever a slave shall enter Hawaiian territory he shall be free, no person who imports a slave or slaves, into the King's dominions shall ever enjoy any civil or political rights." Today many of our citizens are direct descendants of former slaves. Furthermore, a State calendar date will serve to better educate Hawaii's youth on black history and the importance of equality for all.

As a state that prides itself on diversity and inclusivity, it is long overdue for Hawai'i to fully live out the Aloha spirit in this matter by standing with the 47 states that have chosen to make Juneteenth an annual day of remembrance and celebration.

HELP MAKE JUNETEENTH A HAWAII STATE HOLIDAY

Hawaii is 1 of only 3 states that does not commemorate Juneteenth as an official State Holiday or Day of Observance (Congressional Research Service)

Only North Dakota, South Dakota and Hawaii do not celebrate Juneteenth. With “The Aloha State” being the only Democratic state in the nation yet to acknowledge this historic and longstanding holiday.

WHAT IS JUNETEENTH?

Juneteenth, also known as “Freedom Day”, commemorates the ending of slavery in the United States when on June 19, 1865, Union soldiers arrived to Galveston, TX with news that the war had ended and slaves were now free - two and half years after President Lincoln’s Emancipation Proclamation in 1863.

Today Juneteenth celebrates African American freedom and achievement, while encouraging continuous self-development and respect for all cultures. Currently, Juneteenth has become a national day of pride with 46 states officially commemorating Juneteenth. Sadly, the State of Hawaii is not one of them. This needs to change.

HAWAII MUST ACT NOW

The Hawaii State Legislature should join the rest of the nation by proposing and passing legislation that will finally recognize this monumental day in our country’s history as an official state calendar holiday.

Solidarity

Hawai’i has a proud history of being on the forefront of racial and social justice. As early as 1852 the Kingdom of Hawai’i wrote into law that “Slavery shall, under no circumstances whatsoever, be tolerated in the Hawaiian Islands; whenever a slave shall enter Hawaiian territory he shall be free, no person who imports a slave or slaves, into the King’s dominions shall ever enjoy any civil or political rights.”

Today many of our citizens are direct descendants of former slaves. Rightfully recognizing Juneteenth will not only uphold their legacy, but will send a message of solidarity to all of Hawai'i's African-American leaders, tourists, businesses and respected community members.

Honoring the History of African American Influence in Hawaii

The sustained and substantial contributions of Hawaii's African American community throughout its history include:

- Anthony D. Allen: formerly enslaved, was a steward to King Kamehameha I
- Oliver & George Washington Hyatt: served as the first two leaders of the Royal Hawaiian Band under King Kamehameha III
- Betsey Stockton: formerly enslaved, started the first mission school in Lahaina open to the common people
- Buffalo Soldiers: built the 18-mile trail to the summit of Mauna Loa
- Alice A. Ball: a chemist who was the first woman to earn a master's degree from the University of Hawaii at Manoa and discovered the first treatment for leprosy (the "Ball Method");
- Dr. Donnis Thompson: the University of Hawaii's first women's Athletic Director who started the Rainbow Wahine Athletics Program and successful Wahine Volleyball Program
- Helene Hale: Hawai's first African-American woman elected to the Hawaii Legislature. She served on the Hawaii County Board of Supervisors. After becoming the first African American Mayor in Hawaii, she was featured on Ebony Magazine
- Carlotta Stewart: Lawyer who helped Hawaiians regain their kuleana lands. She became the first black principal in Honolulu when she took on the role at Ko'olau Elementary School
- President Barack Obama: First African American and first Hawaii born elected President of the United States.

Education

A State calendar date will serve to better educate Hawaii's diverse youth on a monumental event in US history. Battling systemic racism first begins with a fundamental knowledge of our nation's racist history and how it has contributed to the white supremacist framework we see today. Providing today's youth with an accurate telling of history will not only educate them, it will equip them with the necessary information needed to challenge inequality and take steps towards a more inclusive society.

Tourism

Hawaii relies heavily on tourism each year to generate tax revenue. According to the Hawaii Tourism Authority, in 2019, 10,424,995 visitors came to Hawaii. On average, there were 249,021 visitors in the Hawaiian Islands on any given day. Visitors to Hawaii spent $17.75 billion that generated $2.07 billion in state tax revenue. (Hawaiian Tourism Authority, 1/29/20)

Large portions of these tourists represent communities of color. If Hawaii expects to continue to attract visitors from around the world, we must live out our promise of celebrating diversity through the celebration of Juneteenth.

WIDESPREAD, GROWING SUPPORT

Honolulu Leads The Way

Communities across Hawaii have already passed resolutions that mark Juneteenth as a local day of remembrance and celebration. On 8/18/20, The City of Honolulu unanimously voted to recognize Juneteenth as an official, citywide day of remembrance and observation.

\(KHON2, 6/18/20\)

"It is important that our City sends a clear signal that we stand in solidarity with the Black community as we all work together for social justice. But it's also important that we celebrate and lift up the contributions and achievements of Black people in Hawaii from the time of the Hawaiian Kingdom to today. Recognizing Juneteenth is a way to do both."

- Mayor Kirk Caldwell, City & County of Honolulu

"I think it's important that we recognize Juneteenth as a time to reflect on the contributions of the black community in Hawai'i, their unique experiences in our nation, and the ways we can engage with our friends, family, and the broader community to dismantle systemic racism."

- Councilmember Tommy Waters (D-4), City & County of Honolulu

JOIN US: SUPPORT JUNETEENTH

We encourage the State Legislature to draw from existing laws that have already been successfully implemented in 47 states across the country.

While there is a growing movement in other states to provide a paid-day off work for all state employees, we are not advocating that Hawaii do the same at this time. We are simply urging Hawaii Stated elected officials to celebrate Juneteenth with the full and proper acknowledgement our African American community deserves.

As a state that prides itself on diversity and inclusivity, it is long overdue for Hawai'i to fully live out the Aloha spirit by standing with the 47 states that have chosen to make Juneteenth an annual day of remembrance and celebration.

MISS HAWAII USA URGES LEGISLATURE TO MAKE JUNETEENTH A STATE HOLIDAY

Hawaii's first African American Miss USA Hawaii is launching a coalition to urge the Hawaii State Legislature to make Juneteenth a state holiday.

Hawaii is just one of four states that do not commemorate Juneteenth, also known as Freedom Day. June 19, 1865, was the day that Union soldiers rode into Galveston, Texas, declaring the end of the Civil War and that all slaves were free.

The holiday is a "celebration of African American freedom and achievement, encourages continuous self-development and respect for all cultures," the coalition says in a news release.

"As a state that prides itself on diversity and inclusivity, it is long overdue for the Hawaii Legislature to fully live out the Aloha spirit and stand with the 46 states that have chosen to make Juneteenth an annual day of remembrance and celebration." Miss USA Hawaii Samantha Neyland said in the release.

"Many of our citizens are direct descendants of enslaved African peoples. Rightfully recognizing Juneteenth will send a message of solidarity to all of Hawaii's blacks leaders, tourists, businesses and community members during this very critical moment as we seek to dismantle systematic racism.

Neyland won the 2020 Miss Hawaii USA contest in November and will compete for the Miss USA crown later this year.

The coalition is made up of elected officials, nonprofits and civil-rights activists, including the Anti-Defamation League, LGBT Caucus of the Democratic Party of Hawaii, the Honolulu NAACP, the African American Association of Maui as well as the majority of the Maui County Council and Governor David Ige has signed proclamations in recent years to acknowledge Juneteenth, but advocates would like to see more.

"When the Hawaii State Legislature convenes, it's crucial that they send a clear and resolute message of support in solidarity with the African American community by introducing and passing legislation to make Juneteenth a permanent day of commemoration in Hawaii," said City Councilman Tommy Waters.

The coalition points out Hawaii's proud history of being on the forefront of racial and social justice going back to 1852 when the Kingdom of Hawaii wrote into law that "Slavery shall, under no circumstances whatsoever, be tolerated in the Hawaiian Islands; whenever a slave shall enter Hawaiian territory he shall be free, no person who imports a slave or slaves, into the King's dominions shall ever enjoy any civil or political rights."

On Tuesday, the Maui County Council will vote on a resolution that would make Juneteenth a local holiday.

Miss Hawaii USA launches coalition to make Juneteenth a state holiday

HONOLULU (KHON2)

This past June, 46 states across the country celebrated Juneteenth, commemorating the ending of slavery in the United States. While communities across the island chain independently honor this historic day through marches and festivals, Hawaii remains just one of four states that does not designate Juneteenth as a state holiday. Miss Hawaii USA plans to change that.

Hawaii's first African-American Miss Hawaii USA, Samantha Neyland, is leading a coalition of advocates who are urging the State Legislature to recognize Juneteenth as an official state holiday.

Juneteenth, also known as "Freedom Day," commemorates the ending of slavery in the United States on June 19, 1865. Today, it is a celebration of African American freedom and achievement, while encouraging continuous self-development and respect for all cultures.

"As a state that prides itself on diversity and inclusivity, it is long overdue for the Hawaii Legislature to fully live out the Aloha spirit and stand with the 46 states that have chosen to make Juneteenth an annual day of remembrance and celebration."

- SAMANTHA NEYLAND, MISS HAWAII USA 2020

Neyland also adds that a state calendar date will serve to better educate Hawaii's diverse youth on Black history while celebrating the importance of equality.

The growing coalition is comprised of elected officials, nonprofits and civil-rights activists, including: the Anti-Defamation League, LGBT Caucus of the Democratic Party of Hawaii, the Honolulu NAACP, the African American Association of Maui as well as the majority of Maui and Honolulu County Council members.

On Tuesday, Aug. 18, the Maui County Council will vote on a resolution that would make Juneteenth a local holiday. Neyland hopes state legislatures will follow suit.

Honolulu to officially recognize Juneteenth

HONOLULU (KHON2)

In a press release, Honolulu Mayor Kirk Caldwell announced that Juneteenth will be officially recognized. The press release is as follows:

“Mayor Kirk Caldwell and the Honolulu City Council worked together today to recognize Juneteenth as an important national day of commemoration and celebration. Mayor Caldwell ordered that Honolulu Hale be illuminated in yellow and black from the evening of Friday, June 19 through Sunday, June 21 in recognition of “Juneteenth” and the Black Lives Matter movement. Earlier today, a key Honolulu City Council committee passed Resolution 20-154, proclaiming June 19 as “Juneteenth” and an annual day of honor and reflection going forward for the City and County of Honolulu.

“It is important that our City sends a clear signal that we stand in solidarity with the Black community as we all work together for social justice,” said Mayor Caldwell. “But it’s also important that we celebrate and lift up the contributions and achievements of Black people in Hawai’i from the time of the Hawaiian Kingdom to today. Recognizing Juneteenth is a way to do both and I’m proud of the way our community has come together and grown stronger in the face of injustice.”

Honolulu City Council Member Tommy Waters, Chair of the Committee on Public Safety and Welfare, helped guide a resolution to unanimous approval by the Committee earlier in the afternoon. The resolution highlighted the fact that the Kingdom of Hawai’i had declared that slavery would not be tolerated in any way a full decade before the US Civil War, and the support provided from Hawai’i for Dr. Martin Luther King during the civil rights struggle.

“I think it’s important that we recognize Juneteenth as a time to reflect on the contributions of the black community in Hawai’i, their unique experiences in our nation, and the ways we can engage with our friends, family, and the broader community to dismantle systemic racism,” said Councilmember Waters.

Juneteenth, also known as “Juneteenth Independence Day”, “Emancipation Day”, and “Freedom Day” is the oldest nationally celebrated commemoration of the ending of slavery in the United States. Juneteenth signifies the date June 19, 1865 when Major General Gordon Granger arrived in Galveston and announced the emancipation of enslaved people in Texas almost two and one-half years after United States President Abraham Lincoln issued the Emancipation Proclamation.

“The City and County recognizing not only the presence, but also the contributions of Black residents of Honolulu via the Juneteenth resolution is a significant step,” said Akiemi Glenn, the Executive Director of the Pōpolo Project. “It is also important to note that the City takes this step as the world is erupting in an unprecedented global call for justice for Black people, connecting this moment to 1852 when Hawai’i enshrined in its constitution an affirmation that Black lives matter on this ‘āina because they matter everywhere.”

Texas was the first state to officially recognize Juneteenth in 1980. Today, 49 of the 50 US states recognize Juneteenth as either a state holiday or ceremonial day of observance. The only state that does not yet recognize Juneteenth is Hawai’i, making the resolution passed by the City and County of Honolulu with approximately 70% of the state’s population an important step to finally bringing this day of recognition to the entire nation.

“Millions of Americans are dealing with the pain and agony of systemic racism and civil unrest,” said Alphonso Braggs, President of the Honolulu Hawai’i NAACP. “In Hawaii, it’s comforting to see our local government leaders recognize the importance of celebrating one of the most significant events in African-American history. This year’s celebration includes a renewed commitment to work together on police reform and community building.”

Juneteenth will be recognized on June 19 this year with a sunset ceremony at Makalei Park near Leahi to honor ancestors and those working for a future where every individual is truly free.

The Pōpolo Project is a Hawai’i-based nonprofit organization that redefines what it means to be Black in Hawai’i and in the world through cultivating radical reconnection to ourselves, our community, our ancestors, and the land. To learn more about the Pōpolo Project, visit thepopoloproject.org.”

Danny De Gracia: It's Time For Hawaii To Officially Recognize Juneteenth

2/8/2021

Hawaii is one of only three states that don't yet officially commemorate Juneteenth, the day that marks the historic end of slavery in the United States.

When Samantha Neyland was crowned Miss Hawaii USA 2020, she saw a unique opportunity to bring people of diverse backgrounds together and do something special for Hawaii.

Neyland brought attention to the Legislature that Hawaii was one of only three states that didn't yet have an official recognition of Juneteenth – June 19 – the day that commemorates the historic end of slavery in the United States.

"I wanted to do something about it," Neyland said in a telephone interview last week.

Hawaii, which has struggled over the years to overcome its complicated history of annexation and plantations, has many ethnic and economic divisions to this day that draw parallels to the plight of African Americans who have been held back by structural or institutional violence.

As a point in case, a report recently released by the Honolulu Police Department showed that even Honolulu had a noticeable difference in the way police used force against Pacific Islanders, Native Hawaiians, and African Americans.

That these three local vulnerable populations are experiencing more stringent treatment from law enforcement in a place like Hawaii highlights the need to ameliorate race relations and change the way we perceive one another.

Recognizing Juneteenth in Hawaii would be one way to bring attention, particularly in public education, to the historical pattern of racial inequality in America, and might be a way to raise keiki who are aware of systemic issues and willing to fix them.

At the Legislature, there are currently four measures that seek to recognize Juneteenth in Hawaii. Senate Bill 16, Relating to State Holidays, introduced by Sen. Stanley Chang, would give local workers another day off to consider the importance of Juneteenth.

"Senate Bill 316, introduced by Sen. Brian Taniguchi, Senate Bill 939, by Sen. Glenn Wakai, and House Bill 1308, by House Vice Speaker John Mizuno, all recognize and commemorate Juneteenth, but do not designate it as a state holiday.

Neyland believes that giving people a symbolic day to reflect on and to study about the past would be a win for Hawaii, because all people, not just African Americans, can understand that freedom is what empowers everyone to accomplish great things.

Mizuno, who authored and introduced the House version in collaboration with Neyland, said that these types of moral "wins" are all the more important when the country is recovering from such a divisive and agonizing experience in the previous election year.

Mizuno said that domestic unrest and economic frustration are things that the Legislature needs to be sensitive to, and giving people a day that represents release from oppression and historic attention to injustice would be useful, even in Hawaii.

As we celebrate Black History Month, it's important to remember that disparities have significant impacts on an entire society," Mizuno said in a telephone interview.

"Celebrating Juneteenth is as much about Black Lives Matter as it is about bringing attention to the disparities between our vulnerable populations that make them more at-risk during the COVID-19 pandemic," he added.

Mizuno, who represents Kalihi Valley, is also acutely aware of the historical link that Filipinos and African Americans have shared. For much of America's history, both population groups were often relegated to menial positions in government and private sector occupations.

Only in the last 50 years have Filipinos and African Americans been able to start to assume more senior or meaningful positions of influence. "The civil rights movement broke the barriers and paved the way for all the other groups," Mizuno said.

I mentioned to Neyland this pattern, and how some of the country's most exceptional people have fought with all their human might for just the right to be considered human among their peers.

"It's important to remember that disparities have significant impacts on an entire society." — House Vice Speaker John Mizuno

When I think of the struggles for respect in America, I think of individuals like Benjamin O. Davis Jr., a Black officer who was appointed to West Point by the only Black member of Congress at the time, Rep. Oscar De Priest. While at the U.S. Military Academy, Davis was intentionally ignored during his four years and no one spoke a word to him at all.

In spite of this prejudice, Davis later became a WWII fighter pilot and a lieutenant general in the Air Force, and is one of many "all-stars" of African American history for his talent and determination.

What has always bothered me is that the individuals we commemorate are often people who succeeded because they were the absolute best-of-the-best. The people whom we don't hear about are the millions of other hard-working, ordinary individuals who never made it because they faced discrimination and were forced out. These people, if given a fair chance, probably would have become great in their fields.

"That's a good point," Neyland told me in response. "And I have always believed that true freedom is the freedom to fail and still be respected as a person. And that's what all this is about. Freedom to be a person; freedom to know that with all your imperfections and all your achievements, you are still always someone worthy of respect."

Now those are words of wisdom we all need to hear in 2021. Neyland's hope to make Juneteenth a recognition of these fundamental truths would be a great credit to both Hawaii and our aloha traditions, should these measures pass. Contact your representatives and senators and tell them you'd like to have a hearing scheduled for these bills. Together we can learn from the past and build a better future.

Recognizing June 19th, or Juneteenth, as a Day of Remembrance in Hawaii will have no fiscal impact to the state. Yet it stands to have unlimited educational and cultural benefits. It is time Hawaii joined the other 48 states in honoring this monumental day in history. I employ each and every committee member to embrace the Aloha Spirit and take this much needed step towards ending racial disparity amongst minority communities in Hawaii.

I support SB939, I think this is a very important date for us to recognize as a significant day in history for our country. Hawaii is only one of four states that doesn't officially recognize 'Juneteenth' as a holiday. I think 'Juneteenth' is a reminder of how far we've come and officially recognizing this day as a holiday encourages people to continue to work towards our goal to stop discrimination of Black Americans.

Dear Chair Moriwaki, Vice Chair, Dela Cruz, Committee on Government Operations, Chair Dela Cruz, Vice Chair Keith-Agaran, and Committee on Ways and Means,

Please support SB939.

Union troops did not reach the westernmost confederate state of Texas, until June 19, 1865, which became known as Juneteenth, to end slavery.

Juneteenth commemorates the freedom, equality, and dignity for all people that this nation is still striving to achieve.

It is important for Hawaii to establish June 19 of each year as Juneteenth Day.

Thank you for taking the time to review this issue. I appreciate the opportunity to provide testimony in support of SB939.

HB 1308 will recognize the importance of Juneteenth in American history.

Even with the Emancipation Proclamation, which declared that as of January 1, 1863, all enslaved people in the states currently engaged in rebellion against the Union “shall be then, thenceforward, and forever free”, and the Civil War’s end in May 1865, Confederate states still kept people enslaved.

Union troops did not reach the westernmost Confederate state of Texas, until June 19, 1865, which became known as Juneteenth, the date that the end of slavery in the US was achieved.

Juneteenth commemorates the freedom, equality, and dignity for all people that this nation is still striving to achieve.

I fully support the passing of this bill to recognize Juneteenth as a holiday. It is extremely important to acknowledge our past and to make people aware of why this date is so important. Sadly, many students, as well as adults, in Hawai'i do not understand the significance of Juneteenth and why it is such an important date for African-Americans. It is also somewhat embarrassing that we are only one of three states to not officially observe this holiday. Thank you very much.

I support this bill because it's an important to remember this date. While slavery may not exist in its original form, racism is still alive and thriving to the detriment of everyone and our very democracy. We are destined to repeat the mistakes of our past unless we reflect and work constructively to make changes.

It is an opportunity to honor the historic pain caused by, and lives lost to, racial inequity, celebrate racial diversity, and reflect on how we can move forward and achieve permanent and lasting change.

I support HB 1308, which will recognize the importance of Juneteenth in American history. Juneteenth commemorates the freedom, equality, and dignity for all people that this nation.

Further, we can't learn from our past if we can't embrace all of it, in all its complexity and continuing tensions.

Aloha,

I am writing in support of SB939 which would establish June 19 of each year as Juneteenth Day.

SB939 provides an opportunity to acknowledge our history as a nation as well as a state. It also allows us to showcase the diversity of Hawaii and set an example for the world.

Heightened awareness of our history will lead to greater scrutiny of our criminal justice system and the ways that it perpetuates racial and economic inequalities in our society. This is a necessary part of striving to become a more perfect union.

Please pass SB939. Mahalo for your consideration.

Diana Bethel, Honolulu
