HAWAII STATE DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES COUNCIL 2021 ANNUAL REPORT

Mission Statement

The mission of the Council is to empower, advocate, and support Individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities statewide to control their own destiny and determine the quality of life they desire.

Vision Statement

Individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities are equal to all persons and enjoy basic human rights, among them life, freedom, and the pursuit of happiness. They have choices about where they live, work, learn, play, pursue their spiritual beliefs, are respected and receive the supports they need.

Implementation Statement

To this end, the Council will:

- Work for self-determination
- Advocate for systems change
- Provide information education, and planning
- Serve as a Conscience/monitor of the State
- Promote best practices

THE COUNCIL

State Councils were established in response to the federal Developmental Disabilities Services and Facilities Construction Act of 1970 (PL 91-517). Hawai'i's Council was established in State Law by Act 198, Session Laws of Hawai'i, in 1975.

The Council is administratively attached to the Department of Health (DoH). The department serves as the designated state agency, providing fiduciary and administrative support.

The Council engages in activities which change the system of services for people with developmental disabilities and conducts systems change, capacity building, and advocacy activities that...

- Provide training for individuals with developmental disabilities and their families including legislative advocacy, training on the legislative process, and leadership development.
- Demonstrate new approaches to services, supports, and assistance.
- Inform federal, state, and local policymakers.
- Foster interagency collaboration and coordination.
- Eliminate barriers and enhancing the design and redesign of systems.
- Develop and support coalitions.
- Educate the public
- Coordinate and support community activities that follow the Council's mission.

The Council, appointed by the Governor, is a group of individuals dedicated to improving the lives of Hawai'i's citizens with developmental disabilities. The philosophy of membership is that all key stakeholders are represented at the Council table: Individuals with developmental disabilities; their family members, advocates; representatives of state and private agencies who provide services; representatives of the Hawai'i Disability Rights Center (HDRC), the state's Protection and Advocacy agency; University of Hawai'i's Center on Disability Studies (CDS) and other key community interests. The beauty of this composition is in the skills and experience that each brings to the table and shares with other Council members.

DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITY

[from PL 106-402, Sec. 102. Definitions, (8)]

(A) IN GENERAL. – The term "developmental disability" means a severe, chronic disability of an individual that ---

- (i) is attributable to a mental or physical impairment or combination of mental and physical impairments
- (ii) is manifested before the individual attains age 22
- (iii) is likely to continue indefinitely
- (iv) results in substantial functional limitations in 3 or more of the following areas of major life activity
 - (I) Self-care.
 - (II) Receptive and expressive language.
 - (III) Learning.
 - (IV) Mobility.
 - (V) Self-direction.
 - (VI) Capacity for independent living.
 - (VII) Economic self-sufficiency; and
 - (VIII) Reflects the individual's need for a combination and sequence of special, interdisciplinary, or generic services, individualized supports, or other forms of assistance that are of lifelong or extended duration and are individually planned and coordinated.

(B) INFANTS AND YOUNG CHILDREN --- An individual from birth to age 9, inclusive, who has a substantial developmental delay or specific congenital or acquired condition, may be considered to have a developmental disability without meeting 3 or more of the criteria described in clauses (i) through (v) subparagraph (A) if the individual, without services and supports, has a high probability of meeting those criteria later in life.

The Council supported the Self-Advocacy Network in becoming a non-profit organization

The State Legislature, through Act 213, Session Laws of Hawaii 2007, appropriated funds to establish and support a statewide self-advocacy network for persons with developmental disabilities (DD). The Hawaii Self-Advocacy Advisory Council (SAAC) is a group of self-advocate leaders with intellectual and developmental disabilities who are actively engaged in their community to address the concerns and needs of their peers throughout the State.

QUICK HIGHLIGHTS

Legislation

- Helped create and pass SB793/Act 55 regarding Sub-minimum wage. This bill eliminated the ability within the State of Hawai'i to pay an individual with a disability below the state's minimum wage.
- Ticket to Work Medicaid Income Disregard Act of 2019. The program went into effect in January of 2021 and allows individuals on SSI and Medicaid to earn up to 138% of the federal poverty level (roughly $5,000 a month). This program will enable individuals with disabilities that need Medicaid services to be able to qualify for those services and be able to contribute to the workforce.
- Supported and helped implement Hawai'i Achieving a Better Life Experience (ABLE) Act of 2014. The program is launching on November 1, 2021. ABLE Accounts give people with disabilities receiving government benefits and their families a financial tool to put money aside for purchases to enhance quality of life without risking the loss of those benefits (like SSI and Medicaid).

COVID-19 Efforts

- Advocated for representation of individuals with Intellectual and or developmental disabilities to receive their vaccine's and be incorporated in the State of Hawai'i's economic recovery plan
- Created a pro-vaccine video with the help of SAAC members to show the need to protect others within your community, especially those with health risks.
- Kept our community updated on where and how to get vaccinated
- Educated our advocates and community members on safe COVID-19 behaviors
- Created a video regarding why vaccines are important for Keiki and Kupuna. Our national agency gave this video to the white house to promote vaccinations nationwide.
