9           (B)   Thirty calendar days before a primary, initial
10          special, or initial nonpartisan election;

11          (C)   Ten calendar days before a primary, initial
12          special, or initial nonpartisan election;

13          (D)   October 1 of the year of a general election;

14          [and]

15          (E)   Ten calendar days before a general, subsequent 16          special, or subsequent nonpartisan election;

17          ~~[provided that this preliminary report does not~~

1           ~~need to be filed by a candidate who is~~
2           ~~unsuccessful in a primary, initial special, or~~
3           ~~initial nonpartisan election, or a candidate who~~
4           ~~is elected to office in the primary, initial~~
5           ~~special, or initial nonpartisan election.]~~

6           provided that the preliminary reports required by
7           subparagraphs (D) and (E) shall not be required from a
8           candidate who is unsuccessful in a primary, initial
9           special, or initial nonpartisan election, or a
10          candidate who is elected to office in the primary,
11          initial special, or initial nonpartisan election. The 12          preliminary report filed by the date required under 13          subparagraph (B) shall be current through June 30, and 14          all other preliminary reports shall be current through 15          the fifth calendar day before the filing deadline of 16          those other preliminary reports;

- 17          (2) The filing date for the final primary report is twenty 18          calendar days after a primary, initial special, or 19          initial nonpartisan election. The report shall be 20          current through the day of the applicable election;

- 1           (3) The filing date for the final election period report
2           is thirty calendar days after a general, subsequent,
3           subsequent special, or subsequent nonpartisan
4           election. The report shall be current through the day
5           of the applicable election. The final election period
6           report shall be filed by a candidate who is 7           unsuccessful in a primary, initial special, or initial 8           nonpartisan election or a candidate who is elected to 9           office in the primary, initial special, or initial 10          nonpartisan election; provided that a candidate who is 11          elected and is to be sworn into office [~~prior to~~
12          before thirty calendar days after a general,
13          subsequent, subsequent special, or subsequent 14          nonpartisan election in which the candidate was 15          elected, shall file the final election period report
16          three business days before the date the candidate is 17          to be sworn into office; and
- 18          (4) The filing dates for supplemental reports are:
19                (A) January 31 annually; and
20                (B) July 31 after an election year.

1           The report shall be current through December 31 for
2           the report filed on January 31 and current through
3           June 30 for the report filed on July 31."

4           SECTION 2. Section 11-339, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is
5           amended by amending subsection (b) and (c) to read as follows:

6           "(b) By June 30 of an election year, a candidate committee
7           that does not intend to receive contributions[~~7-01~~] and make
8           expenditures[~~7~~] that aggregate more than $1,000 in an election
9           period shall notify the commission of its intent in the 10          candidate committee's organizational report.

11          (c) By the fifth calendar day before the due date of the 12          preliminary primary report[~~7~~] due ten days before the election,
13          a noncandidate committee that does not intend to receive
14          contributions[~~7-01~~] and make expenditures, that aggregate more 15          than $1,000 in an election period shall notify the commission of 16          its intent in the noncandidate committee's organizational 17          report."

S.B. NO. 2040

Report Title:

Campaign Spending Commission Package; Committee Reports; Time for Candidates to File Preliminary Reports; Time for Committees to Notify Commission of Intent to Receive and Spend in the Aggregate $1,000 or Less

Description:

Housekeeping measure that provides that candidates are not required to file preliminary general reports if they are either unsuccessful or are elected to office in the primary election. Amends subsections (b) and (c) of section 11-339, HRS, to make them consistent with subsection (a) by aggregating contributions and expenditures in determining whether a committee need only file the final election period report.
