SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

REQUESTING THE LEGISLATIVE REFERENCE BUREAU TO CONDUCT A STUDY OF POTENTIAL POSITIVE AND NEGATIVE CONSEQUENCES OF IMPLEMENTING TERM LIMITS FOR MEMBERS OF THE LEGISLATURE.

1 WHEREAS, when the United States Supreme Court decided in 2 Buckley v. Valeo, 424 U.S. 1 (1976), that certain campaign
3 spending limits were unconstitutional, the ability of 4 nonincumbents to challenge elected officials was substantially 5 impaired; and
6

7 WHEREAS, in 1974, the year of the only Hawaii election that 8 observed spending limits, twenty-two new members were elected to 9 the House of Representatives and eight new members were elected
10 to the Senate; in other words, forty-three percent of the 11 representatives and thirty-two percent of the senators elected 12 in 1974 were new to the Legislature; and 13

14 WHEREAS, fifteen States have imposed term limits on state
15 legislators: Arizona, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Florida,
16 Louisiana, Maine, Michigan, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, 17 Ohio, Oklahoma, and South Dakota; and 18

19 WHEREAS, thirty-six states have imposed term limits on 20 their governors; and 21

22 WHEREAS, thirty-three states have imposed term limits on 23 their members in the United States Congress; and 24

25 WHEREAS, the legislatures of Idaho and Utah have repealed
26 term limits on state legislators; and 27

28 WHEREAS, the supreme courts of Massachusetts, Oregon,
29 Washington, and Wyoming have invalidated term limits on state 30 legislators due to procedural concerns, and not the merits of 31 the applicable laws; and 32

1 WHEREAS, the expenses for nonincumbents seeking election to 2 the Legislature and the small chance of winning reduce the 3 number of seriously contested races, which may increase voter 4 apathy and undermine the entire foundation and process of 5 representative democracy; now, therefore,

6
7 BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate of the Thirty-first 8 Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session of 2022, the 9 House of Representatives concurring, that the Legislative 10 Reference Bureau is requested to conduct a study of potential
11 positive and negative consequences of implementing term limits
12 for members of the Legislature; and

13
14 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Legislative Reference
15 Bureau is requested to report its findings to the Legislature no
16 later than twenty days prior to the convening of the Regular 17 Session of 2023; and

18
19 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a certified copy of this 20 Concurrent Resolution be transmitted to the Director of the 21 Legislative Reference Bureau.
