Senator Malama Solomon to Attend 2011 Hawai'i Paniolo Hall of Fame

KOHALA, BIG ISLAND -- Ten cowboys will be inducted into the Paniolo Hall of Fame at the Hawai'i Cattlemen's Council Annual Convention on Saturday, November 19, 2011, held at the Hapuna Beach Prince Hotel on the Kohala Coast of the Big Island. The induction ceremony is scheduled to start at noon.

The Paniolo Hall of Fame was initiated 12 years ago to recognize individuals statewide who have contributed to keeping Hawai'i's paniolo heritage alive. Including the 2011 inductees, there are 116 members, both living and deceased, in the Paniolo Hall of Fame.

"I commend the O'ahu Cattlemen's Association for organizing this wonderful annual event recognizing Hawaii's cattlemen," said Senator Malama Solomon, who represents District 1, encompassing Waimea, Hāmākua, South Hilo, Keaukaha and Hilo.

"Congratulations to all inductees of the Hawai'i Paniolo Hall of Fame. Their knowledge and guidance have made the paniolo culture legendary in Hawai'i," she added.

Senator Solomon, a rancher herself, will be attending Saturday's ceremony.
