

Stacie A. Keliinoi PT, DPT, PCS

GOV. MSG. NO. 505

Physical Therapist at Kapi'olani Medical Center for Women and Children providing direct therapy services to adults and children in the acute, subacute and outpatient settings.

EDUCATION:

Mount St. Mary's College
Pepperdine University

Doctorate of Physical Therapy
BS in Sports Medicine

EMPLOYMENT:

Kapi'olani Medical Center

Physical Therapist

Jan 2016 – Present

- Full time physical therapist, independent with evaluation and treatment of patients in the acute, sub-acute rehabilitation and outpatient settings for women and children.
- Member of a multi-disciplinary clinic of medical professionals including a physiatrist, orthopedic surgeon and urologist who provide follow up assessment and recommendations for children with conditions of the spine.

Kapi'olani Community College

Lecturer

Jan 2019 – Present

- Lecture and lab for the spring course, Pediatrics for the Physical Therapy Assistant.

Guam Department of Education

Physical Therapist

Jan 2018 – Jan 2019

- Obtained a Guam PT license in 2017 to provide independent contracted services for the DOE. Completed a five day on-site contract including evaluation and recommendations in a middle school setting.

Children's Hospital Los Angeles

Physical Therapist

May 2014 – Dec 2015

- Full time acute physical therapist, independent with evaluation and treatment of patients in hospital units including orthopedic, neurology, oncology, PICU, cardiac, med-surgical and post-op recovery room.
- Treatment with direct supervision and mentorship for patients in the NICU and Cardiovascular ICU.
- Physical therapist in CHLA Outpatient Empower Clinic. Evaluation, assessment, patient education and follow up for children with BMI >95% as a part of a multi-disciplinary team.
- Member of a task force developed to provide physician education regarding the role of acute physical therapy for children with hematological and oncological conditions.

Queen's Medical Center

PTLA/Physical Therapist

Jan 2013 - May 2014,
Jan 2016-Present

- Physical therapist independent in all hospital units at a 500 bed, acute care, level II trauma hospital.
- Administration of bed mobility and transfer training with focus on patient and staff safety for Certified Nurse Aides.

Elroy Chong, RPT

Physical Therapy Aide

June 2007 – August 2009

- Administration of modalities to patients under the direct supervision of a physical therapist.
- Demonstration, explanation and feedback for patients performing therapeutic exercises and activities.
- Case management including the organization of medical charts, patient information, and insurance coverage.

CLINICAL EDUCATION EXPERIENCE:

Queen's Medical Center

IP Acute

July 2012 – Sept. 2012

- Evaluation and treatment of a variety of patient diagnoses and levels of acuity.

Kapiolani Medical: Women's & Children's

IP/OP Pediatric

April 2012 – June 2012

- Evaluation and treatment of pediatric patients in the inpatient and outpatient setting.

Rehabilitation Hospital of the Pacific

IP Sub-Acute Rehab

June 2011 – August 2011

- Evaluation and treatment of a variety of patient diagnoses including TBI, SCI, CVA, MS, PD and GB.

San Luis Sports Physical Therapy

OP Ortho

Nov. 2010 – Dec. 2010

- Evaluation and treatment of patients' ages 8 to 90 years old and supervision of aides and volunteers.

PROFESSIONAL CERTIFICATIONS:

American Board of Physical Therapy Pediatric Certified Specialist since June 2021
American Physical Therapy Association Credentialed Clinical Instructor since 2015
Child Passenger Safety Technician (special needs trained) since 2015
American Heart Association BLS CPR and AED Certification