

“She is well respected throughout the school and community for her integrity, communication, adaptability and getting things done. Throughout the time I’ve known her, she has shown me time and again that she is a positive, motivated leader with amazing potential.”

Geneva Castro’Lichtenstein
School Counselor
(Formerly) Kualapu’u School

“She definitely has the qualities of a leader and does well in any leadership role that she is given, both in and out of school. She has a bubbly personality, is responsible, well-balanced, and passionate about anything she puts her mind to. I have seen her in varying environments and this enthusiasm extends to every aspect of her life.”

Kanani Kamelamela-Dudoit
Student Services Coordinator
Mokapu Elementary

Objective

When delivered effectively, education can give each next generation, not only the knowledge and skills, but the passion and power to become agents of positive change in the world. My objective is to be part of that movement through a principal’s position in public school where my goal to cultivate school improvement and a trajectory of success for students can be farther reaching.
