

Tamarin L. McCartin, DO, MBA, FACOG

Experience

GOV. MSG. NO. 788

June 2020 – present

Navy Health Clinic Hawai'i

Pearl Harbor, HI

Staff Physician

- Serve as an obstetrician/gynecologist in a military outpatient clinic.
- Provide comprehensive outpatient services to active duty and dependent women.
- Provide oversight and learning opportunities for nursing students, nurse practitioners and medical assistants.
- Provide specialty consultation services to family medicine and primary care doctors and practitioners.

October 2018 – present

University Health Partners

Honolulu, HI

Staff Physician

- Serve as an obstetrician/gynecologist in a community teaching practice and hospital on a per diem schedule.
- Provide comprehensive ob/gyn care to community beneficiaries.
- Provide oversight and learning opportunities in the outpatient, inpatient and surgical settings for medical students and ob/gyn residents.
- Provide care to underserved women in federally qualified health centers on Oahu.

September 2012 – September 2018

Tripler Army Medical Center

Honolulu, HI

Staff Physician and Transitional Intern Rotation Coordinator

- Serve as a physician and surgeon in a 450 bed tertiary military teaching hospital providing comprehensive obstetrical and gynecological care to active military service members and beneficiaries.
- Coordinate the orientation and schedules for the transitional interns rotating on the ob/gyn service. Liaise with the transitional intern program director, and work to improve the quality of the ob/gyn rotation education.
- Supervise and train ob/gyn residents as well as other assigned residents, interns and students.
- Oversee the surgical gynecology rotation for ob/gyn residents that includes performance evaluation through oral examinations.
- Serve as a formal mentor for two junior ob/gyn residents to help guide their paths through medical and military training as well as career management.
- Utilize performance management (awards, promotions, recognition, etc.), team building, effective communication, and discipline to train and develop the best possible ob/gyn physicians.
- Review and provide constructive feedback for all members of the residency training program.
- Strong interpersonal, presentational and motivational skills.
- Skilled in complex problem solving and conflict resolution.
- Demonstrate ability to make independent decisions that enhance administrative needs while supporting organizational and team goals and objectives.
- Promote a positive and productive work environment with an optimistic, energetic attitude.
- Proficient with MS Word, Excel, Power Point and Macintosh computer skills.

January 2010 – August 2012

Maui Medical Group

Wailuku, HI

Staff Physician and Vice Chair – Obstetrics and Gynecology

- Served as a physician and surgeon in private practice to provide comprehensive obstetrical and gynecological care.
- Collaborated with physician colleagues, nurses and ancillary staff to update, develop and implement policies directly affecting patient care, safety and efficiency.
- Served as the liaison and physician leader to our ancillary staff in developing solutions for staffing and personnel issues.
- Provided consultation service to local primary care providers.
- Conducted extensive daily patient counseling through visual, written and oral media.

October 2008 – October 2009 US Army Health Clinic Vicenza, Italy

Staff Physician – Obstetrics and Gynecology

- Served as a civilian physician and surgeon in a small military health clinic to provide comprehensive ob/gyn care to military, Department of Defense civilians, contract civilians and local national beneficiaries.
- Collaborated with physician colleagues, nurses and ancillary staff to update, develop and implement policies directly affecting patient care, safety and efficiency.
- Provided consultation service to local primary care providers.
- Conducted extensive daily patient counseling through visual, written and oral media.
- Provided community health education by conducting quarterly public lectures on various women's health topics.
- Communicated regularly with the nearby US Air Force Base health facility and local Italian hospital through correspondence and telecommunication in order to provide continuity of care for our mutual patients.

July 2004 – September 2008 Tripler Army Medical Center Honolulu, HI

Chief, Gynecological Services

- Served on active military duty as chief of gynecological services and general obstetrician/gynecologist at a large military medical center that provided approximately 5000 ob/gyn outpatient visits, 220 deliveries and 40 elective surgeries per month.
- Supervised and trained 21 ob/gyn residents as well as other assigned residents, interns and students.
- Utilized performance management (awards, promotions, recognition, etc.), team building, effective communication, and discipline to train and develop the best possible ob/gyn physicians.
- Served as the medical director for the newly formed healthcare simulation lab. Developed simulation lab protocols, and promoted the lab services through networking and relationship building.
- Served as the medical proctor for research projects conducted within the ob/gyn department and in collaboration with the local Veterans Administration.
- Served as the gynecology representative to the hospital Sexual Assault Review Board. Contributed to the revision of the hospital policy on evaluation and treatment of sexual assault victims and perpetrators.
- Submitted a proposal through "advanced medical practices" funding which resulted in the procurement of new surgical equipment that enhanced patient safety as well as resident education.
- Review and provide constructive feedback for all members of the residency training program.
- Strong interpersonal, presentational and motivational skills.
- Skilled in complex problem solving and conflict resolution.
- Demonstrate ability to make independent decisions that enhance administrative needs while supporting organizational and team goals and objectives.

June 2005 – December 2005 228 Combat Support Hospital Mosul, Iraq

Staff Physician, Obstetrics and Gynecology / Trauma Surgery

- Served as an active duty Army physician and surgeon in a combat zone.
- Provided limited outpatient, inpatient and surgical care in an austere and hostile environment.
- Provided emergency trauma care to US military personnel and civilians as well as Iraqi beneficiaries by leading trauma codes in the emergency department.
- Worked as a surgical assistant for various surgical specialties including orthopedics, general surgery, plastics, urology, and vascular.
- Served as the chief of the medical-surgical ward which covered all aspects of patient care, bed management, discharge planning and transportation. Facilitated communication and process improvement between nursing and the medical staff.
- Participated in continuing medical education activities to include the presentation of a lecture to colleagues on gynecological infectious disease diagnosis and management.

February 2007 – August 2007 28 Combat Support Hospital Mosul, Iraq

Chief of Surgery

- Served as an active duty Army physician and chief of surgery in a combat support hospital.
- Led a team of general and trauma surgeons that provided emergency and routine care to US military personnel and civilians as well as Iraqi beneficiaries.
- Developed relationships with other hospitals and surgeons in the area of operation and supervised the evacuation of trauma patients to upper echelons.
- Developed and implemented the policy for patient triage, evaluation, treatment and evacuation for mass casualty events.
- Served as the Deputy Commander for Clinical Services during the time of the permanent DCCS' mid-tour leave. Responsible for all clinical and administrative events and actions within the hospital and particularly with the physicians.
- Supervised patient triage, treatment and evacuation during mass casualty events that involved upwards of 30 trauma patients at a time.
- Provided limited outpatient, inpatient and surgical obstetrical and gynecological care in an austere and hostile environment.
- Provided emergency trauma care to US military personnel and civilians as well as Iraqi beneficiaries by leading trauma codes in the emergency department.
- Worked as a surgical assistant for orthopedics and general surgery.
- Served as the chief of the medical-surgical ward which covered all aspects of patient care, bed management, discharge planning and transportation. Facilitated communication and process improvement between nursing and the medical staff.
- Participated in continuing medical education activities and clinical trauma training.
- Certified in Advanced Trauma Life Support.

July 2001 – July 2004 D. D. Eisenhower Army Medical Center Augusta, GA

and Augusta VA Medical Center

Assistant Chief, Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology

- Served on active duty as the assistant chief of the DDEAMC ob/gyn department in a large 200 bed military medical center that served over 10,000 beneficiaries.
- Served as interim department chief during times when the permanent chief was on leave.
- Assisted the department chief in all aspects of daily operation to include clinical problem solving, personnel actions and administrative duties.
- Supervised and trained ob/gyn residents as well as other assigned residents, interns and students.

- Provided comprehensive outpatient and inpatient surgical, gynecological and obstetrical care in a department that supported over 900 monthly patient visits.
- Provided limited outpatient, inpatient and surgical gynecological care to VA beneficiaries.
- Served as the medical-surgical ward physician liaison to facilitate communication and process improvement between nursing and the medical staff.
- Served as the physician medical-surgical representative during the scheduled Joint Commission on the Accreditation of Healthcare Organizations inspection.
- Submitted a funding proposal that resulted in the procurement of new ultrasound machines for the clinic which greatly enhanced patient care and efficiency.

July 1999 – July 2001 Weed Army Community Hospital Ft. Irwin, CA

Chief, Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology

- Served on active duty as chief of the obstetrics and gynecology service in a small, remote Army community hospital.
- Provided general obstetrical and gynecological care to military service members and beneficiaries that included outpatient, inpatient and surgical management in a 27-bed facility.
- Developed, updated and implemented written standard operating procedures and departmental policies.
- Submitted a proposal for funding that resulted in the procurement of equipment that greatly improved obstetrical care and patient safety.
- Provided consult services to primary care and emergency physicians and mid-level practitioners.
- Provided community health education through regular public lectures on various women's health topics.
- Served on a fund-raising committee that hosted Ft. Irwin's first annual 5K run for breast cancer awareness. Worked with local vendors to procure sponsorship, food, beverages and prizes. Served as the event coordinator on race day.

July 1995 – June 1999 Monmouth Medical Center Long Branch, NJ

Resident, Obstetrics and Gynecology

- Completed a four-year residency in general obstetrics and gynecology in an accredited program.
- Served as chief resident during the fourth year which encompassed clinical as well as administrative duties for the entire ob/gyn residency program.
- Taught, supervised and mentored junior residents and medical students in all aspects of clinical ob/gyn as well as physician development.
- Obtained a first-time passing grade on written ob/gyn board exam at the end of the fourth year.

July 1994 – June 1995 Kennedy Memorial Hospital System Stratford, NJ

Divisional Chief Intern

- Completed an accredited rotating internship that involved working in several different hospitals within the Kennedy Memorial Hospital system.
- Served as chief intern of the Washington Township Hospital division and liaison to the postgraduate education administration.
- Taught and supervised medical students who were assigned to my rotation.

Education

- University of Colorado at Colorado Springs, MBA
- University of Medicine & Dentistry of New Jersey – School of Osteopathic Medicine, Stratford, NJ
DO Degree; Health Professions Scholarship Program
- Florida Institute of Technology, Melbourne, FL
BS, Biology; cum laude; Reserve Officer Training Corps Scholarship

Research

- G. McWilliams et al. "Comparison of Urodynamic Volume Measurements Using Room and Body Temperature Saline" American Urogynecologic Society Poster presentation Sept. 2008
- P. Nielsen et al. "Female Soldier's Gynecologic Healthcare in OPERATION IRAQI FREEDOM: A Survey of Camps with Echelon Three Facilities" Military Medicine Oct. 2009
- L. Dutra et al. "Women at War: Implications for Mental Health" Journal of Trauma and Dissociation 2011; 12(1): 25-37

Awards

- Army Provider Level Satisfaction Survey (APLSS) Award Q4 2015
- Honorable Discharge – US Army 2008
- Iraq Campaign Medal
- Bronze Star Medal
- Meritorious Service Medal with Double Oak Leaf Cluster
- Army Commendation Medal
- Meritorious Unit Commendation
- Army Superior Unit Award
- National Defense Service Medal
- Global War on Terrorism Service Medal
- Army Service Ribbon
- Overseas Service Ribbon
- Armed Forces Reserve Medal with M Device
- Parachute Badge

Certification and Licenses

- December 2001 – present Fellow, American Congress of Obstetricians and Gynecologists
- September 2004 – present Hawaii State Board of Medical Examiners
- January 2006 – present Colorado State Board of Medical Examiners
- January 2002 – present Georgia State Board of Medical Examiners