

RESUME

Philip J. Barnes

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

- 1998 - 2013 President of Coconut Landing Vacation Rentals, author of "A Concise History of the Hawaiian Islands" now in it's 12th printing
- 2002 - 2004 Trip guide with Hawaiian Walkways
- 1996 - 1998 Adjunct faculty - University of Alaska in Anchorage - Hawaiian Studies Tours
- 1997 - 1998 Social Studies teacher Alaska Family Partnership Charter School
- 1989 - 1998 Social Studies/wilderness studies teacher, Social Studies department head, leader of 11 student 2 week tours and college counselor at Steller Alternative Secondary School in Anchorage, Alaska
- 1983 - 1989 Science and social studies teacher at Gruening Middle School in Anchorage, Alaska
- 1982 - 1983 President of Alaska Outdoor School tours and assistant manager of Sunshine Sports, a retail store specializing in wilderness sports
- 1980 - 1982 General Manager of Patoka Wharf Inc. - a retail store specializing in water based sports
- 1979 - 1980 President of Hoosier Wilderness Adventures - a wilderness travel club providing backpacking, mountaineering, and canoe trips throughout the United States
- 1977 - 1979 President of Eco-Expeditions - an expedition company providing backpacking trips
- 1974 - 1977 Life science / wilderness studies teacher at Learning Unlimited - a Lilly
grant funded, experimental high school in Indianapolis, Indiana
- 1969 - 1972 Life Science teacher at Lawrence Central High School in Indianapolis, Indiana
- 1968 - 1969 Science teacher at Stinesville School in Stinesville, Indiana

EDUCATION

Doctor of Arts from the University of Miami, major in education , minor in biology Diplomat of College Teaching from the University of Miami, major in environmental biology, minor in marine fisheries National Science Foundation - summer institute in limnology (fresh water ecology) University of Louisville
National Science Foundation - summer institute in terrestrial ecology
Louisiana Tech University
M.S. from Indiana University, major in secondary education with an endorsement in social studies
B.A. from Purdue University, dual major in social studies and biology
Cathedral High School in Indianapolis, Indiana

PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATIONS & AWARDS

Hawaii Democratic Party - State Central Committee 2012 to present
Hawaii County Democratic Party - Chair 2015-2017
Hawaii County Democratic Party - Vice Chairman for East Hawaii 2008 - 2012
Hawaii County Democratic Party - District 4 Chairman 2006
Hawaii Democratic Party - Environmental Caucus-2008 to present
Sierra Club, Moku Loa group, Board of directors 1999 to 2009 outings leader 1998 to present, Chairman 2000 to 2002
Walked the 2064 mile Appalachian Trail - April to October 2004
Hawaii Ecotourism Association
Hawaiian Historical Society
Anchorage School District -Social Studies Curriculum Committee, design task force for an integrated history curriculum, and a sub- committee to redesign the district's economics courses 1993 to '98
Who's Who Among America's Teachers - 1998
Cochairman of the Anchorage Open Educational Alternatives
Coalition - 1994 to '96
Cochairman of the Political Action Committee of the Anchorage
Education Association - 1993 to '97
Anchorage School District - Multicultural Concerns Committee
Social Studies Teacher of the Year - 1995 - Anchorage Education Association
Board of Directors of the Alaska World Affairs Council - 1990 to '94
President of the Center of Soviet Alaskan Resources - 1989 to '91
Chairman of the Alaska - USSR Educational Exchange Committee - 1988 -90
National Education Association - building representative, delegate assembly rep. , public affairs committee, representative assembly - 1984 to 1998,
NEA Life Member
National and Alaskan Councils for the Social Studies
American Society of Curriculum Development
Phi Delta Kappa

CERTIFICATION

Indiana - Life License, Secondary Biology and Social Studies
Alaska - A - regular classroom, Secondary Social Studies and Biological Science, expiration date 8 /29/ 03