

I am in total support of this "each and every day" public display of our love and affection for those military personnel who are currently imprisoned or whose whereabouts is still unknown. Ours is the nation's largest per capita military/veterans community

Mahalo,
Dennis Egge