Re: SCR119/SR106

URGING THE BOARD OF LAND AND NATURAL RESOURCES TO RENAME THE RUSSIAN FORT ELISABETH STATE HISTORICAL PARK IN WAIMEA, KAUA'I, AS "PA'ULA'ULA"

TESTIMONY IN OPPOSITION

The Russian-ness of Russian Fort is an essential part of Kaua'i's history. Everyone knows the ruthless warrior Kamehameha, who treated all the Hawaiian islands like Russia is now treating Ukraine, repeatedly tried but failed to invade Kaua'i until he intimidated King Kaumuali'i into ceding power and becoming a puppet vassal in 1810. But Kaumuali'i never gave up in his heart. In 1817 he conspired with a Russian trading company to build Russian Fort as a tactic to begin reasserting power. Even as late as 1824 his son Humehume engaged in battle against Kamehameha's successor-son Liholiho resulting in the deaths of 10 rebels and 8 Liholiho soldiers.

The current attempt to rename Russian Fort by giving it an obscure Hawaiian-language name is typical of the ethnic cleansing and homogenization of Hawaiian history which Hawaiian race-partisans have been doing for several decades. For example Rev. Dr. Gerrit Judd, hero of 1843 sovereignty restoration, is never mentioned at annual celebrations of Ka La Ho'ihohi Ea, and activists would like to re-name Thomas Square.

In all cultures, including Hawaiian, the name of a place has changed when a major event takes place there. For many generations local residents might name a piece of land based on what it looks like or how it is used: for example Big Bend or Grand Rapids. Pa'ula'ula is a name like that, identifying a river bank that resembles a red wall. Big deal! But when an important event happens at a place or when a historically significant building is constructed there, then local residents begin calling that place by a new name referring to the event or building; and that new name reflecting human activity eventually replaces the old name that merely described the general appearance of the land. That's what happened at Russian Fort.

Consider the place now known as Mauna Ala [the Royal Mausoleum in Nu'uuanu, Honolulu]. But there's no mountain there! There's not even a hill, as some suggest by translating its name to "Fragrant Hill" which would more correctly be called Pu'u 'A'ala. One writer suggested the name is kaona for "Eternal Paths" [Mau Na Ala]. In any case, why not "return" the place-name to what it was before the mausoleum was created there -- Pohukaina. Or how about the even more-general place-name Nu'uuanu.

Don't disrespect Kaumuali'i's attempted restoration of Kaua'i's sovereignty by suppressing the Russian essence and intended military purpose of Russian Fort. Do not try to remove Russian Fort from the history of Hawaii by removing its name from signs and books, like politicians in the Soviet Union turned their ideological enemies into non-persons by removing their names from history books.

Re: SCR 119 / SR 106 - URGING THE BOARD OF LAND AND NATURAL RESOURCES TO RENAME THE RUSSIAN FORT ELISABETH STATE HISTORICAL PARK IN WAIMEA, KAUA'I, AS "PA'ULA'ULA"

Aloha Luna Ho'omalua Lorraine Inouye, Hope Luna Ho'omalua Gilbert S.C. Keith-Agaran, and members of the Senate Committee on Water and Land:

The Ke One O Kākuhihewa-O'ahu Council for the Association of Hawaiian Civic Clubs SUPPORTS SCR 119/ SR 106. This bill urges the Board of Land and Natural Resources to rename the Russian Fort Elisabeth State Historical Park in Waimea, Kaua'i as Pā'ula'ula.

At its 60th annual convention, our Association of Hawaiian Civic Clubs, of which we are a member, adopted resolution 2018-49, URGING THE STATE OF HAWAI'I BOARD OF LAND AND NATURAL RESOURCES TO RENAME THE RUSSIAN FORT ELIZABETH STATE HISTORICAL PARK IN WAIMEA, KAUA'I TO PĀ'ULA'ULA. A copy of that resolution is attached.

Pā'ula'ula is the traditional place name for the eastern bank at the mouth of the Waimea river where Kaumuali'i had his royal compound. We respect the work of the Kaua'i community representatives who feel it important to include and honor the name Pā'ula'ula so that the mo'olelo of this wahi pana is shared and the 'āina that cares for the iwi kupuna are honored.

Thus, the O'ahu Council respectfully urges the Committee to SUPPORT SCR 119/ SR 106.

Ke One O Kākuhihewa-O'ahu Council, is a native Hawaiian organization made up of 24 Hawaiian civic clubs on the island of O'ahu. Our oldest member, Hawaiian Civic Club of Honolulu was established by Prince Jonah Kūhiō Kalaniana'ole on December 7, 1918.

Sincerely,

Comments:

Aloha Honorable Chair Inouye and Members of the Senate Committee on Water and Land,

I support the passage SR No. 106. This resolution falls squarely within the purview of your committee which includes in pertinent part programs relating to state planning, historic preservation, and state parks. Officially recognizing this site's correct name as Pa'ula'ula is consistent with the State's constitutional prerogative to promote the study of Hawaiian culture, history and language. However, passing this resolution has an effect beyond Pa'ula'ula. Using your power to further historical truth is an act of strength in defense of Hawaii and our shared community and history. We live in a time of misinformation and the importance of truth cannot be understated. In this modern world lies and propaganda have been weaponized to divide communities and weaken democracy itself, and there is no greater weapon against this assault than fact. Pass this resolution and send a clear message to all malactors whether they are foreign or domestic that Hawaii's legislators know their accurate history and have the fortitude to take action against the lies of the weak and ignorant.
