ANNUAL REPORT TO THE THIRTY-SECOND LEGISLATURE
2023 REGULAR SESSION

A Report on the Parent Education Special Fund

Pursuant to HRS § 607-5.6

Prepared by:

The Judiciary, State of Hawai'i

November 2022

A Report on the Parent Education Special Fund

Act 274, Session Laws of Hawai'i, 1997, requires the Judiciary to submit a report on the Parent Education Fund.

The Parent Education Special Fund was established by the 1997 Legislature, State of Hawai'i, through Act 274. On May 2, 2003, HRS 607-5.6 was amended to increase the Fund's surcharge to $50 for Family Court matrimonial cases and to add the surcharge to paternity actions.

The Purpose of the Fund

The Parent Education Special Fund is used to administer education programs to families currently involved in divorce cases in the state of Hawai'i. Parties litigating custody matters as well as children of unmarried or never-married parents living in the same household are also required to attend. Parents attending the divorce-education programs are encouraged to refocus on their children's needs by learning how continued fighting negatively impacts their children. They are also encouraged to mediate rather than litigate their custody conflicts. The programs emphasize that:

- Family violence is never appropriate and is extremely harmful to children.
- Children will thrive if they live in safe homes and are loved by both parents.
- The court takes into account the safety of victims and children in making custody and visitation decisions.

Children between the ages of six (6) and seventeen (17) also attend to learn how to cope with changes in their family. The programs emphasize that children are not the cause of parental separation, that parents do not divorce their children, and that there are many families going through similar experiences. Children and teens participate in age-appropriate discussions and activities focused on helping each child identify and understand their emotions.

After an opening statement given by a Family Court judge, parents and children watch The Purple Family (1999), a timeless film which gently broaches themes of divorce and separation. The film is unique in that the words "divorce" or "separation" are never used explicitly to describe the family's situation. The programs distribute parenting guides with island-specific information on resources for counseling, domestic violence, parenting, and anger management classes. The website www.kidsfirsthawaii.com is also available to provide island-specific program and contact information to families

Parent Education Programs

Each circuit administers its own parent-education program. In the First, Second, and Fifth Circuits, the program is called Kids First. The Third Circuit has two programs: the program in Kona is called Children First and the program in Hilo is Children in Transition.

The O'ahu Kids First program is held most Wednesday evenings and alternates weekly between Ka'ahumanu Hale in Honolulu and the Ronald T.Y. Moon Court Complex in Kapolei. The Maui Kids First program is held on the second Wednesday of the month at Hoapili Hale in Wailuku. On Hawai'i Island, Kona's Children First program is held on the third Wednesday of the month at the West Hawai'i Civic Center, and Hilo's Children in Transition program is held at Hale Kaulike on the second Tuesday of even-numbered months as well as the second and fourth Tuesday of odd-numbered months. Kauai's Kids First program is held on the second Wednesday of the month at Pu'uhonua Kaulike Building in Lihu'e.

In March 2020 to August 2022, the COVID-19 Pandemic caused unprecedented interruptions across the State of Hawai'i. The Kids First program and other court programs were suspended temporarily until alternate programming could be developed. During the month of April, Kids First O'ahu created innovative on-line programming. The on-line program launched in May of 2020 and has since been utilized by families on O'ahu. The on-line program includes pre-recorded presentations by Family Court judges and Kids First licensed psychologists. The judges speak to parents about what to expect in Family Court and the presenters talk to parents about ways to minimize risks during the divorce or separation process. The programming also includes The Purple Family video, as well as a presentation by a licensed psychologist and interactive activities for children. Parents are asked to complete a feedback form and encouraged to ask questions, which are then forwarded to Kids First staff and licensed psychologists.

In April of 2022, the Fifth Circuit, Kauai, resumed in-person programming once a month.

In May of 2022, Kids First O'ahu added an interactive Zoom class just for children, held twice a week on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. This Zoom class starts off with the children watching the Purple Family video. A facilitator then has a one-hour interactive discussion on how divorce is never the child's fault, how parents are parents forever, who the children can talk to when they have overwhelming feelings, and that they are not alone - teaching the children how to better understand the divorce/separation process and cope positively through their experience.

As COVID numbers increased, all circuits began using the on-line platform and developed on-line programming materials for families. In-person classes continue to be suspended on O'ahu, Maui and Hawai'i Island.
