
A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO EMPLOYMENT EARNINGS.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1 SECTION 1. The legislature finds that requiring employers
2 to include pay or salary as part of a job advertisement helps to
3 increase pay transparency and equal pay for all employees.
4 California, Colorado, and New York City have recently enacted
5 laws requiring job advertisements to include pay, and initial 6 experiences have benefited employers, current employees, and
7 prospective employees. Employers and prospective employees
8 spend less time interviewing because prospective employees will 9 not apply to jobs with a pay level that they feel is too low,
10 and current employees have benefitted from seeing the salaries
11 of new employees and have used that information to seek higher
12 wages, thereby helping to reduce pay inequalities.

13 The purpose of this Act is to reduce pay inequalities by:

14 (1) Requiring certain job listings to disclose the hourly
15 rate or salary range that reasonably reflects the 16 actual expected compensation; and

1 (2) Prohibiting an employer from discriminating between
 2 employees because of any protected category by paying
 3 wages to employees in an establishment at a rate less
 4 than the rate at which the employer pays wages to 5 other employees in the establishment for substantially
 6 similar work.

7 SECTION 2. Chapter 378, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is
 8 amended by adding a new section to part I to be appropriately
 9 designated and to read as follows:

10 "§378- Job listing; disclosures. (a) Job listings
 11 shall disclose an hourly rate or salary range that reasonably
 12 reflects the actual expected compensation.

13 (b) This section shall not apply to job listings for:

14 (1) Positions that are internal transfers or promotions
 15 within a current employer; or

16 (2) Public employee positions for which salary, benefits,
 17 or other compensation are determined pursuant to 18 collective bargaining."

19 SECTION 3. Section 378-2.3, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 20 amended by amending its title and subsection (a) to read as 21 follows:

1 "~~§378-2.3 Equal pay[; sex discrimination]~~. (a) No
2 employer shall discriminate between employees because of [~~sex,~~]
3 any protected category listed in section 378-2(a) (1) by paying 4 wages to employees in an establishment at a rate less than the 5 rate at which the employer pays wages to other employees [~~of the~~
6 ~~opposite sex~~] in the establishment for [~~equal work~~]
7 substantially similar work on jobs the performance of which 8 requires equal skill, effort, and responsibility, and that are 9 performed under similar working conditions. Payment
10 differentials resulting from:

- 11 (1) A seniority system;
- 12 (2) A merit system;
- 13 (3) A system that measures earnings by quantity or quality 14 of production;
- 15 (4) A bona fide occupational qualification; or
- 16 (5) A differential based on any other permissible factor
17 other than [~~sex,~~] any of the protected categories
18 listed in section 378-2(a) (1),
19 do not violate this section."

1 SECTION 4. This Act does not affect rights and duties that
2 matured, penalties that were incurred, and proceedings that were
3 begun before its effective date.

4 SECTION 5. Statutory material to be repealed is bracketed
5 and stricken. New statutory material is underscored.

6 SECTION 6. This Act shall take effect on June 30, 3000.

Report Title:

Employment; Job Listing; Disclosure; Equal Pay; Discrimination

Description:

Requires certain job listings to include an hourly rate or salary range. Prohibits an employer from discriminating between employees because of any protected category established under state law, by paying wages to employees in an establishment at a rate less than the rate at which the employer pays wages to other employees in the establishment for substantially similar work. Effective 6/30/3000. (HD2)
