SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

RECOGNIZING THE IMPORTANCE OF THE FOURTH SECTOR OF THE ECONOMY AS COMPLEMENT TO THE THREE TRADITIONAL SECTORS, AND THE GROWTH AND DEVELOPMENT OF FOR-BENEFIT ORGANIZATIONS IN PROMOTING SUSTAINABLE AND EQUITABLE ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT.

1 WHEREAS, the coronavirus disease 2019 crisis deepened
2 existing structural flaws in Hawaii's economy, demonstrating how 3 global events can have an outsized negative impact on Hawaii's 4 island communities; and

5
6 WHEREAS, there is growing public demand to address the 7 systemic failures underlying the current economy by 8 transitioning to a new economic model that is more resilient,
9 inclusive, and sustainable, and that invests in and builds 10 locally-owned and stewarded assets; and

11
12 WHEREAS, there is a growing movement of for-benefit 13 enterprises in Hawaii and around the world that aim primarily to 14 achieve social or environmental objectives while also generating 15 revenue, thus promoting the achievement of sustainable 16 development; advancing human rights; producing decent and 17 quality jobs; promoting the economic empowerment of women;
18 combating climate change; and eradicating poverty, exclusion,
19 and social inequalities; and

20
21 WHEREAS, for-benefit enterprises come in a wide range of 22 models, including purpose-driven businesses, social enterprises,
23 Native Hawaiian culturally-informed businesses, cooperatives,
24 community-owned enterprises, public benefit corporations, 25 community development banks, and regenerative businesses, and 26 they strive to uphold regional- and place-based environmental,
27 social, and cultural values in their core business, governance, 28 and financial models; and

29
30 WHEREAS, globally and in Hawaii, there is a growing 31 movement of intermediaries, investors, and funders who seek to

1 invest in for-profit businesses, consumers who seek to purchase
2 from for-benefit producers, and workers seeking jobs with for-
3 benefit firms; and
4

5 WHEREAS, with mounting awareness and engagement in the 6 fourth sector of the economy, innovators across business, 7 government, finance, civil society, philanthropy, academia, and 8 other spheres are advancing a range of interventions to 9 encourage, incentivize, and enable all for-benefit enterprises
10 to become more sustainable and accountable, and to scale their 11 positive impacts on society and the environment, thus delivering 12 on the promise of sustainable economic development; and 13

14 WHEREAS, the realization of the promise of the fourth 15 sector of the economy necessitates a deliberate approach to 16 align and accelerate the efforts of stakeholders to build a 17 supportive ecosystem for for-benefit businesses; and 18

19 WHEREAS, such an approach would advance a sustainable, 20 inclusive, and more efficient and resilient capitalism model for 21 Hawaii, by blending the power of entrepreneurship and dynamism
22 of market economies with the social purpose and public-welfare
23 priorities of the nonprofit and public sectors; now, therefore,
24
