4 collecting and compiling all consumer complaints and 5 inquiries and making the collections and compilations

13 of any department or agency or units of county government in the 14 performance of its functions, powers, and duties.

15 § -9 Investigations. The executive director in the 16 course of the executive director's investigations may subpoena

17 witnesses, examine them under oath, and require the production
18 of books, papers, documents, or objects that the executive 19 director deems relevant to the investigation. Service of the 20 subpoena may be made personally within the State; provided that 21 if personal service cannot be obtained, substituted service may

1 be made on any witness over whom the courts can exercise
2 jurisdiction pursuant to chapter 634, in the following manner:

- 3 (1) Personal service outside the State;
- 4 (2) Mailing by registered or certified mail to the last

8 manner provided in the Hawaii rules of civil procedure 9 as if a complaint had been filed; or
- 10 (4) Service as the circuit court may direct in lieu of 11 personal service within the State.

12 Upon application by the executive director, obedience to the 13 subpoena may be enforced by the circuit courts of the State in 14 the county where the person subpoenaed resides or is found in 15 the same manner as a subpoena issued by the clerk of a circuit
16 court. If the person is a nonresident or has no principal place 17 of business within the State, obedience to the subpoena may also 18 be enforced by a circuit court of the State in the county where 19 the subpoena was issued. The executive director may conduct

9 or in the service of subpoenas.

10 § -11 Assurance of voluntary compliance. In lieu of 11 instituting or continuing an investigation or action pursuant to 12 section -5(6), the executive director may accept written 13 assurance of voluntary compliance from the person or persons 14 suspected of violation. The executive director shall obtain the 15 agreement of the affected consumers where possible. In no event 16 shall the fact that a person who enters into an assurance of 17 voluntary compliance be considered an admission of violation, 18 nor shall written assurance constitute prima facie evidence of 19 any violation. The assurance may include a stipulation for 20 reimbursement to some or all consumers who have been damaged by 21 an alleged unlawful act or practice and payment of costs of

1 investigation. All assurances of voluntary compliance may be 2 made a matter of public record. A consumer need not accept
3 restitution pursuant to the stipulation, but the consumer's
4 stipulated agreement to the assurance or the consumer's
5 acceptance and full performance of restitution shall bar 6 recovery of any other damages in any action on account of the 7 same acts or practices by the consumer against the person or 8 persons making restitution.

9 § -12 Unlicensed acts; penalties. (a) Any person who 10 furnishes commodities or services for which a license,

15 be subject to the penalty provided in subsection (b).

16 (b) Any person who engages in an unlawful act or practice
17 as provided in subsection (a) shall be fined not less than $500 18 nor more than $2,500 for each unlawful act or practice, which 19 shall be collected in a civil suit brought by the office of 20 consumer protection or the department of the attorney general.

1 (c) Any contract for the furnishing of commodities or 2 services by an unlicensed, unregistered, or uncertificated
3 person shall be void and shall prevent the person from 4 recovering the contract price or the reasonable value thereof.

5 § -13 Restitution. (a) In any action brought by the 6 attorney general, the court may include in its orders or 7 judgments provisions as may be necessary to effect restitution.
8 Any person in whose favor restitution is ordered need not accept 9 restitution; provided that the person's acceptance and full 10 performance of restitution shall bar recovery by the person of 11 any other damages in any action on account of the same acts or 12 practices against the person making restitution.

13 (b) Whenever a corporation is ordered to pay restitution
14 under subsection (a), the court hearing the action may include 15 in its orders or judgments that the corporation and the 16 individual directors, officers, or agents of the corporation who 17 authorized, ordered, or had done, or participated in any of the 18 unlawful acts and practices that caused, in whole or in part,
19 injuries to any person, shall be jointly and severally liable
20 for the payment of restitution.

1 (c) Whenever a domestic or foreign limited liability
2 company is ordered to pay restitution under subsection (a), the 3 court hearing the action may include in its orders or judgments
4 that the limited liability company and the individual members, 5 managers, or agents of the limited liability company who 6 authorized, ordered, had done, or participated in any of the 7 unlawful acts and practices that caused, in whole or in part,
8 injuries to any person, shall be jointly and severally liable
9 for the payment of restitution.

10 (d) The office of consumer protection may establish and 11 maintain an account for purposes of holding and disbursing 12 moneys received or recovered by it and that are due consumers as 13 restitution.

14 (e) The executive director may assign to a consumer for 15 collection that portion of any judgment awarding restitution to 16 that consumer.

17 (f) If a person commits a violation of section 480-2 that 18 is directed toward, targets, or injures an elder, the court, in 19 addition to the restitution authorized by subsection (a), may 20 award the elder an additional sum up to but not to exceed the 21 amount of restitution ordered in subsection (a). In determining

1 the amount, if any, of an award under this subsection, the court
2 shall consider the factors set forth in section 480-13.5.

3 § -14 Injunction. The executive director or the office
4 of consumer protection may bring civil proceedings to enjoin any 5 violation of section -13(a) or any other unlawful act or 6 practice affecting consumers, trade, or commerce.

7 § -15 Appointment of receiver; powers; limitation. (a)
8 If the executive director initiates any action in circuit court 9 under this chapter against a person for allegedly engaging in 10 unfair or deceptive acts or practices in violation of section 11 480-2, the court may appoint a receiver for the assets of the 12 person upon application by the executive director and proof 13 submitted at a hearing on the application that is sufficient to 14 establish that:

- 15 (1) The person previously engaged in a pattern of unfair 16 or deceptive acts or practices that resulted in 17 substantial actual damages to consumers;
- 18 (2) The person is outside the State or is actually 19 removing or about to remove self or property outside 20 the State or is concealing self or property; or

1 (3) The appointment of a receiver is necessary to preserve
2 the assets of the person for the benefit of consumers
3 allegedly damaged by the person's unfair or deceptive
4 acts or practices.

5 (b) Subject to the limitation in subsection (c), a 6 receiver appointed by the court pursuant to subsection (a) may 7 sue for, collect, receive, and take into possession all the 8 goods and chattels, rights, credits, moneys, effects, lands,
9 tenements, books, records, documents, papers, choses in action,
10 bills, notes, and property of every description, including 11 property that has been commingled that is owned by or owing to 12 the defendant. The receiver may sell, convey, or assign the 13 property and hold or dispose of the proceeds thereof subject to 14 the approval of the court.

15 (c) Prior to the judgment, the receiver shall exercise the 16 powers enumerated in subsection (b) as may be necessary to 17 preserve the assets of the defendant pending the judgment."
