Aloha Friends and Neighbors,

I would like to express my appreciation to those of you who have taken the time to complete the online survey. My staff and I appreciate the concerns expressed and the sharing of your ideas as possible solutions. If you haven't had a chance to participate in the community survey, your participation is still welcome and your input will help guide us to better serve our community. The link to participate is located at the end of this flyer.

I would also like to share my Congratulations to the students and families who will soon be celebrating graduations. The success of our students is dependent on many and we as a community also benefit from these milestones.

Mahalo,
Representative Costales

from Chapter 5 of Hawai‘i Revised Statutes:

§ 5-7.5 "Aloha Spirit". (a) "Aloha Spirit" is the coordination of mind and heart within each person. It brings each person to the self. Each person must think and emote good feelings to others. In the contemplation and presence of the life force, "Aloha", the following unuhi laulā loa may be used:

- "Akahai", meaning kindness to be expressed with tenderness;
- "Lōkahi", meaning unity, to be expressed with harmony;
- "Olu‘olu" meaning agreeable, to be expressed with pleasantness;
- "Ha‘aha‘a", meaning humility, to be expressed with modesty;
- "Ahonui", meaning patience, to be expressed with perseverance.

These are traits of character that express the charm, warmth and sincerity of Hawaii's people. It was the working philosophy of native Hawaiians and was presented as a gift to the people of Hawai‘i. "Aloha" is more than a word of greeting or farewell or a salutation. "Aloha" means mutual regard and affection and extends warmth in caring with no obligation in return. "Aloha" is the essence of relationships in which each person is important to every other person for collective existence. "Aloha" means to hear what is not said, to see what cannot be seen and to know the unknowable.

(b) In exercising their power on behalf of the people and in fulfillment of their responsibilities, obligations and service to the people, the legislature, governor, lieutenant governor, executive officers of each department, the chief justice, associate justices, and judges of the appellate, circuit, and district courts may contemplate and reside with the life force and give consideration to the "Aloha Spirit". [L 1986, c 202, § 1]

In Honor of Pono Shim

"In the 21st century, the world will search for peace and they'll look to Hawaii because Hawaii has the key and that key is aloha."
