Aloha Friends and Neighbors,

As we approach the midpoint of the 2015 session, bills in both the Senate and the House are being heard and passed. Thank you for continuing to share your thoughts and comments on many of these bills.

This year, Senator Glenn Wakai and I will be hosting our yearly Town Hall Meeting at Salt Lake Elementary School Cafeteria on Wednesday, March 25, 2015. Please join us for dinner as we discuss legislation and hear from community members.

I encourage you to continue to share your thoughts with me about proposed legislation and any other issues that are of concern to you. As always, if I may be of any assistance, please feel free to contact me at my office at 586-6220 or via email at repichiyama@capitol.hawaii.gov.

Hawaii: Next 50 Contest

The Hawaii: Next 50 Contest was inspired by former Governor George Ariyoshi's book, Hawaii: The Past Fifty Years, The Next Fifty Years, which provides a retrospective look into our islands' history as a state and prompts the next generation to think about what social, cultural, and economic roads we can take to keep Hawaii moving forward in the next century.

Students, grades 4-12, were asked to read the book and respond to the question: "What do you think needs to happen in the next 50 years for Hawaii to be the best place to work and live?"

This year the contest was sponsored by the Hawaii State House of Representatives, Hawaii Future Caucus, and the aio Foundation.

Governor George Ariyoshi speaks about the importance of challenging future generations to consider how individuals and the State as a whole can make meaningful contributions for Hawaii.
