TESTIMONY OF GARY S. SUGANUMA, DIRECTOR OF TAXATION

TESTIMONY ON THE FOLLOWING MEASURE:

H.B. No. 1121, H.D. 1, Relating to Leasehold Conversion

BEFORE THE:

House Committee on Finance

DATE: Friday, February 24, 2023

TIME: 10:00 a.m.

LOCATION: State Capitol, Room 308

Chair Yamashita, Vice-Chair Kitagawa, and Members of the Committee:

The Department of Taxation ("Department") offers the following comments regarding H.B. 1121, H.D. 1, for your consideration.

H.B. 1121, H.D. 1, seeks to amend section 235-7(a), Hawaii Revised Statutes (HRS), to exclude from gross income, adjusted gross income, and taxable income, 100 percent of the gain realized by a "fee simple owner" who sells a "leased fee interest" in certain "condominium projects," "cooperative projects," or planned unit developments, for units sold to the association of apartment owners or the residential cooperative housing corporation of the leased units.

The measure has a defective effective date of July 1, 3000, applies to taxable years beginning after December 31, 2022, shall not apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 2029, and will be repealed on January 1, 2030.

The Department notes that this is a reinstatement of a tax law that was previously enacted as Act 166, Session Laws of Hawaii (SLH) 2007, which had an effective date for taxable years beginning after December 31, 2007 and ending before January 1, 2013. Act 220, SLH 2012, extended the sunset date from January 1, 2013, to January 1, 2018.

The Department estimates a revenue loss of $1.43 million for fiscal year 2024 and thereafter.

Re: Testimony in Support of HB1121, HD1 Re Leasehold Conversion
Hearing: Friday, February 24, 2023, 10a.m., Conf. Rm. #308

Chair Yamashita and Vice-Chair Kitagawa and Members of the Committee:

I am Jane Sugimura, President of the Hawaii Council of Associations of Apartment Owners (HCCAO dba HCCA).

HCCA supports this bill for the following reasons:

- HCCA supported enactment of Act 166, which allowed lessees in leasehold condominiums, e.g., the Wailana at Waikiki and Discovery Bay, to buy their leased-fee interest from the lessor and avoid the risk of losing their homes when their leases expired.
- Unfortunately, Act 166 had a sunset provision that became effective on December 31, 2012, leaving many condominium units still held in leasehold, which means that those lessees may lose their homes if they cannot acquire their leased-fee interests from their lessors.
- This bill would establish an income tax exemption that would hopefully motivate lessors to sell the leased-fee interests to their lessees and this would promote the long-term stability in Hawaii's condominium and cooperative housing market.
- Although this bill would create a limited tax exemption, this should not affect the overall collection of taxes by the State, since the sale of the properties would not occur but for the enactment of this law.

Accordingly, HCCA respectfully requests that you pass this bill so that lessees can buy their leased-fee interests in their condos and co-ops and can be assured that they will not lose their homes at the end of their leases. Thank you for the opportunity to testify on this matter.

SUBJECT: INCOME, Tax Holiday for Gain from Leased Fee Interest Sale

BILL NUMBER: HB 1121 HD 1

INTRODUCED BY: House Committee on Housing

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY: Excludes from taxation one hundred per cent of the gain realized by a fee simple owner from the sale of a leased fee interest in units within a condominium project, cooperative project, or planned unit development to the association of apartment owners or the residential cooperative housing corporation of the leasehold units. Applies to taxable years beginning after 12/31/2022 and ending prior to 1/1/2030.

SYNOPSIS: Amends section 235-7, HRS, to add a new paragraph excluding 100% of the gain realized by a fee simple owner from the sale of a leased fee interest in units within a condominium project, cooperative project, or planned unit development to the association of apartment owners or the residential cooperative housing corporation of the leasehold units.

Terms used in the exclusion are defined by cross-reference to section 514C-1 or 516-1, HRS.

EFFECTIVE DATE: July 1, 3000; applicable to taxable years beginning after December 31, 2022, and ending prior to January 1, 2030.

STAFF COMMENTS: This bill establishes a period during which a sale of a leased fee interest will not be subject to state income tax. It cannot and does not affect capital gain tax assessed by the federal government, however, which is much larger in amount than the comparable tax that the state otherwise would have imposed. It is questionable whether the behavior sought to be encouraged by this credit, namely the permanent sale of a leasehold, would be worth the cost to the public fisc.

Comments:

I support HB1121 to encourage the sale of fee interests to condominium lessees and to continue the goals and objectives of the previous Act 166 enacted in 2007 to incentivize such sales at the present time.

This is an opportunity to extend and renew the efforts to stabilize the condominium market.
