A BILL FOR AN ACT

PROPOSING AMENDMENTS TO ARTICLE III OF THE HAWAII STATE
CONSTITUTION TO ESTABLISH A CONTINUOUS LEGISLATIVE SESSION.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1           SECTION 1. The legislature finds that Hawai'i's state
2 legislature only has sixty session days per year, generally
3 stretching from the middle of January until early May. The 4 legislature notes that the representatives and senators who
5 comprise the state legislature are part-time employees of the 6 State.

7           The legislature further finds that the efficiency,
8 productivity, orderliness, and transparency of the state
9 legislature could be improved by requiring that the legislature
10 be in session during every month of the year. The legislature
11 notes that doing so would make the representatives and senators
12 who comprise the state legislature into full-time employees of 13 the State.

14           The purpose of this Act is to propose amendments to article
15 III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii to establish a
16 continuous legislative session. Specifically, this Act:

- 1           (1) Requires the legislature to convene at least once a 2           month;
- 3           (2) Removes constitutional language regarding special
4           sessions, adjournment, and recesses;
- 5           (3) Creates a two-year deadline for a bill to be submitted 6           for gubernatorial consideration;
- 7           (4) Standardizes the number of days that the governor must 8           approve or veto a bill submitted for consideration;
- 9           (5) Requires bills returned from the governor to be heard 10          by the legislature within thirty days for the bill to 11          be further amended;
- 12          (6) Requires the passage of the legislative budget forty-13          five days before the end of each fiscal year;
- 14          (7) Makes members of the legislature subject to the 15          sunshine law; and
- 16          (8) Prohibits members of the legislature from having 17          employment other than their work as members of the 18          legislature.

19          SECTION 2. Article III of the Constitution of the State of 20          Hawaii is amended by adding a new section to be appropriately
21          designated and to read as follows:
