
A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO THE LANDLORD-TENANT CODE.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 521, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 2 amended by adding a new section to be appropriately designated
3 and to read as follows:

4 "§521- Death of a tenant; notice. (a) As part of the 5 rental agreement or in a separate written instrument, a tenant
6 may designate the name and contact information, including 7 mailing address, of a representative authorized by the tenant to 8 collect or dispose of the tenant's personal property within the 9 dwelling unit if the tenant becomes deceased during the tenancy.

10 (b) Upon the death of the tenant or, in the case of 11 multiple tenants, the death of all tenants, the landlord shall 12 contact the representative by registered mail and any other
13 contact information provided by the tenants to provide notice
14 pursuant to subsection (c). In the absence of a written 15 designation of a representative by the deceased tenant, the 16 landlord shall send notice to the estate of the deceased tenant 17 at the address of the dwelling unit. If upon delivery of the

1 notice to the estate, an individual comes forward and provides 2 the landlord with a court order evidencing the individual's 3 authority to act as a representative for the deceased tenant, 4 the individual shall be considered the representative for the 5 purposes of this section. In the absence of a written 6 designation of a representative by the deceased tenant or the 7 designated representative or representative of the deceased
8 tenant's estate does not come forward, a family member who comes 9 forward shall be considered the representative for the purposes
10 of this section.

11 (c) The notice required under this section shall contain 12 the following information:

13 (1) The name of the deceased tenant, the address of the 14 dwelling unit, and that the representative, if any,
15 was identified by the tenant to collect or dispose of 16 the tenant's personal property in the event of the 17 tenant's death;

18 (2) The approximate date of the deceased tenant's death;

19 (3) The monthly rent amount and the date through which 20 rent has been paid;

- 1 (4) A statement that the tenancy will terminate fifteen 2 calendar days from the date the notice is mailed or 3 personally delivered or the date through which the 4 rent has been paid, whichever is later; and
- 5 (5) A statement that upon the termination of the tenancy,
6 the landlord may dispose of any remaining personal 7 property that the landlord, in good faith, determines 8 to be of value, in or around the dwelling unit, by 9 either:
- 10 (A) Selling the property, in a commercially
11 reasonable manner;
- 12 (B) Storing the property at the expense of the 13 deceased tenant's estate; or
- 14 (C) Donating the property to a charitable 15 organization.
- 16 (d) If the representative contacts the landlord within 17 fifteen calendar days of the mailing or personal delivery of the 18 written notice pursuant to subsection (c), the landlord shall 19 provide the representative access to the dwelling unit for the 20 sole purpose of allowing the representative to remove the 21 deceased tenant's personal property in a reasonable manner. The

1 landlord shall allow access to the dwelling unit for the 2 representative to remove the deceased tenant's personal property
3 and surrender the dwelling unit to the landlord. This section 4 shall not create a landlord-tenant relationship between the 5 landlord and the representative.

6 (e) The tenancy shall terminate fifteen calendar days from 7 the date the notice is mailed or personally delivered to the 8 representative or the deceased tenant's estate, or the date
9 through which the rent has been paid, whichever is later. Upon 10 the termination of the tenancy, the landlord may dispose of any 11 remaining personal property in or around the dwelling unit that 12 the landlord, in good faith, determines to be of value by:

13 (1) Selling the property, in a commercially reasonable
14 manner;

15 (2) Storing the property at the expense of the deceased
16 tenant's estate; or

17 (3) Donating the property to a charitable organization.

18 (f) The method of disposal of the remaining personal 19 property of value shall be at the discretion of the landlord and 20 without liability to the landlord; provided that the landlord is 21 in compliance with this section. If personal property is sold

1 in a commercially reasonable manner, then the proceeds of the 2 sale, after deducting accrued rent and costs of storage,
3 advertising, and sale, shall be held in a trust for the 4 representative for thirty calendar days, after which time the 5 proceeds shall be forfeited to the landlord.

6 (g) The landlord may dispose of any remaining personal 7 property that has no value, including but not limited to trash
8 and perishable food, immediately and without notice to the 9 representative or deceased tenant's estate without liability.

10 (h) Within fourteen calendar days of the termination of 11 the tenancy or fourteen calendar days after the representative 12 has removed the tenant's personal property, the landlord shall 13 account for the security deposit as provided by section 521-44;
14 provided that any security deposit balance owed to the tenant
15 shall be paid to representative or the deceased tenant's estate.

16 (i) A landlord in compliance with the provisions of this 17 section shall have no further duty or liability to the 18 representative or the deceased tenant's estate after the 19 expiration of the tenancy.

1 (j) A landlord shall have no obligation to disclose the 2 death of a tenant or the history of deaths of tenants in a
3 rented unit to a prospective tenant.

4 (k) For purposes of this section, "family member" means a
5 person who is related to the deceased tenant by blood, marriage, 6 reciprocal beneficiary relationship, civil union, adoption, or 7 legal guardianship."

8 SECTION 2. New statutory material is underscored.

9 SECTION 3. This Act shall take effect on July 1, 3000.
